M. S. ROCHELLE Secretary

Col. Norman Colman, U. S. Commissioner of agriculture, has promised to be at the Coffey-co. fair, if possible, and deliver an address on agricultural matters.

The Twenty-first Illinois, General Grant's old regiment, will hold its reunion at Mattoon, September 25. On Monday following, the regiment will dedicate a monument at Ironton, Missouri, its first battlefield.

And now our Democratic friends in some of the rural counties are taking steps to have the colored man taken off their ticket. The colored brother is pizen to the average Democrat and as a joker is not a winning card.

Senator Voorhees, as president of the Indiana Democratic convention, congratulated his hearers that the first Democratic administration for many years has been pure and honest "with no scandals." Senator Voorhees does not regard the Pan-Electric business and the appointment of jail birds to office as scandalous.

There are being constructed at the Baldwin locomotive works, in Philadelphia, four locomotives which are to be run by soda, which takes the place of fire. Soda has much the same power as coal without any of the offensive gases. The engines are nearly finished, and are to be shipped to Minneapolis, Minn., and run in the streets of that city where steam engines are forbidden.

The Newton Republican comes out in expressions of sorrow that Judge Peters re election is a foregone conclusion. It seems that Newton has had some trouble over its postoffice. The Republican puts the matter in this way:

"Sorry for Tom George, very sorry—sorry. Nice man and all that. Sorry, very sorry, sad indeed, very sad. But then Sam R. Peters will get there without any trouble. Sorry, very sorry, Tom. Nice man, very nice, very sorry, very sad.

The Watson and Dighton street railway company, of Lane county. The officers of the company are N. B. Sawyer, president; J. D. Jones, vice-president; A. J. Ferguson, treasurer; C. D. Pillsbury, secretary; T. J. Smith, director, and H. O. Stump, director. Capital stock $40,000.

The above shows that Watson, a neat little village and an addition to Dighton, is not going to be left out in the cold, as they are preparing to annex themselves to the metropolis of Lane counay (Dighton) with street car advantages. Go ahead boys the next thing you want is an electric light.

ALWAYS CONSISTENT.

The Democratic party of Kansas in their platform demand a resubmission of the prohibition amendment, and the Prohibitionists, as a party in Kansas, are doing all that lies in their power to put the Democratic party and its platform to the front. This is a simple truth.

BONDS CARRIED.

The bonds for the Kansas, Colorado and Texas railroad—the road from Kansas City to Wichita—carried in the townships in Osage in which propositions were submitted, and the people of Burlingame indulged in a big jollification and night demonstration There is no longer any doubt, in fact we have it from a most reliable source, that the Kansas, Colorado and Texas is to be simply an extension into and through Kansas of one of the great trunk lines.

BIG ROADS.

The Mead Center Press-Democrat is off on its criticism of the St. Louis, Kansas City & Colorado project, in so far as it says that under the terms of the charter it couldn't be built. It will be built. There is little or no doubt of it. One of the greatest corporations in this or any other country is at the back of it. The reason so many different counties are named is that the road may take its choice of route. Within a few weeks the whole state of Kansas will be surprised by a railway announcement of which no one or at least very few outside of present railway managements even dream, and that St. Louis, Kansas City and Colorado will figure in that announcement.

O. A. AND W.

From the Council Grove Cosmos.

Mr. D. W. Rider, of Parkerville, a member of the Rock Island surveying corps, made the Cosmos an agreeable call Saturday. Mr. Rider says he has tramped over 600 miles the past four months, mostly in Dickinson, Marion and Morris counties, running new lines and re-surveying old ones. He says the Rock Island is now busy locating the O. A. & W. road, which will be built this fall from Wichita through Herington to Abilene, and the line through Morris county will no doubt go by the way of White City.

The above information is correct as far as the work of the engineers is concerned, but that the Rock Island is to run through Herington is a surprise. The Santa Fe has also completed the survey of a line from Marion county to Abilene almost exactly on the line as located by the Omaha, Abiline and Wichita company.

HOW THEY LOOK AT IT.

The New York Tribune in summarizing southern sentiment on the Mexican question as manifested in the press of that region, says the newspapers convey the idea that there is in the south a considerable number of turbulent and lawless persons, who do not contribute greatly to the welfare of society in a civilized state. But it is urged that in the conquest and occupation of new territory, in ousting Mexicans and Indians, opening mines, developing resources, and establishing towns and states, these turbulent characters would be found useful citizens, as they are not and would not be in peace and an orderly condition of things. Hence, it is reasoned, a foreign war and the annexation of territory to the southward would bless the country, removing a great body of lawless and turbulent persons from states where they do mischief only and turning them to some use.

THE CHICAGO ANARCHISTS.

Now that seven of the leading and most dangerous spirits among the anarchists have been accorded a fair and impartial trial, found guilty and sentenced to hang, and all this dispassionately and with full warrant of existing laws, we believe the proposition to hunt up and try fifty or one hundred more to be a mistake. There are none so ignorant as not now to fully comprehend and understand the temper of the American people touching the whole matter, and the damnable doctrine so repugnant and so abhorrent to every true American citizen, will be just as effectually wiped out by the hanging of the six as by hanging sixty or six huudred. If their female accomplices, being more greatly frenzied, should persist in their determination to still promulgate their belief in murder and robbery it might be well to give them such a term in the penitentiary as would afford them time to learn that life is sacred in this country, but further prosecuitons of the mere tools of the principals will result in no greater good than that already secured.

Senator Plumb and wife will spend several weeks at various New England summer resorts. He will visit Senator Morrill at the latters home in Stafford, Vermont, and return to Kansas in September.

A KANSAN'S MEASURE OF THE MAN.

From the Atchison Champion.

The St. Joseph Herald gives a lengthy interview by its Topeka correspondent with Congressman E. N. Morrill. Of course, like all of Mr. Admire's newspaper work, the interview is well done: our Congressman's ideas are set out clearly and at length. The writer had an interview with Major Morrill the other day, sitting under a shade tree in Hiawatha, but that interview was not intended for newspaper use, and was not carried on by either party in newspaper language. In that interview Major Morrill's idea of the chief magistrate of this great and glorious republic was, briefly, that he was an opinionated chump, whose mind was such as might be expected in a man who had never been farther west than Buffalo, farther east than Albany, or farther south than Washington. He was described as a man who never read anything, and who had no associate except Dan Lamont, and whose mind was consequently locked up against new impressions. He entertained no doubt that he knew as much as both houses of congress and all the committees of congress. He was a big, stolid, conceited man, whose intentions were probably good enough, but whose knowledge was not equal to the guidance of his intentions. Mrs. Cleveland, Major Morrill described as not as regularly handsome as her picture, yet more charming in manners than any picture could indicate. Frank, hearty, winning and lovable, was the major's verdict as to Mrs. Cleveland, and the congressman from the First district of Kansas knows.—Champion.

A Democratic organ, speaking of a man whose nomination was rejected by the senate, says "Democracy was his only crime." Isn't that enough? Would you have him rob a bank and murder his grandmother in addition?—Ex.

CRISFIELD ITEMS.

CRISFIELD, Kan., Aug. 23, 1886.

To the Editor of the Eagle.

Once more we appear before you with a few items from our town and surrounding country.

We are on the eve of enjoying a very successful boom. Land buyers from the eastern states are now on the road by the hundreds, bound for Harper county, and there is no doubt we will get our share of them.

Wherever there is a good agricultural country there is where the eastern farmers, who have means, are going to locate, and as we have one of the finest farming countries in the state we are bound to have some wealthy farmers before very long.

On next Tuesday the 31st, wilt be the day for voting aid to the Border road. Our farmers are all jubilant over their flattering prospects for defeating their bonds and we sincerely hope they may do so.

We noticed Mr. Steinhauser, of the Steinhauser wholesale house, of Wichita, on our streets last week.

Our merchants trade exclusively with the Wichita wholesale houses, and are well satisfied with them.

The weather at the present writing is very dry, but the heavens are commencing to look more rainy every minute and the chances are it will rain before morning.

Our ball club have played two match games since our last, one with the Myo club, which resulted in a grand victory for the Crisfield nine, beating them 5 to 1. Another game with the Hazelton nine, resulted in a defeat for the Crisfield club by a score of 3 to 1. Our boys play the Attica nine on next Friday. After the game they will give a grand ball for the benefit of the club. Everybody is invited.

School commences on the 13th of next month, and will be an eight month's term. Our school enrolls about seventy-five scholars.

The corn crop is now an assurity of an immense yield, and the farmers have commenced to break the ground for wheat. Quite an acreage will be planted in this part of the country.

Mr. Henry Wagner, one of our bankers, is attending the commercial college at Wichita.

The Daily EAGLE is our most welcome visitor, but it seems as though there must be a deficiency somewhere along the mail route, that causes our EAGLE to be delayed some times for two or three days. Hope to see it rectified before long, as we would sooner miss a meal than miss your paper.

Our town is receiving a vast amount of trade that formerly belonged to Hazelton and Attica, all on account of our live and let live prices. Our merchants are competing with Harper and Anthony prices.

The G. A. R. post are making preperations to have a camp fire and grand ball sometime next month. The post now numbers about twenty-five members.

The chances are very favorable for a great amount of real estate and city property to change hands during the next month.

The Farmers Alliance are still holding indignation meetings, and it commences to have the appearance of war to the knife should the railroad bonds carry.

We will have to say adieu, for this time, or else we may make our correspondence so long that you might throw it into the waste basket. More anon. CHOCTAW.

LARNED LACONICS

LARNED, Kan., Aug. 21, 1886.

To the Editor of the Eagle.

We are obliged to your correspondent for his handsome notice of our city in a recent copy of your paper. Our townsite is universally acknowledged to be the best of any town in this part of the state, because of its undulating surface. College hill is becoming noted for its handsome residences and will eventually become the aristocratic part of our city. In the absence of a decided boom, there has during the past three years, been a steady growth in building and population here and a good future seems to be assured. The Phoenix bank building and the Palace clothing store building are under construction, while eight two-story brick business buildings, with an opera house auditorium 80x100 feet have just been contracted for.

The corn crop is especially good in Pawnee, Edwards and Stafford counties.

Pawnee county is strongly republican in politics, and having among her citizens Judge J. C. Strong, Senator J. W. Rush, Hon. W. C. Edwards and Sergt. Tim McCarthy (lately nominated for state auditor.) Among our citizens Larned is an acknowledged factor in political warfare.

The school bond election just held provides for the erection of a $4,000 building in the Fourth ward.

Indications are that Hon. W. C. Edwards will be returned to the legislature for another term as a recognition of his faithfulness and ability during the past two years, as a member of that body.

We glory in Wichita's prosperity and expect to see her the great metropolis of Kansas. Doc.

WHAT THE INTER OCEAN SAID.

The Chicago Inter Ocean had an able editorial on the morning of the day on which the verdict of the jury on the anarchists was rendered, written and published of course before the verdict. We republish the closing portions of it and commend it to certain men and officers in Topeka and in fact in about every city of the country. Particularly do we call the attention of the city officers of Topeka to this sentence. "No Mayor Harrison or any other mayor in Chicago will again tolerate such seditious utterances and demonstrations as frequently disgust our city."

We have not censured our city authorities in the past, but they must put a stop to many things which have heretofore taken place in this city, or the people will; but here is the article:

There is such a thing as trial by newspaper; that is, a trial of great causes before the bar of the public, when, by means of the press, the facts in the case and the reasons pertaining thereto are set forth in the hearing of the people—sometimes, as in this instance, of all the world. Nor, on the whole, is there any adjudication of great causes that is more real or more efficacious than this. It is safe to say the American people understand some things a good deal better than they did three months ago. They understand better than they did the perils to our civilization; perils not all of which are averted yet. They understand better the limitations of freedom of speech. They will understand more distinctly than heretofore the responsibility of men for the consequences of what they say and do, and especially for the deeds of outlawry and treason against government, on the part of every one who, whether singly or in conspiracy with others, incites others to the commission of such crimes.

Since May 4 anarchism in America has been on trial. Whether these anarchist conspirators and murderers are hanged, or imprisoned, or let loose to run the gauntlet of increasing public disfavor, anarchism has had its trial, and been condemned. And there is no mistake about the popular verdict. No Mayor Harrison or any other mayor in Cicago, will again tolerate such seditious utterances and demonstrations as formerly disgraced our city. Moreover, let us hope, the disaffected, the wronged it may be, among the laboring classes, have from this trial learned a useful and timely lesson, namely, that whatever their wrongs and complaints through treason and dynamite is no way to seek their redress. All criminals, as Mr. Grinnell so forcibly declared, are fools. As such they may deserve our pity. We have no disposition to anticipate the verdict of the jury. Let us hope their decision will be a just one, and that the effect of the entire trial—ended at last!—may be to disillusion all anarchist dreamers who fancy that society can be saved from its burdens, wrongs and sorrows by any scheme that would begin by attempts to destroy the very basis of the social order and well being. "And may God have mercy on the souls" of the guilty wretches.

UP TO DIGHTON.

From the Dighton Journal.

As will be seen by the notice taken from the EAGLE, the excursion from Wichita to Dighton has been arranged for August 23rd. The special car chartered by the Dighton Town company will leave there at 5 p. m. under the supervision of H. L. Hill, who will provide stage coaches for the excursionists at Garden City. This will be a splendid opportunity to visit this section of the state. We have here a beautiful country, rich in its soil of untold depth. The success attending the efforts of our farmers this season proves beyond question the adaptibility of this section to profitable agriculture. The town of Dighton also proves what men of wealth, intelligence and manhood may accomplish on these prairies fifty miles from railroads. We have here fine hotels, splendid business houses and nice residences. Business in Dighton is good and daily growing in value. This is a good county to see and a booming town to visit. Let us all give the visitors a hearty welcome.

General Johnston's story of the last days of the war is not very pleasant reading for those who are disposed to glorify Jeff Davis as a patriot and martyr. It is shown that he ordered the $30,000 remaining in the Confederate treasury sent to him, evidently for the purpose of taking it with him on his projected flight into Mexico while the troops who had borne the heat and burden of the conflict were without money, or even sufficient food. General Johnston very properly disobeyed the order, and divided the funds among the troops in equal proportions without regard to rank, and Davis has never forgiven him for it.
