THE ALDINE.

PROSPECTUS FOR 1872

FIFTH YEAR.

A Representative and Champion of American Art.

THE ALDINE:

An Illustrated Monthly Journal claimed t be the handsomest Paper in the World.

"Give my love tothe artist workmen of THE ALDINE who are striving to make their profession worthy of admiration for beauty, as it has ways been for usefulness."—Henry Ward Beecher

THE ALDINE, while issued with all the regularity, has none of the temporary or timely interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellaney of pure, light, and graceful literature, and a collection of pictures, the rarest specimens of artistic skill, in black and white. Although each succeeding number affords a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it has been bound at the close of the year While other publications may claim superior cheapness as compared with rivals of of a similar class, THE ALDINE is a unique and original conception—alone and unapproached—absolutely without competition in price or character. The possessor of the volume just completed cannot duplicate the quantity of fine paper and engravings in any other shape or number of volumes for ten times its cost.

The labor of getting THE ALDINE ready on the press is so great that reprinting is out of the question, With the excetion of a small number specially reserved for binding, the editionn of 1871, is already exhausted, and it is now a scarce as well as valuable book,

NEW FEATURES FOR 1872.

Art Department.

The enthusiastic support so readily accorded to their enterprise, wherever it has been introduced, has convinced the publishers of THE ALDINE of the soundness of their theory that the American public would recognize and heartily support any sincere effort to elevate the tone and standard of illustrated publications. That so many weakly wicked sheets exist and thrive is not evidence that there is no market for anything better—indeed the success of THE ALDINE from the start is direct proof of the contrary. With a population so vast, and of such varied taste, a publisher can choose his patrons, and his paper is rather indicative of his own than of the taste of the country. As a guarantee of the excellence of this department, the publishers would beg to announce during the coming year, specimens from the following eminent American artists:

W. T. Richards,	Granville Perkins,
Wm. Hart,	F. O. C. Darley,
Wm. Beard,	Victor Nehlig,
George Smiley,	Wm. H. Wilcox,
Aug. Will,	James H. Beard,
James Smiley	R. E. Piguet,
Frank Beard,	Paul Dixon,
J. How,

These pictures are being reproduced without regard to expense by the very best engravers in the country, and will bear the severest critical comparison with the best foreign work, it being the determination of the publishers that THE ALDINE shall be a successful vindication of American taste in competition with any existing publication in the world.

Literary Department.

Where so much attention is paid to illustration and get up of the work, too much dependence on appearances may very naturally be feared. To anticipate such misgivings, it is only necerrary to state, that the editorial management of THE ALDINE has been entrusted to Mr. RICHARD HENRY STODDARD, who has received assurances of assistance from a host of the most popular writers and poets of the country.

The Volume for 1872

will contain nearly 800 pages, and about 250 fine engravings. Commencing with the number for January, every third number will contain a beautiful tinted picture on plate paper, inserted as a frontispiece.

The Christmas number for 1872, will be a splendid volume in itself, containing fifty engravings, (four in tint) and, although retailed at $1 will be sent without extra charge to all yearly subscribers.

A Chromo to Every Subscriber

was a very popular feature last year, and will be repeated with the present volume. The publishers have purchased an I reproduced, at great expense, the beenting by Sein, entitled "Dame Nature's School." The chromo is 11x13 inches, and is an exact fac-simile, in size and appearance, of the original picture. No American chromo, which will at all compare with it, has yet been offered at retail for less than the price asked for THE ALDINE and it together. It will be delivered free, with the January number, to every subscriber who pays for one year in advance.

Terms for 1872.

SCRIBNER'S

MONTHLY,

An Illustrated Magazine,

EDITED BY J. G. HOLLAND,

Author of "Bitter Sweet," "Kathrina," "Timothy Titcomb's Letters," Etc.

This magazine, which has risen so rapidly in popular favor, has since been

and will be still further improved during the coming year.

A series of papers by Mr. Gladstone, prime minister of England, will shortly appear; also, an Able Discussion of the National Banking System of this country; a new story by Mrs. Oliphant is promised, etc., etc.; whilst every number will be rich in shorter stories, illustrated articles of popular science, poems, essays, editorials and reviews, etc.

The subscription price is $4.00 per year, payable in advance.

To enable all parties to commence with the series, which we are sure will be worthy of careful preservation, we will send to any dealer or new subscriber, the 12 numbers of volumes I. and II. for $1.00, or the 14 numbers prior to January, 1872, for $1.50.

The whole will contain

MORE THAN 3,000 PAGES,

more than 500 Brilliantly Written Articles, and nearly 100 Completed Stories, Tales of Adventure, Wit and Humor, Poems, &c., combining with these the ablest editorials and the most beautiful illustrations, some of them said by the critics to be fully equal to the work of Gustave Dore.

We quote, as fairly representing the general sentiment of the newspaper press in regard to the Monthly, the following from the Buffalo Commercial Advertiser:

"SCRIBNER'S MONTHLY is a splendid success. It has taken its place in the front rank of the periodicals of the world. In the beauty of its typographical appearance, the perfection of its illustrations, the variety of its reading matter, and the vigor of its editorials, and, in general, good and moral influence, it is a publication of which America should feel proud."

Remit in Checks or P. O. money orders.

For sale by all dealers.

1872.

ECLECTIC MAGAZINE

Foreign Literature, Science and Art.

Established in 1844, the ECLECTIC enters with the January number upon the twenty-eighth year of its existence. This fact alone speaks much for the character of the publication, for no magazine could have lived so long amid the fierce rivalry and competition to which it has been subjected without possessing a high degree of merit and meeting a well-defined want: but it is not too much to say that, during all these years, the ECLECTIC has been recognized as the ablest exponent in America of that vast intellectual activity which finds expression in the periodical literature of Europe. The plan of the ECLECTIC is to select from the field thus outlined, all those articles, Essays, Reviews, Tales, Stories, and Biographical Sketches, which are likely to prove entertaining, instructive and permanently valuable; and it commends itself especially to that great body of intelligent readers who seek profit as well as amusement in solid and healthful literature.

Besides the longer articles, which themselves represent every variety of subjects, the Eclectic has five editorial departments—Literary Notices, Foreign Literary Notes, Science, Art, and Varieties.

The volumes for 1872 will not be less attractive than those which preceded them. With increasing facilities and increasing patronage, the coming volumes will be more thoroughly representative than ever before of the best intellectual progress of the times.

TERMS—Single copies, 45 cents; one copy, one year, $5, two copies, one year, $9; five copies, one year, $20. Agents wanted to get up clubs.
