CRISIS IN THE EAST.

A Great Throng of Bulgarians Assembled at Sofia to Hear the Report of the Bulgarian Embassy on the Result of Their Russian Mission.

The Sudden Appearance of the Russian Minister at the Meeting Creates a Sensation.

His Announcement of the Czar's Wishes Received with Derision and Defiance.

Mr. Gladstone Receives a Deputation of Irish Women and Replies to Their Petition.

OVER THE OCEAN. Bulgaria. Sofia, Oct. 4.—All but seven of the officers who were under arrest for complicity in the deposition of Prince Alexander have been released.

Five thousand persons attended the meeting held yesterday to hear Dr. Vouchko.

The Bulgarian ambassador in London, Dr. Vouchko, has just returned to Sofia.

During the proceedings a Russian agent was seen in the audience.

He was at once set upon by the audience and roughly handled.

While the proceedings were in progress General Kanuliers suddenly and unexpectedly appeared and mounted the tribune.

His appearance created a sensation. He addressed them and said he was there to express the czar's desire.

Here there was fresh interruption and shouts of "The man was not beaten for cheering for the czar, but because he said 'I'm with Bulgaria.'"

Gen. Kanuliers then attempted to explain the three points in the Russian demands.

The members of the bar subsequently returned to the court room and presented a protest against the action of the commission.

Several meetings were held tonight to draw up indignation protests against Judge David's treatment of the Irish bar.

The Bulgarian as a nation, he said, do not desire a constitution.

He declared he would always follow the law as it was adopted, and maintain the law and constitution of Bulgaria in order to secure its independence.
