THE BULLETIN. Published every morning, Monday excepted.

CITY CHIT-CHAT. —The Ohio is rising at this point. It swelled a full half inch yesterday.

—Hardy will twirl his graceful toe as instructor in the art of dancing to-day. —Holmes is back on the police force.

—The tug Cache, is having new guts put into her—a full outfit of new machinery. —Mertz men everywhere.—Sun.

—Pat Mocker was robbed of $7 a few nights ago. If this is a libelous assertion we wish to take it back. —A fine double barreled shot gun will be raffled at the Delmonico, Commercial avenue, this evening.

—Oyster lunch and raffle, this (Saturday) evening, at the Old Delmonico. A fine double barreled shot gun, at 9 o'clock sharp. Sportsmen attend. —Sheriff Irvin has secured information which leads him to the belief that he will recapture Murry, the burglar who escaped from the county jail a short time since.

—The man who objected to the weather yesterday refused to be pleased with any excellent thing, and actually went back on Stratton & Bird's mackerels—the best in the market. —The Sun has refrained from making war on Billy Martin because it wanted the people to settle the fight between Billy and Robert. What a considerate cust the Sun editor is!

—If they are sober it is because they can neither beg nor gamble whisky enough to make them drunk. —Associate Justice Marchildon, of the county court, is in the city. He don't like the proposed route of the Cairo and St. Louis railroad. It does not go as close as he thinks it ought to Thebes.

—Comings declares his intention to smash the street committee for some heinous neglect of duty upon which his observation has fastened itself like a cockle bur in a nigger's wool. If this simile is offensive to the sensitiveness of our republican friends allow us to beg pardon. —A young man of more than ordinary ability wishes to obtain a situation in some office, store or mercantile house. As he has never yet been engaged in business, the question of salary will be left to the opinion of his employer.

—Mr. Rexford, of the St. Charles, called at THE BULLETIN'S office yesterday to congratulate us on having induced the proprietor of the flying horse concern, now in operation on the Delta grounds, to put up his "chairs" under our windows, so that we might enjoy the noises made by a thousand boys and girls. For a moment we were tempted to make an angel of our visitor, but we didn't. —Thomas, of the Winter hardware store, can't shoot with officer Robertson who killed 56 blackbirds in one shot the other day, but he is also some on a shot. Yesterday he killed 27 rice blackbirds and 6 quails at one shot, and, Alexander-like, almost went because there were no more in the flock to kill. On being cross questioned, he admitted that it was possible one very small bird of the flock might have escaped.

—The Sun wishes to know why Martin is a better man than Miller. Because he will give his attention to the office and Miller will not. He can't afford to give his time to the county, and Martin can. As we have often said, both are reputable citizens and first class—XXX—gilt edge—excellent men, but Martin wants the office and has need of it, and Miller neither wants nor needs it. He is only playing run for office. —Incomplete notice of Farin's concert last night was given to the public, but a large and appreciative audience was present. The performance was excellent. The Signor and Mrs. Schlessinger carried off the honors, but Messrs. Schlessinger, Schuh and Morris filled their parts on the programme in a manner that secured the applause of the audience. Farin's piano playing was splendid—masterly.

and his "Mocking Bird" and "Home, Sweet Home," secured hearty applause from an audience very difficult to please. The chief feature of the performance was the duo from the third act of "Il Traviatore," which was sung by the Signor and Mrs. Schlessinger. It was executed enthusiastically, and deserved all the applause it received.

COUNTY CHIT-CHAT. —The assessor reports 740 dogs in the county. —There is little interest felt throughout the county in the pending election.

—We boast of but few towns in Alexander county—all very small, except Cairo. —The new jail proposition is not very popular among the farmers—so we are told. —A new bridge is to be erected over a creek at a place known as the "old orchard," near Thebes.

—In Alexander county there are acres in cultivation as follows: wheat, 3,966; corn, 10,322; other field products, 1,041. —Paupers, lunatics and coroner's inquests during twelve months, from September 1870 to September 1871, cost the county $3,296.69, Cheap. —The number of improved town and city lots in the county is 1,300, of the assessed value of $126,055. The improvements on these lots are assessed at $653,055. The number of unimproved lots is 5,800, assessed at $742,740.

—There are, according to the assessor's return, only 1,061 horses in Alexander county, of the average value of $39.57; 2,670 neat cattle, average value, $12.34; 402 mules and asses, average value, $49.62; 1,021 sheep, average value, $1.30; 7,114 hogs, average value, $27.82; 655 clocks and watches, average value, $14.85, and 72 pianos, average value, $121.60.

THE MUNICIPAL MACHINE. —Lumber for the sidewalks cannot be obtained as rapidly as it can be used, and, as a consequence, the work of reparation does not go on as rapidly as it might. McHale, who was working on Sixth street, used up all the topping he could obtain and was compelled to give his "jail birds" rest and recreation behind the bars, where they are now lounging "in idleness and play."

—From September 11th to October 24th, McHale, the keeper of the keys of the city prison house—called, for short, the calaboose—had under his tender care and keeping twenty-eight unfortunate men—eight Williams, three Jameses, three Michaels, one Patrick, and so on. He has also had in his charge eleven Marys, two Janes, an Ann, a Lena, a Martha, and so on. Marshal Cain made thirteen of the arrests, Holmes nine, Sheehan thirteen, and so on.

—There is a fuss brewing in the city council about the reparation of the sidewalks on Seventh street. We're glad of it. A right good fair stand up give and take fight in the council—a regular hair-pulling, scratching and gouging muss—would do our soul good. There has been too much peace in that body lately. It is becoming monotonous. A row is absolutely necessary. If we have any friends in the city legislature we hope they will attend to this matter without any unnecessary delay.

MISCELLANEOUS CHIT-CHAT. —Mr. Fletcher, editor of the Centralia Sentinel, called on us yesterday. He is on a recreating trip, and left for St. Louis last night. —B. M. Mann, Esq., formerly of this city, is candidate for senator on the sore-head-scawlag-office-seekers' ticket in Chicago. —The Cairo people, finding that the common council will not supply them with water, have gone to drinking whiskey again hard as ever.—Kentucky Paducahan.

—The toothless wretch of the Golden-Day Herald—which the same is a very appropriate name for him—says THE BULLETIN "chaws both ends of the string." So help us gracious, we are not guilty of this imputed shortcoming! We appeal to Mann to sustain us in this denial—we invoke Pope to rally to our side—we cry unto Liniger, and Fisher, and Bird to crowd around us and repel this attack upon our character. —Since the sudden change in the weather the Cairo editors have gone to Chicago to pass themselves off as sufferers by the fire, in the expectation of receiving a supply of winter clothing.—Paducahan Kentuckyan.

If the local editor of the Kentuckyan continues much longer the slave of the bowl he now is, and dies the mean cuss he always was, he will soon find himself where winter clothing is not needed, or else there is no truth in the orthodox description of hell. —Sometime ago we published from the Massac Journal the peculiar plan adopted by Mrs. De Geer to induce husbands to sign the temperance pledge, and a report that she had bribed an oldish man with a kiss to sign. Who kissed the madame? is a question the answer to which we long have sought and mourned because we found it not. But here comes a prominent citizen of Mound City—a doctor—and says he can enlighten us; that the kisser was an oldish man, rather heavy set, an inveterate smoker and joker, and the doctor's very particular personal friend and near neighbor; that the kissing was done at Carbondale; that, notwithstanding he did the kissing and took the pledge as stated, he fell early in the action and is in a fine condition to kiss and take the pledge again. The above information is contained in a letter which lies before us, under the well-known signature of Doctor C—but, by the way, he requests us to not give his name and we are, as a matter of course, bound to respect his request. "It is not," the doctor writes, "my wish to have any unpleasantness about this thing; but, if you should see proper to refer to the facts I give you, and the captain should desire to know who gave you the information, you can show him this note." There can no longer be any doubt that the kisser of Mrs. De G. has been unearthed.

He solicits a share of the public patronage. oct15tf.

OUR RAILROADS TO BE. —No news in reference to the probability of work being commenced on the "Junction road" has leaked out lately. —The probabilities now are that both the Cairo and St. Louis and the Cairo and Vincennes roads will be completed within eighteen months from this date.

—The contractors of the Cairo and St. Louis road propose to have the road completed and cars running from Cairo to Jonesboro by the 1st of May, next. —What an air of mystery can be flung about railroad matters by skillful shaking of the head, and suggestive hints. These build roads—crowd, em right through. —The railroad from Greenfield's landing, opposite this city, to Charleston, is not being very rapidly pushed forward. The cause of the delay has not yet been ascertained by any one on this side of the river.

—A meeting of the stockholders of the Cairo and Vincennes railroad company has been called to meet at the office of the company in this city on December 9th, for the purpose of ratifying the action of the board of directors in reference to certain matters which have not yet been made public. We do not know, but presume, this meeting will have some effect upon the question of "road or no road" and that, if the action of the board is ratified, work will be immediately commenced. We don't know, though. We are only guessing.

—We find the following paragraphs in the Jonesboro Gazette of the 4th, inst.: The contract for grading six miles of the Cairo and St. Louis R. R., between Cairo and Jonesboro, was let the first of the week. There are some eight or ten miles of the road on the St. Louis end already graded, and a large force at work. There are two companies of engineers on the route. Mr. Barber has charge of the north division—from St. Louis to Murphyboro, and Mr. Gregory from that point to Cairo. The engineers are capable, and as soon as they can complete the survey the whole line, we are informed, will be immediately placed under contract. The gauge of this road is three feet, and as it is the first railway constructed upon this narrow gauge in the state, no pains will be spared to make it complete in every respect, and a pattern for the many roads that will be soon constructed on this gauge all over the country.

Mr. Ferguson, Chief engineer of the Cairo and St. Louis R. R., was in town on Thursday, and gives a favorable report of the work on the whole line. The work of construction will be prosecuted from St. Louis to Cairo as fast as it can be got ready. Davis & Merwin have the contract at Cairo for grading four miles and Mr. Donally for two miles; the remainder of the line—nine miles—to Unity is now open for bids from contractors.

—A merchant of this city while being shaved at Alha's barber shop lately, lost his pocket book containing $300. It dropped on the floor and was found by the proprietor, who returned it to the owner after he was satisfied that the careless gentleman did not know what had become of it. This shows how important it is to be shaved in the shop of an honest man whose towels are clean, razors sharp and hand skillful at his business. Patronize Alha.

—D. Lampert has removed his shop from Ohio Levee to Eighth, between Commercial and Levee, and he now invites his friends to one of the best fitted shops in the city. Everything is kept in the neatest and best manner possible; snow white towels, bright keen razors, pure water, fragrant soaps, clear oils and fine perfumery. Smooth shaves, thorough shampoos, fashionable hair-cutting, hair-curling or dressing for gentlemen, ladies or children, and polite attention is always in readiness for those who favor him with their patronage. oct291w.

—Saup has received, in anticipation of the holidays, a very large and varied stock of toys. He always is first in this department, and is recognized as par excellence. Factory man of Cairo. There is nothing that can be thought of to tickle the juvenile fancy that he has not laid in stock—not a small assortment, but one large enough to make happy all the boys and girls of Alexander county, and furnish a big stock to each of the jobbers in all the towns surrounding Cairo, within a radius of a hundred miles, at St. Louis and Cincinnati prices. The attention of the general public, and especially of small dealers is particularly invited to Mr. Saup's stock.

The family grocery store of Bixby & Koehler is being patronized largely by people who like fine groceries. Their location on the north side of Eighth street, between Commercial and Washington avenues, is a central one, and their stock has been selected with discrimination, therefore this new candidate for public patronage meets exactly the wants of the people. Messrs. Koehler & Bixby propose to keep up their reputation by always selling the best of all sorts of groceries to their patrons and the public, knowing that people generally are aware of the fact that really good articles of any kind are always the cheapest in the end. tf.

—The merchant tailoring shop of Messrs. Lehning & Kobler, on the south side of Eighth street between Washington and Commercial avenues, opposite Hannay's dry-goods store, has been open only a few weeks and already these gentlemen are obtaining a fair share of the patronage of the public. They are both practical non-first-class mechanics—and are willing to guarantee satisfactory work. They keep on hand always a full line of piece goods, to which they direct the attention of all who wish to have made clothes that are worth the money paid for them. RIVER NEWS. PORT LIST. ARRIVED. Steamer Bertram, New Orleans. Belle of Pike, St. Louis. Eddyville, Evansville. Illinois, Columbus. Jas. Fisk, Jr., Paducah. DEPARTED. Steamer Belle St. Louis, St. Louis. A. Baker, Cape Girardeau. Belle of Pike, Memphis. Bee and Barges, St. Louis. Eddyville, Evansville. Illinois, Columbus. Jas. Fisk, Jr., Paducah. Ada Heilmann, Memphis.

The river has risen about 4 an inch during the past 24 hours. At this port the river does not remain in one position long enough to make any change in the channel. Today it is rising, and probably tomorrow it will be falling, thus it is day by day. The Mississippi is still rising with about 5 feet 8 inches out and more expected every day. If the rise continues any length of time the St. Louis & Memphis packet Co. will put their own boats in their old places. How natural it would be to hear the familiar whistles of the Belle Memphis, Chester, Grand Tower, etc., it would make a person feel almost good enough to cause him to strike his grandmother. The Arkansas is rising very fast with a good stage to Little Rock. The Carter Line are going to send out a boat from St. Louis to Red river in a few days. The river has risen 6 feet, and is still rising at the rate of 9 inches every day. From Evansville down there is about 25 inches.
