THE ADDRESS

The address by Rev. C. E. Hawkins follows:

"We are here this afternoon, not to attempt to add glory to any brother who has passed to his reward, or to take credit to ourselves for what we are doing. Each brother's glory is his ripened experience in the school of life. The tie that binds us is not broken, only lengthened to the other shore. They fought their battles, won their victories, and passed from us to Him, but the tie is not severed. "If your brothers on the other side could speak to us they would say: 'The best memorial you can hold for us is to carry on to final completion the work we loved and were doing the best we could when called upon to check up our account—to report on the use made of our talent.' "Brothers, Odd Fellowship is a school in which we are trained to make the best investment of the talent entrusted to us. Some invest in mines, stock and bonds. Let us continue to invest in what we continue to develop in ourselves those virtues which keep us pure, radiant and white as though we had been born in the sunbeam cradled in the rainbow and baptized in the silvery dews of the morning.

A BROTHERHOOD

"We are a brotherhood, bound with a chain that cannot be broken. It binds us man to man. This is what the uninitiated see. It binds us to the widow. It binds us to the orphan. It girdles the globe. It reaches to heaven and binds heaven to earth. "There is only one thing that can sever this three links. That is to violate the teachings of the order. To treat lightly our most solemn obligation. To divorce ourselves from the virtues of Odd Fellowship. "It must be a tremendous force to sever this chain. Oh that we may know this force. To describe it I think the loftiest flight of imagination would be inadequate to the task.

WORD PICTURE

"Could we change the mighty ocean into paint, transform every sick into a brush, make every man an artist, every star a scaffold, and the outstretched boundless sky a canvas; could we take the dismal clouds for shade, the frightful lightnings for tinge, the midnight's darkness for drapery and gloom; could we use the doleful winds for sighs, the countless drops of rain for tears, the broken music of the howling storm for wails, for shrieks and cries, the earthquake's violent shock for agonizing pain, and the long, low rumbling thunder for pitious, dying groans, and could we, with pious Joshua, command the glowing sun to stand still in the west, and the full, blushing moon in the east, and there wait while I, soaring artists dash the amazing horrors of sin on the expanding sheet, to delineate all its loathsome, horrible and everlasting effects, would quite exhaust the ocean, wear out every instrument, tire every artist, and more than fill heaven's immeasurable blue from pole to pole. Brother, brother tried and true, will you allow this monster of wrongdoing to separate us, man from man, from our duty to the widow and our obligation to the orphan?"

PREVENTION OF FIRE THE THEME

Members of Illinois State Prevention Association to Visit City.

Members of the Illinois State Fire Prevention association are expected to visit this city Wednesday as the guests of the Business Men's association and the Rock Island club. It is expected some 50 will be present from Chicago and other points throughout the state.

In the evening a smoker is to be given at the Rock Island club, to which all of the business men of the city will be welcome. The usual fire hazards are to be discussed and suggestions made relative to their correction. It is a well known fact that the yearly fire loss in the United States is many times greater per capita than in Europe.

INFANT HURLED UNDER SPEEDING AUTO UNINJURED

Child Is Torn from Mother's Arms and Thrown Under Wheels.

Roadster Traveling 50 Miles Crashes Into Maucker Automobile Yesterday.

Only through a miracle were no lives lost yesterday afternoon when a speeding roadster, traveling at the rate of 50 miles an hour, crashed into a machine driven by James W. Maucker at the corner of Thirty-eighth street and Seventh avenue. Mrs. Maucker was in the front seat holding her nine-months-old baby and when the crash came the infant was hurled to the pavement and directly under the wheels of the roadster. The child was badly bruised about the head, but the wheels passed on either side of the little form, and unless internal injuries develop, no serious results are apprehended. Both machines were badly wrecked.

SPEED ACCIDENT

The accident occurred about 5:30. Mr. Maucker was driving his car south on Thirty-eighth street at a rate of from 8 to 10 miles an hour and had just started to turn east on Seventh avenue. The Velle roadster, driven by Delmar Dooley, was traveling west on Seventh avenue, and witnesses of the accident claim it to have attained a speed of at least 50 miles an hour, Mr. Maucker's car was traveling so

MINOR INJURIES

The force of the collision jarred the baby loose from Mrs. Maucker's arms. That lady was thrown clear out of the machine and in falling her hair was caught in the seat, tearing a section of skin from her scalp. She was also badly bruised about the head and body. The Misses Agnes and Elizabeth Maucker, who were in the back seat, were uninjured, aside from minor bruises, as was the driver.

"She Looks Old" and Not Yet 40.

Many women fade early, simply because they do not take proper care of themselves. They constantly overlook those ailments that if not checked, rob them of all health and beauty. At the first symptoms of a functional disturbance or an organic derangement, if women will only rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, that great woman's remedy for woman's ills, it will add the roses to return to their cheeks, sallow looks depart, spirits brighten and backache and headaches caused by such troubles to be known no more.—(Adv.)

"It cured me," or "It saved the life of my child," are the expressions you hear every day about Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. This is true the world over where this valuable remedy has been introduced. No other medicine in use for diarrhoea or bowel complaints has received such general approval. The secret of the success of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is that it cures. Sold by all druggists.—(Adv.)
