

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Sunrise, 5:52; sunset, 6:03.

George Wharton, 5619 Broadway, dead. Police investigating. Found injured at Broadway and Ridge av., Sunday morning.

W. J. Campion, 803 Tower bldg., lost $34 to pickpocket working in loop.

Six hundred engineers attended convention of American Railway Engineers' Ass'n at Congress hotel.

Jos. Strauss, butcher, 874 E. 63d st., held up and robbed of $100 as he closed shop and started home.

Att'y Chas. Erstein asked that subornation of perjury case be taken from Judge Pam.

Frank Ondrowicz, Leo Zevnik and Jos. Jurkas, La Salle, Ill., fined $50 and given day in jail for fraud in getting citizenship papers.

David Davidson, 2648 N. Rockwell, had $19 stolen from him by pickpocket while in loop.

Laundry Owners' ass'n elected officers at Hotel Sherman today.

Albert Brasius and John McGowan arrested in loop as short change experts.

Chief of Police Schuettler and Capt. Morgan Collins in Springfield lobbying for increases in police pensions.

Charles Edberg suicided with gun in Florence hotel, 11111 Forrestville av. Despondent over injury in accident.

Eli Stephens and brother, Brooks, of Buffalo lost $250 to holdup men at stockyards.

Mrs. Helen Lash, 2511 Southport av., sued Att'y Wm. Burns for $10,000, charging attack in courtroom.

Leak at West Taylor st. and river threatened to fill Illinois tunnel system. Stopped.

Mrs. Bertha Schon, 1452 E. 63d, fined $25 and costs for selling liquor in candy store.

Douglas McKenzie, pres. McKenzie Furnace Co., denied cruelty charges of wife in divorce hearing yesterday.

Mrs. Margaret Dahman, asking divorce, charges that her hubby had habit of drinking too much and deserting her.

Henry Landwirth, 1046 N. California av., in morals court because of his ideas on love and marriage. Hearing set for March 27.

Mayor R. O. Johnson, with chief of police and two other Gary officials left for Indianapolis, where they will be tried for election frauds.

Mrs. Ethel Erickson, 641 Dale av., asked that wedding to Kenneth be annulled. She was 14 when they were married.

Stephen Zoro, 2316 Wentworth av., freed on charge of kidnapping Minnie Mitrovic when Judge Fisher heard they were happily married.

West Park Policeman James Farrell, 2909 Flournoy, dead. Injured self week ago when he fell.

Don Bronenkamp, 45, 2655 Fulton, electrocuted while fixing wires of Public Service Co. of Northern Illinois in Maywood.

Mrs. Hattie Lindner sued for writ to get child, held by relatives of husband at 1918 S. Ashland av.

John Best, 6328 Drexel av., burned when he started fire in stove with kerosene.

Grand jury investigation of bribery charges against State's Att'y James Welch of Waukegan started.

Work again begun on Union station after lapse since July because of union labor difficulties.

Mrs. Sarah Gregg, Chicago, suicided in Decatur, Ind. Gas. No reason known.

Judge Landis may run Kohlsaat restaurants unless he gets a better bid than $25,000 for them.

Ira Doolittle, Libertyville, tried to die by gas. Then shot himself.

Phillip Furria, 2, 1235 Sinnott pl., dead. Clothes ignited by kitchen stove.

Axel Jensen, 7 W. Division, arrested in loop for flirting. Mrs. Amelia