

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Sunrise, 7; sunset, 4:20.

Dr. A. L. Blunt and Druggist W. E. Wallace up for sentence before Judge Landis Dec. 4. Convicted of Harrison law violations.

Robberies: G. W. Teller's home, 4405 Berkeley av., $570; B. O. Hube-bhwen's home, 800 George, $122; H. Thomas, 5221 S. Park av., $119.

Ravenswood club disbands. Masons have acquired its clubrooms, 4551 N. Ashland av.

Paul Rustam, Persian, who stabbed Clarence Guinan, janitor, to death as he slept in basement at 664 N. Clark, held to grand jury. Confessed.

Bertha Proz, domestic in home of Mrs. Thomas M. Hoynes, 410 Diversey pkwy., dead. Burned when clothes caught fire in laundry.

Marius Greenspan, 225 N. Cicero av., sued for $10,000. Alice Plain, 1828 Larchmont, hurt by auto.

Herbert Huntley, student, 4019 Calumet av., held to grand jury. Boy, 12, told serious story.

Fay Jeffers, 4001 Grand blvd., booked for robbery. Two pals also locked up.

Otto Meyer, 4926 Princeton av., fined $5 for speeding in auto of Congressman "Uncle Joe" Cannon.

Harry A. Tatman and wife, 6629 Lowe av., filed petition asking leave to adopt Florence Moeller, 8 weeks old, of 1449 W. 71st st.

James Addyman, 351 E. 116th, held to grand jury on assault charge. Saloon fight.

Former Judge Arba M. Waterman adjudged feeble-minded. Conservator placed over his $125,000 estate.

Alice Gulbert, 4, 6215 Washington blvd., Oak Park, dead from rabies. Bitten by stray dog two months ago.

Mrs. Samelia Vosella, 1051 N. 21st av., Melrose Park, freed on "witchcraft" charge of neighbors.

Temple Harris, former lawyer and wealthy real estate man, died of paralysis. Has been peddler for years.

"Miss Addams resting comfortably" latest report of Hull House leader's condition at Presbyterian hospital.

Charles Creighton, broker, 218 S. Grove av., Oak Park, died at dinner table. Heart disease or blood clot blamed.

Mrs. Julia Burdick, 1022 W. 75th, under investigation after suspicious blaze in home.

Charles L. Andrews and Harry Taylor, both of 6161 Wentworth av., arrested while fighting.

Mrs. John Gibson, 71, 957 Belden av., found dead sitting in chair at home. Heart disease.

Helen Reitnerbach, maid in home of Att'y Max N. Block, 1085 W. 12th, bound and gagged by robbers who ransacked house.

John Liskowic, 28, 2478 Blue Island av., burglar, shot while trying to enter house in Oak Park, dead.

Mrs. Hazel Diaz, 326 S. California av., told court she was beaten three times a week. Got divorce.

James M. Dahm, 3123 Moffatt, held up by gunman in daylight. Ran, saving money.

Rose Ellie, gypsy, sent to Bridewell for month. Charged with picking pockets.

Curley Millard, 831 W. Madison, captured in alleged attempt to rob jewelry store at 1252 W. Madison.

Ben Steacy, 70, and wife Josephine, 66, of 322 E. 60th, arrested on complaint of janitor. Broke window while fighting, he says.

Oscar Block, member board of managers of Prosperity Expo. at Chicago av. and lake front, bankrupt. Assets $58, liabilities $17,567.38.

Jerry Van Buskirk, invalid in Railroad Men's home, Highland Park, lost $82 to sneak thief.

Fungus has killed 16,000 chestnut trees in the east. But the vaudeville stage never did worry about having to use an old crop.