THE LITTLE KENTUCKIAN.

No. 53 Ohio levee, is the place where they keep the freshest fish and game, and the finest wines, liquors and cigars, to be found in the city. Dinner only twenty-five cents. Open day and night, at all hours. J. E. PARK, Proprietor.

MILLINERY.

Mrs. Anna Lang, on Eighth street between Washington and Commercial avenues, has just received a fine spring stock of millinery goods, consisting of hats, bonnets, ribbons, notions, etc., etc., to which she asks the attention of the ladies of Cairo. Mrs. Lang will take pleasure in showing her goods to all who will favor her with a call. 3-9-lm.

POLICE COURT.

(Before Shannessy, J. M.) Just think of it! Seven poor devils before his honor yesterday, and out of the whole caboodle, nary a red! If this state of affairs was not enough to disgust his honor with police business in Cairo, what is?

POLICE COURT.

John Windell and William Rice, a couple of gentlemen arrived in the city on Thursday evening, and before nine o'clock found themselves inmates of the hotel de McAlle. They got drunk, and fell into the hands of Heim. His honor sent them back to the calaboose for a term of eight days each.

POLICE COURT.

John Simmonds, Peter Brown, Charles Stewart and Wash Dickson, colored boys, were arrested for playing base ball within the limits of the city. His honor determined to lend his assistance to breaking up base ball playing within the city limits, assessed a fine of two dollars and the costs against each of the above named lads. Having no money wherewith to liquidate, they were sent to the calaboose for six days each.
