

ORGANIZE FIRST TROOP OF SCOUTS

Silver Fox, Black Bear and Eagle Patrols Are United in One Division.

ARE OUT ON LONG HIKES

Scoutmaster Craig Plans Similar Journeys for Boys During Fall and Winter.

Troop No. 1 of Rock Island boy scouts was formally organized last night in a lively meeting of the boys, conducted by H. M. Craig of the Y. M. C. A.

This troop consists of the Silver Fox, Black Bear and Eagle patrols, and will number about 25 boys in all. William Willis of the Silver Fox patrol was elected "troop scribe."

As new patrols are organized, they will be enrolled as a part of Troop No. 2. It is reported that one or two groups of boys are already at work on their studies in preparation for enrollment in new patrols, and it is expected that the second troop will be completed within a short time.

Mr. Craig is an enthusiastic scoutmaster, and hopes to make the scouting work one of the attractive features of the Y. M. C. A. boys' department. This morning he escorted a group of the scouts on an expedition to the arsenal island, and another group was scheduled for a short hike this afternoon.

LEARN MUCH ON HIKE.

On these hikes the boys become acquainted with the country surrounding the city, with the trees and birds and flowers and stones, and they easily acquire much useful and interesting information amid pleasant circumstances. As much work as possible will be done out of doors during the fine weather of the fall, and some of the activities will be continued in the open even through the winter season.

GETTYSBURG DAY FIXED FOR NOV. 19 BY GOVERNOR

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 18.—Governor Dunne yesterday issued an official proclamation setting aside Nov. 19, the 50th anniversary of the address of Abraham Lincoln at Gettysburg, Pa., as

WHY IS ROCK ISLAND FIRM?

Because Its Citizens Have Learned the Truth.

After reading this generous and encouraging report from Miss Artz, those who have the misfortune to suffer as she did, will naturally long to get similar relief. But to get the same good as Miss Artz has, you should get the same remedy. There are of course, other kidney pills but there are no other kidney pills the same as Doan's. That is why Rock Island people demand the genuine.

Miss Etta Artz, 306 Fourth street, Rock Island, Ill., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have been beneficial to me and I am pleased to recommend them. I had nervous spells and suffered from backache and weak kidneys. When I heard about Doan's Kidney Pills I used some and they soon made me strong and well."

Gettysburg day in Illinois. The text of the governor's proclamation follows:

Whereas, Our martyred president and idolized son of Illinois, Abraham Lincoln, delivered his celebrated Gettysburg address on Nov. 19, 1863, on the battleground upon which the issue of the great enfranchisement of the slaves of the United States was determined, and

Whereas, Nov. 19, 1913, will be the 50th anniversary of the delivery of this immortal address, and

Whereas, In common with many other citizens of the state, I deem it appropriate that this inspirational and eloquent utterance should be impressed upon the minds of the people of the state as the typical expression of patriotism and humanity

Now, Therefore, I respectfully urge upon the people of Illinois, and in particular upon those engaged in the education of the youth of the state, that they hold in our schools and other educational institutions and public places services at which shall be read, with reverence and solemnity, this remarkable and undying utterance of the great humanitarian of his age.

In suggesting this observance I do not desire or request the suspension of or the interference with the commercial and business pursuits of our citizens, bearing in mind that within a few days thereafter our time-honored celebration of Thanksgiving day will be held under the proclamation of the president of the United States and of the governors of the several states of the union.

In accordance with the governor's proclamation a general observance of the day is expected.

AT THE ILLINOIS.

Next Monday and Tuesday Henry W. Savage will offer at the Illinois the same splendid production of the dramatic spectacle, "Everywoman," that was seen at the Curtis opera house, Davenport, last April. There will also be a popular matinee Tuesday. The organization comes back practically the same as when seen last spring, there having been only a few minor changes made in the cast, and these all with a view of improvement. This is the only company playing "Everywoman" in America, and Mr. Savage declares it is the best production of the morality play he has ever made. It includes in addition to an ensemble of over 150 people a symphony orchestra and a train load of scenery and electrical effects. The title role will be played by Thais Magrane, one of the most successful of the many leading women who have attempted the difficult character. She played the role during the long run in Chicago, in Philadelphia and New York.

Next Wednesday the latest of L. Frank Baum's story plays of Oz will be seen at the Illinois. This new member comes under the designation, "The Tik-Tok Man of Oz," and depicts Betsy Bobbin, with her pet mule, Hank. Lenora Novasio will be the Betsy and Frank Woodward, the most versatile of animal impersonators, the mule. The two well known vaudeville headliners, Morton and Moore, will portray Tik-Tok and Shaggy. "The Tik-Tok Man of Oz" is a musical venture of Oliver Morosco, who of late has come into the limelight as a producer of such successes as "Peg o' My Heart," "The Bird of Paradise" and "The Mooney Moon." "The Tik-Tok Man of Oz" has the proud distinction of having outlived the hot spring and summer months in Chicago and to have played to record business despite the hot nights that the Windy City has been noted for the past few months ago. This attraction, further, carries more stage effects than any other yet booked for the coming season and by far the largest chorus and the most expensive cast so far booked into this city. Considering the enormity of this production, the coming of "The Tik-Tok Man of Oz" has auspicious attributes not to be undervalued.

next week at the Empire, having been booked for the first three days. "Paid in Full," of which Eugene Walter is the author, is the story of a sullen, vicious, resentful husband, who has become embittered by the daily grind, so that every spark of manhood has honor has been wiped out. He finally sacrifices his wife, to smear over, if possible, with his employer, his theft. The very goodness, and innocence of the wife is her most effective shield.

THE MOVIES

"Money's Merciless Might," is the title of a feature to be seen tomorrow at the Family, which is rapidly gaining a reputation for offering the better things in moving pictures. In this film, which preaches the sorry lesson that money can accomplish everything, pretty Suzanne Grandais shows great powers of facial expression and dramatic ability and the film would be enjoyable were it but for her alone. Many suitors are courting Suzanne, the daughter of the prosperous broker, Julius Leclere. Among them are Serge Renot, a young aviator with whom she is in love, and Runciman, an American millionaire, who asserts that she will marry him whether she wishes to or not. Financial difficulties overwhelm the broker and he dies of the shock. Suzanne decided that in her penniless condition she will be unable to marry Serge, and that she must go abroad. There she meets a well-to-do young lieutenant whom she promises to marry. Runciman discovers this and invites Renot to visit him. Discovering the lieutenant and Suzanne on riding one day, Serge is overcome with jealousy and challenges him to a duel. The lieutenant is killed and Suzanne tells Serge that she can never forgive him, her love having changed to hate. Runciman again proposes to her, but is rejected and before leaving says that she need send him but one word when she is ready for him and that word is "come."

The next day Suzanne receives a letter from Serge saying that if she does not come to him by 3 o'clock he will go up in his aeroplane and meet with an accident which will kill him. Suzanne hastens to the aviation field when she hears this, but she is too late—Serge's monoplane can be seen speeding away in the distance. Suddenly it collapses and falls to the ground, killing Renot. Suzanne is heartbroken. She and her mother return to their home and find everything in the hands of the receiver. She has reached the end of her rope, and with defeat written on her face, she at last sits down at her desk and writes one word. The letter is addressed to William Runciman.

AT THE EMPIRE. "Paid in Full" having made the rounds of the legitimate theatres for several seasons, proving one of the biggest box office winners of a decade, has now been boiled down for vaudeville consumption. In the latter form it will have its first local presentation

Phils Plan for 1914. Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 18.—Plans to reorganize the Phillies are under way. A meeting of the officers of the club was to have been held yesterday afternoon at National league park, but had to be postponed owing to the absence of Fred C. Chandler, one of the directors. Since the death of William H. Locke, the president of the club, two months ago Mr. Baker has been acting as the head of the club. It is reported that Mr. Baker will be elected president when the meeting is held Monday.

Chavez vs. Campi. Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 18.—Negotiations for a 20-round bout between Eddie Campi of San Francisco and Benny Chavez, the Denver bantamweight, at Vernon Nov. 4, were virtually completed yesterday when Campi accepted the terms offered by an athletic club here. An effort will be made to match the winner with Champion Johnny Coulon for the bantamweight title.

Kilbane vs. K. O. Mars. Cincinnati, Ohio, Oct. 18.—It was announced here yesterday that Johnny Kilbane of Cleveland, the champion featherweight of the world, and Knock-out Mars of this city had been matched to meet in a 10-round boxing contest here Oct. 30.

$10,000.00 BOND

Automatic Telephone Company Files $10,000 Surety Bond With the City to Guarantee Pavements Will Be Placed in Good Condition and City Kept Free From Loss In Any Way.

The Automatic Telephone Company has filed with the city official a $10,000 bond to guarantee the city against loss in any way whatever and as an insurance that the paving will be relaid in good condition. A skilled workman can put back pavement better than it was before. Any man who is familiar with asphalt pavements will acknowledge that a patch is better than the original in that the patch is fresh material and the oil has not evaporated out of the asphalt, as it has in that which was laid some time before. In this day and age a skilled workman can do anything as well or better than it was ever done before. Putting back pavement better than it was before is an infinitely easier job than many of the engineering feats of today, such as the Panama canal, the Keokuk dam, and a sky-scraper a thousand feet high, etc.

The streets of Rock Island belong to the city for the good of all and not for any one individual. The Automatic Telephone company has to put the paving back in good condition or forfeit the bond to the city.

The Automatic Telephone company will save the citizens of Rock Island a million dollars in a few years. If Rock Island had as many telephones as a number of other cities in proportion to the population, it would have 10,000 telephones, and the Automatic Telephone company will save on an average $15 per telephone per year. This would equal $150,000 a year, or $1,000,000 in a little over six years. This large sum of money would re-pave the streets of Rock Island and add many other improvements, such as boulevards, parks, hospitals, libraries, etc., and make Rock Island one of the most beautiful cities in the country.—(Adv.)
