

SAM LANGFORD IN ROLE OF TRAINER, HELPS SCHAEFFER

DUSKY SCRAPPER, WHO REIGNED THE RING IN OTHER DAYS, COACHES FRANKIE FOR BURMAN BOUT AT KENOSHA.

Chicago, Jan. 27.—When Frankie Schaeffer of the south side trades punches with Joe Burman of the west side in Kenosha on Feb. 3, Schaeffer will be a more finished fighter than his friends have been accustomed to seeing.

This was the statement made yesterday by Sam Langford, veteran of many hard ring battles, who will prepare Frankie for this contest. According to Langford, the south side brawler can sock with his right hand, but he does not know how to use it for protection. Sam also stated Frankie does not know much about leading with his left and working a man into position to cross the right. The colored fighter asserted he will remedy these weaknesses before the fight.

When Burman learned of Langford's intentions, he merely stated Sam had better teach Schaeffer to protect his jaw because he intends to start several blows in that direction. Burman is satisfied to go along and slug with sparring partners every day at the Arcade and believes he will be the winner inside of ten rounds.

There is a brisk demand for tickets, especially around the stockyards, where Schaeffer is a strong favorite. Seats will be on sale today at 153 N. Clark street where Sammy Wolfe has the exclusive loop sale.

Local fight fans will want their way across the Randolph street via duct tonight to see the ten round bout between Johnny Schauer and Otto Wallace of Milwaukee, feature of the boxing show aboard the U. S. S. Commodore.

Sailor Freedman and Manager Miller leave today for the east where the sailor will complete training for his twelve round bout with Benny Cohen in Newark Feb. 2. Freedman will stop off in Philadelphia to close a pending match with Bobby Barrett for Feb. 13.

Jack Duffy, local middleweight, who will meet Geats Doig of Spring Valley in the main event of Jimmy Keys' show at La Salle Feb. 2, is training daily at the Arcade. Jack boxed six rounds yesterday with two fighters and went at a fast clip all the way.

Frankie Mason, Ft. Wayne, Ind., flyweight, has placed himself under the management of Jim Malien. Frankie may be one of the principals in the semi-windup to the Schaeffer-Burman fight at Kenosha.

HOUSE COMMITTEE TAKES UP SOLDIER BONUS BILL TUES.

TO LAUNCH HEARINGS AT WHICH SECRETARY MELLON, OPPOSED TO LEGISLATION, AND EX-SOLDIERS WILL BE HEARD.

Washington, Jan. 27.—Hearings on soldier bonus legislation will start before the House ways and means committee Tuesday. Republican members of the committee fixed this date at a conference Thursday. The vote on a motion to take up bonus legislation was 11 to 1. Representative Huggins of New York cast the negative vote. It was announced that Secretary Mellon and representatives of the American Legion will be heard.

Senator McPherson of North Dakota, the new chairman of the senate finance committee, takes issue with Secretary Mellon's contention that neither the interest nor principal of loaned bonus should be made use of in connection with the bonus.

It has been reported that it would be necessary to provide some special taxes for a period of six or eight years in order to begin payments under an adjusted compensation law by July 1, said Senator McPherson. "I have not wanted, however, to continue such taxes in effect any longer than necessary. "I differ with Secretary Mellon on the use of the foreign loans. I believe it will be desirable to use such interest as comes in from that source, or to sell some of the foreign bonds. Imposition of taxes on necessities as a means of raising funds for a soldier bonus is considered inadvisable by Secretary Mellon. It was indicated yesterday at the treasury. The belief was expressed that any additional taxes on tea, coffee or sugar would be impractical.

Five Hundred Dollars!

By economy and thrift John Doe has accumulated and has for investment Five Hundred Dollars; what shall he do with it? The first impulse is to put it in the savings bank and get three per cent interest per year. A fine idea; absolute security; safety of principal; he can draw it almost unconditionally. Very good. But he is human; like Oliver Twist, he wants more; can he get it without sacrificing anything? Perhaps.

In this city he will be offered two kinds of securities. First stocks: capital stock shares of corporations; if he buys these, he becomes a partner of all share holders in that business. Now he doesn't want to go into business; just wants to get the best rate of income or interest his five hundred will earn per year and have that sum paid to him per year in cash. The stocks of old tried dividend payers are scarce and high priced.

Shares of new corporations which are going to startle the world with their wonderful earnings are offered in sales, sheafs, and stacks. If he could but read the lists of names and amounts of Ottawa men and women who gaily handed over their coin for similar shares, and know of their keen regret, he would not venture.

Second—Loans, mortgage notes, farm loans, city loans, mortgage bonds and similar securities. These mean that a responsible concern has made notes or bonds in an exact amount due on an exact date, with an exact rate of interest payable on an exact date and have conveyed and mortgaged their property to a certain trustee as a guarantee that every promise will be carried out; if every promise is not carried out, the company will lose its property to the trustee for the benefit of the bond or note holders. Mr. Doe need only assure himself that the borrower is a responsible concern, that the property is sufficient security for the money borrowed and that the interest rate is satisfactory to him.

Conclusion—If he values safety and refuses special hazards, with his money, he can only reach one conclusion and that is to buy first mortgage notes or bonds.

N. B.—That is where I come in; the best offering made to Ottawa people in years is the notes of the Davis & Stierer Company of Ottawa in units of $1000.00, $500.00 and $100.00, due in ten years with 7 per cent interest payable twice a year. First Trust Company, Trustee. Let me place any multiple of $100.00 for you. There never was a better chance to loan money in best security. Please send word for me to call.
