

People's Party Rally at McPherson.
To the Editor of THE ADVOCATE.
The People's party rally at this place was a grand success. The procession surpassed all expectations. Twenty-six loads of wheat were in line as a donation to the cause of reform.

Republicans are working like beavers, but the tide is against them. The grand army had a fine reunion, many People's party soldiers participating. The "stand up" portion of the crowd was labeled with the regular yellow badge. Taking an inventory of the republican speakers for the evening after the adjournment, one could but observe that at least three of the number were drawing pay from the state while pleading the cause of the G. O. P.

Send the glad tidings to every part of the state that McPherson county, the home of A. W. Smith, will give the People's ticket at least 300 majority.

Our meeting in the afternoon was addressed by Judge Stephen H. Allen and Hon. John G. Olin. The audience was variously estimated at from 4,000 to 5,000, and a more enthusiastic and determined people never met in McPherson county. I shall not undertake the task of giving a description of the procession, but every one present, regardless of party, readily conceded it to be the finest ever made in the county. Many very suggestive banners were to be seen. One bore the inscription:

YOU CAN'T 4 ACRE US.
STAND UP FOR KANSAS!

Above which was a picture of Harrison and Smith holding up Botkin while he was relieving himself of some "bad medicine."

I notice the Capital had an account of the republican rally at night, stating that there was a torch-light procession of 600 torches, 500 of which escorted their honored guest, J. B. Foraker. The writer counted every torch in line and there were 235 all told, counting the band wagon torches, and including the Newton Flambeau club which numbered seventy-five. They did pretty well for A. W. Smith's home county, including his followers, in a city of 3,000 inhabitants.

While the republicans were holding forth in the reunion tent, the People's party was holding a most enthusiastic meeting at the Grand opera house which was packed to its utmost capacity. The Lindaburg band and the Quenemo Glee club furnished the music. The chairman then introduced Mr. Duncan McPhail, a life-long republican who has joined the People's cause. His address was greeted with enthusiastic applause. Last, but not least, came Hon. John Martin, of Topeka. Round after round of applause greeted the speaker as he proceeded in his inimitable style to show the great necessity for the common people to join hands in the great cause of reform. Never since the commencement of this movement has there been a speech made in McPherson that has done as much to unite all elements in a common cause as that of Judge John Martin. He should make two speeches a day until the close of the campaign. The enemy is sick, and the victory will be ours.

ONE WHO WAS THERE.
McPherson, Kas., October 10, 1892.

Ex-Gov. George W. Glick to-day told the following story on Railroad Commissioner Mitchell, who worked up the democratic anti-fusion conference here on the 7th. A democrat in McPherson, whose name Glick refuses to make public, wrote to Mitchell for a pass to come to the stalwart convention. Mitchell sent him three with instructions to bring some good democrats with him. The McPherson man immediately wrote back for more passes and Mitchell sent seven. He wrote back for seven more and got them. Then he telegraphed: "Business booming, send me ten more," and Mitchell sent them. The democrat stayed home, and now has all the passes in his possession.—Topeka Correspondence Kansas City Star.

The Better System.

To the Editor of THE ADVOCATE.

The money plank of the People's party states that the government should issue all the money directly to the people without the intervention of banking corporations; also that the volume of money should be increased to $50 per capita. These demands are definite and specific. In regard to the methods and details of issuing this money the demands are not so definite and specific, but recommends the sub-treasury or some better system, clearly indicating that we are willing to consider various methods and take the best.

Republican orators are shouting themselves hoarse about the impracticability and unconstitutionality of our demands in regard to the finance reform. Republican editors write long editorials to prove the absurdity and the visionary character of our demands. Some of them seem to be completely horror-stricken with the thought that farmers and other common folks should have the impudence to ask the government to loan them money on the same terms as national bankers obtain. Yet, opposed as they are to our finance reform, they seem to be able to point out the better system to put more money in circulation. Senator Sherman has introduced a bill for the government to guarantee $100,000,000 of bonds running 100 years to build the Nicaragua canal. President Harrison, in his late letter of acceptance, calls attention and recommends government aid to the project. My good republican friend, you do not realize what that means. It means nothing less than the bonding of yourself, your children, and children's children to the amount of $100,000,000; or more, to transfer this enormous amount to the pockets of a few millionaires. This party of plutocrats who has not, and will not do anything in the interest of the common people is ever ready to assist those who are already rich. A republican victory this fall means the carrying out of this colossal swindle. Remember this is the same party which gave to the Pacific roads $64,000,000, has been so kind and paternal as to not collect the interest, has kindly exchanged a first mortgage for a second mortgage, and could not think of foreclosing, because it would be so cruel and heartless.

Do you not see that when millionaires can get millions or hundreds of millions from the people through legislation, that is all right and perfectly proper; but to help a farmer to save his home from the grasp of Shylock by a loan, oh, that would never do!

Government bonds bearing 30 per cent. can be sold at par, that would only be $3,000,000 of interest annually, and only $300,000,000 interest in a hundred years, and the bonds could be used as a banking basis, and the danger that the national banking system would have to be abandoned on account of not having any more bonds for a basis would at least be delayed. Why, the same gentlemen beggars who would pocket the $100,000,000 could, under the national bank law, get $90,000,000 more to help them along in a pinch. Don't you see that's the better system—for them. Vote the republican ticket, and John Sherman and Benjamin Harrison will see that the plan is carried out. But if you are tired of taxing yourself to make the rich richer, if you love your wife and children, if you love justice and right more than party, then you will be obliged to vote with the People's party. If you are a farmer, mechanic, workingman, business man, or professional man, would you not better think which is the better system for you? M. SENN.

The latest development at Homestead is the arrest on warrants for high treason against the state of Pennsylvania, of the members of the advisory committee of the locked-out men. Instead of warrants of arrest, gold medals ought to be awarded them; for had it not been for their influence the Carnegie works would have been in ashes three months ago. The persecution of these men is a confession of spite and weakness on the part of the Carnegie people which not even the staunchest monopolist organs care to defend. Legally there is not a leg for these actions to stand on, and while the accused men may be subjected to inconvenience, they certainly can have nothing to fear from a judicial investigation unless a Jeffries sits on the bench and poltroons in the jury box. Nevertheless the ease with which the Carnegie pirates seem able to utilize the judicial machinery for the gratification of their grudges and the intimidation of their employes is alarming. When the impression becomes prevalent among the people that the plutocrats own the courts—look out.—New Nation.

AMERICAN LAND AND IMMIGRATION COMPANY.

Lands for Actual Tillers.

This title is the name of a company lately incorporated under the laws of the state, with headquarters in Topeka, and under the management of J. H. Brady, a real estate man of sixteen years' experience.

The stockholders and officers of the organization comprise representatives of almost every reliable land and loan company doing business in Kansas. The object and purpose, as set forth in their charter, are "to sell lands, raw and improved, to invite immigration, to grow cereals," etc.

The company owns choice land in every county of the state, and has for sale more than 2,000 farms. Three million dollars are invested in farms and city property in every part of the state, and many improved farms are offered at nearly the cost of the improvement alone. There are hundreds of opportunities for those who wish to till the fertile soil of the best state in the union to secure a farm for almost nothing, for it will pay for itself in half the time offered. The wonderful advantages of Kansas; its Italian climate; its altitude, just high enough for healthfulness; its schools, the equal of any in the union; its fertile soil, and its moral and intelligent people make an investment in land here more sure of rich returns than in any other section of the country. The enter on the sterile farms of the east can, by pluck and energy, here own a farm clear and free in a short time.

Mr. Brady will take pleasure in showing how easily it can be done. His agents are everywhere. There is one in each of the 100 counties of Kansas, and 150 are distributed through Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Iowa, ready to serve the visitor to Kansas or the purchaser of a home in the heart of the continent. A postal to Mr. J. H. Brady, asking for his "Course of Study for Home-seekers and Investors," will well repay the interested.

A word, in justice, must be said of Mr. Brady. His selection to manage the intricate and responsible affairs of this company was wise and judicious. His general business qualifications, his universal acquaintance throughout the west, his knowledge of values, his experience as a seller of land, his reputation as a king of rustlers, his genial disposition and his strict probity, fit him above all men in the state to be placed at the head of such a vast institution. He has sold and can sell more land than any other man in the state. Eleven thousand six hundred acres sold in the last ninety days is one item in his business transactions, and yet he wants to sell more. Mr. Brady and a bargain in land don't stay together long, as the sales of this company show.

This fact remains to be impressed: If in any way interested in renting or buying a farm in this garden of the west, ask Mr. B. for information, and see or hear of his farm that fits your fancy and your pocket.
