GREAT BRITAIN'S BIGGEST LINER, THE AQUITANIA, ON MAIDEN VOYAGE TO U. S.

Aquitania.

New York, June 3.—The Cunard line steamer Aquitania, Great Britain's newest and largest liner, is now on her maiden voyage to New York. She is due here Friday.

The new liner glided from the cradle at Clydebank in April, 1913. In fittings, furniture and interior decoration she has been called a floating palace, luxurious beyond the dreams of ease and comfort, a winged sea-girt citadel, a temple of taste, and epitome of Anglo-Saxon art in particular for two and a half centuries.

Her interior tells the story of the nations from the days of the "goodlie ship, the Great Harry," down to the Napoleon. It is said a trip on her will be a sort of preparatory course to an intelligent enjoyment of the art galleries of Europe, the ancient landmarks and the English mansions.

The term cabin and the term stateroom may be taken in the same sense in which the word stateroom is used in describing Windsor Castle, Kensington Palace and Hampton Court. In her decorative details the new Cunarder embraces the Tudor times, the days of Hans Holbein, of Sir "Anthony," Van Dyke and Inigo Jones, the periods of domestic architecture between the Restoration of Charles II and the middle of the reign of George III, the stern classicism of Christopher Wren, the French masters in the early part of the reign of Louis the Magnificent, and the lighter motives of the Adams and the Danes. The Dutch influences of the end of the 17th century are also felt in the decoration of the wonder ship.

On the grand staircase is an original example of General Antonio Panini, who loved to conjure up Roman ruins. Then the voyager comes face to face with the carving of Grining Gibbons, the portraits of Lely and Kneller, and the iron work of Jeon Trijou.

The Aquitania is also a fine example of the engraver's art, the sculptor's art and that of the tapestry makers of Mortlake. The reflections of the great painters of the 18th century will be found on the bulkheads in line-engravings by Hollar and Faithorne, by G. B. Cipriani, Sir E. Strange and Francesco Bartolozzi.

There also are to be seen Penn, Nelson, Washington, the two William Pitts, George III and Benjamin Franklin, as well as the graceful forms and charming features of those women of the 18th century perpetuated by the skill of Reynolds, Romney, Gainsborough, Reburn and Hopper. Then there are themes from Greenwich hospital, Kensington, Bromley Palace and Hampton Court.

The smoke room is Carolean, the lounge Christopher Wren, the drawing room an Adam. The swimming pool is Pompeian, the trellis gardens Italian and even the gymnasium an object lesson in high art.

The Aquitania is the biggest steamship under the British flag. She is 961 feet long, has 97 feet beam, and is 92 feet deep from the boat deck, with a gross tonnage of 47,000. She has accommodations for nearly 5,000 persons.

ERUPTION ALL OVER CHILD'S BODY

Began With Small Red Spots, Cried Almost Day and Night. Used Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment. Well in One Week.

R. F. D. No. 2, Jackson, Mo.—"Our daughter who is ten months old was suffering from an eruption all over the body. In the beginning they were small red spots and afterwards turned to bloody scabs. We tried all sorts of ointments but they did not procure any relief for our child. She had no rest day or night and we tried everything to procure relief for our baby. She cried almost day and night and we scarcely could touch her, because she was covered with sores from head to foot. "We had heard about the Cuticura Soap and Ointment and made a trial with them, and after using the remedies, that is to say, the Soap and the Ointment, only a few days passed and our child could sleep well and after one week she was totally well." (Signed) August F. Barrels, Nov. 25, 1912.

The petitions circulated by the street vigilance committee of the Woman's club were turned in with them. The ladies canvassed the residence district. A lengthy discussion of the continuous cleaning question was indulged in. The next meeting will be held next Tuesday at Hotel Harms.

Just Unwrap the Loaf that the grocer boy brings, and one duty is done. The other duty is to see that the loaf is just what you ordered; that it is genuine—original KLEEN-MAID BREAD. 10c and 5c Loaves. If it should prove to be a substitute, call the grocer's boy back and tell him that your order distinctly calls for KLEEN-MAID. Tell him that while others imitate the outside appearance of the loaf they can't imitate the inside goodness. Tell him that you know KLEEN-MAID. You know it's clean, pure, and that all the family thrive on it. Impress upon him the fact that all your trade with him depends on this—whether your telephone, go or send, you must have KLEEN-MAID BREAD. KORN BAKING COMPANY, Rock Island, Ill. Copyright 1913
