

A. L. Boyd, 3850 Ellis av. Thinks she may have been beaten to death.

10,000 Chicagoans wanted by Red Cross ass'n. Nat'l membership only 20,000. Germany has over million members.

Bertha Proz, maid 410 Diversey pkwy, badly burned when dress caught fire from laundry gas stove.

35 student waiters in Hutchinson commons, restaurant near the Chicago U., may go on strike. Get 60 cents a day in food.

Municipal law department told Michael Flaherty, head of local improvement board, board has right to build subway.

L. L. Cole, chauffeur, will never drive again. His truck killed Marie Dobretz, 7, 3317 Fulton st.

Maurice Cone, saloonkeeper, 437 S. Clark, fined $10. Open Sunday.

TOO LATE! TOO LATE!

"I had hoped," writes Robert Minor, "to take a bath here, but a German 'obus' (shell) got there before me!"