RIVER NEWS. PORT LIST. ARRIVED AND DEPARTED.

Steamsboats supplied at any time, both day and night, with either lump or chestnut coal, in any quantity, and on usual terms, at the yard at Grand Tower, Ills.

CONDITION OF THE RIVERS. The Ohio at this port is rising again, which is thought to be out of Cumberland.

BUSINESS AND WEATHER. Yesterday was a very busy day on the landing, and boats were receiving all they wanted.

—The Nick Longworth had a model barge in tow loaded with coal which she will burn on the trip.

—The Arkansas Belle and Idlewild were both behind time which detention was caused by big trips and bad weather.

—The Tom Jasper had nearly all the freight she could carry when she arrived, and filled out her trip here.

—The Commonwealth had a splendid trip when she departed yesterday evening.

MISCELLANEOUS. After a long sojourn in New Orleans the steamer Richmond touched this port on her way to St. Louis.

—The little stern-wheel, Fontenelle, and Robert Burns, had it nip and tuck, from Columbus to the port, and this Fontenelle came in ahead a few lengths.

—The Crescent City leaves to-day with 4 loaded barges.

—The Belle St. Louis loaded Sunday night at Commerce and came out yesterday bringing a good trip.

—The Frank Forest with a barge in tow departed for Memphis loaded with miscellaneous articles.
