

WIFE OF U. S. NAVAL OFFICER WHOSE BEAUTY MADE HER LEADER IN CAPITAL SOCIETY

Mrs. L. W. Clarke, Wife of Ensign Clarke, U. S. N., a Washington Society Woman and Noted Beauty.

FRANK WALSH UNABLE TO BE HERE TOMORROW

Frank P. Walsh, chairman of the U. S. commission on industrial relations, telegraphed the Chicago Federation of Labor this morning that he would be unable to address them at their meeting Sunday. He stated that he was tied up in Washington and didn't dare leave the capital for three days.

Walsh is fighting a tremendously powerful lobby. They don't want congress to pass an appropriation for the printing and free distribution of 2,000,000 copies of the commission's report. The lobby is a hundred times as powerful as the one Barratt

O'Hara is fighting in the Ill. legislature, which is trying to stop the publication of his vice report.

The federation tomorrow will go ahead and appoint the committee on industrial relations which Walsh has asked them to do. This body will act as a sub-committee to the federal body in Washington and will work toward the industrial betterment Walsh wishes to bring about in this country. Other labor organizations throughout the country have been asked to take the same step.

Mrs. Fannie Price, broken in health, made room, 513 N. Clark, airtight then turned on gas. Dead.