THE BULLETIN.

Published every morning, Monday excepted.

THE ELECTION.

CAIRO STANDS FIRM.

MAJORITY FOR THE WHOLE TICKET.

LET US CROW!

Notwithstanding the great effort made by the republicans to defeat the democrats of Cairo—notwithstanding the fact that they bought purchasable democrats to peddle their tickets—notwithstanding the fact that they resorted to the mean device of bogus tickets, the democracy have come out ahead, with flying colors, triumphantly.

Hayes carries the city by 81 majority; Bowman carries it by 64 majority; Martin carries by 42 majority; and Holey by 66 majority.

Below we give the vote in detail: NORTH CAIRO.

Table showing election results for North Cairo: Hayes, democrat 189; Beveridge, republican 143; Hayes' majority 46.

SOUTH CAIRO.

Table showing election results for South Cairo: Hayes, democrat 202; Beveridge, republican 107; Hayes' majority 95.

Majority against jail 130.

A very light vote was polled. If the democrats had polled a full vote their majority would have been at least 160.

[From the Cairo Evening Sun.] Dr. J. WHITE.—We are glad to learn that Dr. J. White is receiving calls for his advice and remedies which bid fair to retain him in Cairo all winter.

Persons careless or indifferent to this opportunity for restoration to health may regret their neglect for the balance of their lives!

J. BROWN, Agent, Cairo, Mo.

IN PARTICULAR.

LITTLE Muck Clams (quahaugs) at Jorgensen's.

These French Cherries, in syrup, so popular with connoisseurs are sold by Jorgensen.

Michigan apples for sale, at a great bargain, in quantities to suit purchasers, at the room in Clark's building formerly occupied by Mathus and Uhl.

There will be a grand dance at the residence of Mrs. P. Smith, corner Thirty-fourth street and the levee, on Tomorrow (Thursday) night, 9th, instant! Public invited.

Wanted—fifty teams to work on the St. Louis and Cairo railroad at Cairo. Applications must be made immediately. Wage, $850 per day. Apply to O. A. Toppie, Winter's block, Cairo.

All persons who wish a soap to remove ink stains, fruit stains, grease spots, paint, etc., from clothing can get it by calling on Joseph Redman, and asking for Crane's prize medal clothes cleaner-warranted. Price 25 cents per box.

D. Lampert has removed his shop from Ohio Levee to Eighth, between Commercial and Levee, and he now invites his friends to one of the best fitted shops in the city. Everything is kept in the newest and best manner possible; snow white towels, bright, clean razors, pure water, fragrant soaps, clear oils and fine perfumery. Smooth shaves, thorough shampoos, fashionable hair-cutting, hair-curling or dressing for gentlemen, ladies or children, and polite attention is always in readiness for those who favor him with their patronage. oct9dlm.

The family grocery store of Bizby & Koehler is being patronized largely by people who like fine groceries. Their location on the north side of Eighth street, between Commercial and Washington avenues, is a central one, and their stock has been selected with discrimination, therefore this new candidate for public patronage meets exactly the wants of the people.

Messrs. Koehler & Bizby propose to keep up their reputation by always selling the best of all sorts of groceries to their patrons and the public, knowing that people generally are aware of the fact that really good articles of any kind are always the cheapest in the end.

The merchant tailoring shop of Messrs Lehning & Kohler, on the south side of Eighth street between Washington and Commercial avenues, opposite Hanny's dry-goods store, has been open only a few weeks and already these gentlemen are obtaining a fair share of the patronage of the public. They are both practical men—first-class mechanics—and are willing to guarantee satisfactory work. They keep on hand always a full line of piece goods, to which they direct the attention of all who wish to have made clothes that are worth the money paid for them. Cleansing and repairing done neatly at low prices.

Saup has received, in anticipation of the holidays, a very large and varied stock of toys. He always is first in this department, and is recognized as par excellence, the toy man of Cairo. There is nothing that can be thought of to tickle the juvenile fancy that he has not laid in stock—not a small assortment, but one large enough to make happy all the boys and girls of Alexander county, and furnish a big stock to each of the jobbers in all the towns surrounding Cairo, within a radius of a hundred miles, at St. Louis and Cincinnati prices. The attention of the general public, and especially of small dealers is particularly invited to Mr. Saup's stock.

By using Mrs. Whitcomb's Syrup for children many a doctor's bill can be saved and much suffering averted. Read the advertisements in another column.

HOTEL PERSONALS.

The following named persons were at the St. Charles hotel yesterday: J. M. Webb, Du Quoin; M. Kendall wife, Ohio; Maj. O'Dugan, "of the submarines;" C. Mervin and wife, contractor C. & St. R. R.; O. L. Davis and wife, contractor C. & St. L. R. R.; Mrs. Bell, Centralia; J. C. Bowen, Osceola, Ark.; Robt. L. Perry and Jno. Buckingham, Chicago; J. H. Finley, Springfield; C. H. Marshall, St. Louis; D. C. Carter, Mound City; M. Ettinger, Cincinnati.

The following were the arrivals at the Delmonico Hotel, Wm. Winter, proprietor, for the twenty-four hours ending at 9 o'clock, P. M., November, 7th: C. S. Leoder, Thebes, Ill.; John Anderson Mound City, Ill.; John W. Trover, Villa Ridge, Ill.; Wm. Colby, Ohio; J. P. Gammon, New York; J. M. Lennard, Boston, Mass.; Capt. W. H. Troy, Pittsburgh, Pa.; F. A. Halliday, Metropolis, Ill.; F. A. Victor, Villa Ridge, Ill.; J. W. Wright, Mounds Junction; S. S. Moman, Ashberg, Ill.; George Barber, Madison, Ind.; George B. McKinney, Chicago, Ill.; H. C. Garner, Evansville, Ind.; J. Pellagiani, New York; James H. Whitney, New Orleans, La.; Thomas R. Whitney, N. O., La.; Frank Ware, Chicago, Ill.; John W. Trover, St. Charles; William H. Michaels, Memphis, Tenn.; George R. McNulty, Memphis, Tenn.

Police business was dull yesterday. Moser, the homicide whose knife let out the life of Bribach, was taken before Judge Ross yesterday for preliminary examination. He was remanded until to-day at 10 o'clock.

Bribach's death was the theme of conversation in every part of the city yesterday. A post mortem examination disclosed the fact that the second rib on the left side had been severed by the knife blade which had penetrated the heart.

The room of a boarder at the Gaffney house, named Taylor, was robbed on Monday night of an overcoat and a lot of clothing. Taylor, under the instructions of a well-known policeman of this city, spotted his men—three thieves—and accompanied them, yesterday morning, to Columbus on the steamer Illinois. He there procured their arrest, and brought them back to this city yesterday afternoon. Marshal Cain received them, and in irons marched the boys to the lock-up.

George Moser, the slayer of Robert Bribach, was born in Pottsville in Baden, 40 years ago. He has been five years in America, has no family, except a sister, a resident of this city. By trade, he is a tinsmith, and has been in Cairo only five days. Robert Bribach, who was killed by Moser, was an Austrian. He was born in the city of Liepsig, the capital city of Saxony. At the time of his death he was 41 years of age. He lived five years in St. Louis, and came to Cairo in 1860. He leaves a wife and two children.

Pinkerton, whom everybody knows, is from Chicago, and Conly, of Memphis, notorious thief-catchers, captured J. A. Clark, one of the Union City express robbers, at Cape Girardeau, the other day. While they were taking their prisoner to Allenville, in a wagon, he made his escape with handcuffs on. A reward of $1,000 is offered for his arrest. This is one of the most mysterious escapes on record. How a man could slip away from detectives like Pinkerton and Conly will always remain a profound mystery to the barbarian outside world who are not posted in ways that are dark and tricks that are vain.

Wm. Mullins, a printer, formerly of Cairo—note while in the city for his quarrelsome disposition—was stabbed, and it is believed, mortally wounded, on Monday evening last, at Memphis. The knife entered his left side, immediately over the kidneys twice, and once under the left arm in the region of the heart. When he was stabbed he said: "I will die to-morrow; I won't die to-night." While in Cairo Mullins fought a bowie knife duel with another printer wounding his opponent. He went from Cairo to Memphis and was shot within a week after reaching that city. He afterwards shot two or three men, neither of them seriously. From Memphis he went to St. Louis where he stabbed a fellow-printer and brushed close to the door of the Missouri penitentiary. He has not been in Memphis longer than a month, and now, we believe, he is finished. He was a good hearted man but was insane on what the southern men call his personal honor. He would recant

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

RIVER NEWS.

STEAMER LADY LEE, NEW ORLEANS. Arrived, Columbus. James Fisk jr., Paducah.

STEAMER LADY LEE, ST. LOUIS. Arrived, Cape Girardeau. Burksville, Evansville. Illinois, Columbus. James Fisk jr., Paducah. Shannon, New Orleans.

The Ohio still continues rising and has risen 3 inches large during the past 24 hours, news from all other places are of the most discouraging character and the indications are that dead low water will again prevail all over the country. The late little rises have improved the various channels a little but they bid fair to become as bad as ever. If we had the power of the supreme being we would cause the rivers to run in a contrary manner so that we could get a little benefit of the big rise that is taking place in Red and Arkansas rivers.

The Mississippi is on a stand at St. Louis and steamers loading there will be a little cautious how deep they load for an inch is a good deal when the water is so shallow. Red River is still rising and a fair stage is in the run now.

To Evansville the channel is very ragged and the packets have to bring lighters as far down as Paducah. Cairo is and has been the head of navigation for several months and will continue so all winter, an early freeze up is looked for and then such places as St. Louis, Louisville, Cincinnati and Paducah will be left out in the cold. From the upper Ohio we gain unfavorable news. It has been customary for the steamboatmen to "take a sugar in theirs" but now they are willing to take a little more water and less sugar. "Variety is the spice of life."

The Lady Lee, from New Orleans, had about two hundred tons up-stream freight. The Burksville laid over until yesterday, and left with her cabin well filled.

The Baker jumped out for Cape Girardeau yesterday forenoon.

The Shannon did not depart as was reported, having met with engagements that detained her until last evening, when she cleared with a good trip.

The Fisk came down with a light trip. She towed down from Mound City a small bargeload with empty barrels for this place.

Captain Dugan and his steamer Eckert are at this port awaiting for something to turn up so that they may have something to keep them busy. The Samson—the Eckert's "baby"—is still at the Virginia, and will have her engines and boilers out in a few days, when she will return to this place.

The barge Hettie, belonging to the M. V. T. Co., is on the dock undergoing repairs.

The Mary Miller has been due here for several days, and had not arrived at a late hour last evening. She is probably aground somewhere.

Business remains good on the landing and freights move forward as fast as they arrive. There is a great many wagons being shipped from this port south and the levee is no sooner cleaned of one lot than another consignment takes their place.

The weather yesterday was hazy and smoky, making the nights very bad for steamers to run. The indications are that a general rain will set in soon. "Barkis is willin'."

RELIABLE AND SAFE.—Dr. Henry Root and Plant Pills are mild and pleasant in their operation, yet thorough, producing no nausea or griping. Being entirely vegetable, they can be taken without regard to diet or business.
