HOW BEECHER BEGAN PREACHING.

HIS NARRATION OF HIS EXPERIENCE AT LAWRENCEBURG, INDIANA.

(From the Christian Union.)

I was asked to cross the river from Cincinnati and preach in Covington, and I went over and began to preach there. I did not know but I was going to stay there. And I was perfectly willing to stay. But I was soon called by a woman to Lawrenceburg. She was the factotum of the whole church. And I went there and spoke to a well-nigh empty building. I was settled over a town with two distilleries and twenty devils in it. I was very poor. There was no patrimony coming to me, as you know. The moment I was out of the seminary I was without my father's support, and was obliged to take care of myself. I had a salary, but it was a salary of only $400. And I took half of that to go to New England to get married. And as the parish paid only half of it, and the other half was to come from the missionary society, I found myself short of funds. I had just eighteen cents in my pocket when I came back. I was taken up by a good Methodist brother for about a week, and then I got those two rooms to which I have alluded. They were up stairs. One was a kitchen, cellar and sitting room; the other was the library, bedroom and parlor. So that we had six rooms, calling each three. The cellar was made by putting things under the bed, and the other rooms were added by sundry devices. You who go into flush houses, furnished by grandpapas and grandmammas, do not know anything about the joys of housekeeping. Persons ought to begin at the bottom to know what these joys are. And I began down there.

I had no idea that I could preach. I never expected that I could accomplish much. I merely went to work with the feeling, "I will do as well as I can, and I will stick to it, if the Lord pleases, and fight His battles the best way I know how." And I was thankful as I could be. Nobody ever sent me a spare-rib that I did not thank God for the kindness which was shown me. I recollect when Judge —— gave me his cast-off clothing. I felt that I was sumptuously clothed. I wore old coats and second-handed shirts for two or three years; and I was not above it either; although sometimes, as I was physically a somewhat well-developed man, and the judge was thin and his legs were slim, they were rather a tight fit.

There was a humorous side to this, but I could easily have put a dolorous side to it. I could have said, "Humph! pretty business, son of Lyman Beecher, president of a theological seminary, in this miserable hole, where there is no church, and where there are no elders, and no men to make them out of. This is not according to my deserts, I could do better. I ought not to waste my talents in such a place. But I was delivered from any such feeling. I felt that it was an unspeakable privilege to be anywhere and speak of Christ. I had very little theology—that is to say, it slipped away from me. I knew it, but it did not do me any good. It was like an armor which had lost its buckles, and would not stick on. But I had one vivid point—the realization of the love of God in Christ Jesus. And I tried to work that up in every possible shape for the people. And it was the secret of all the little success which I had in the early part of my ministry. I remember that I used to ride out in the neighborhood and preach to the destitute, and that my predominant feeling was thanksgiving that God has permitted me to preach the unsearchable riches of His grace.
