IT'S A UNIVERSITY

Planted on College Hill by the German Reformed Church.

The City Donates a Beautiful Site and Buildings, While the Church Raises an Endowment Fund.

About three months ago, Rev. D. B. Shney, of the German Reformed church, was in this city. He is engaged in missionary work in Kansas, Nebraska and Colorado.

While here a meeting was called at Mr. F. Niederlander's office, which was attended by himself and a number of the prominent citizens of the city.

The first meeting resulted in adopting resolutions relating to the organization, and notice was given that a board of trustees would be elected at the next meeting.

A subscription paper was set in circulation and at first led to moderate success.

The committee appointed to take the matter in charge lost no opportunity to get in the good work.

A number of meetings were held and reports of the different committees submitted.

As the matter stands Rev. Shney writes that the question may be regarded as settled.

The church in this state is not largely represented, but in the eastern states it is very strong.

Meetings were held nearly the whole day after Sabbath school at 9 o'clock.

Both the pigeons are female birds; one is one and a half years old and the mother of the other, which is six months old.

THE BIG BUILDERS.

Building still continues. Many of the large structures, none of which have been made in these columns but recently, are now occupied as business places.

The Oliver building is up to the third story, the Hacker & Jackson block exteriorly very nearly complete.

The elegant building which Mr. Fechtelmeier is erecting at the corner of Douglas avenue and Market street, has so far had little work done upon it.

Down Market the Mercantile company are still engaged upon their first story; nine stone cutters are kept at work.

On South Main, work is still upon the foundations of the Wagner and Fisher blocks.

The second story of the Harris and Van Ness structure on West Douglas is completed.

On North Main the Gatto building has just been commenced, the Clement building needs but a few capping stones to complete its walls.

The foundation of the Miller block on North Water will soon have upon it the first layers of brick.

The Homing pigeons of which these columns spoke, were turned loose by Mr. J. A. Zorn yesterday morning.

Mr. John A. Zorn of this city, who has gone to Wichita, Kansas, took with him two brother homing pigeons.

THE LABOR MEETING.

The labor meeting at the G. A. R. hall last evening was attended by a good sized audience.

Mr. Dr. Walling was introduced and after a few introductory remarks took up the leading economic questions of the day.

Of railroads he said, that if they were controlled by the government or state the charges for carriage should be fixed upon the basis of a certain per cent.

He then called attention to the rent question, and afterward to the cost of running the government under the "system of reform."

Mr. Carlisle's tariff speech he complimented, but inquired why was a legislative act in accordance with such view never given to the country.

He was followed by Mr. Sherwin, master workman of the Knights of Labor lodge, and afterwards by J. G. McCoy, who as a Democrat bitterly denounced the session.

Mr. Barrett read the report, which reported labor of greater interest than inanimate capital, that they were not waging war against legitimate capital.

Mr. Joseph Hamilton was arrested Friday night in Eagle township on a peace warrant by Doc Worrall.

Mr. George M. Smith attracted his honor's attention for a time yesterday.

There maybe three, maybe five or eight thousand residents of this city, who have little conceptions of the growth of Wichita for the past six months.

Learning that S. L. Davidson & Co had decided for the present to negotiate no more loans in this country.

Marriage banns were yesterday issued to the following persons: Wilcox S. Myers and Kate Dill.

The W. R. C. will give a called banquet at the G. A. R. hall the 24th of October.

Mr. Wilson, of East Douglas avenue, left on a short visit to friends in Ohio.

It was Rev. Hewitt that officiated at the funeral of Miss Aggie Dresch, and not Rev. Harper, as our reporter had it.

Dr. Allen Walker, late of Washington, L. C., has come to our city for the practice of his profession.

Sheriff Hayes was yesterday morning making a search for thieves who it appeared had made away with some one's turkeys.

Mr. A. Basley and wife, who have been down to Geuda Springs for ten days returned yesterday.

Mr. James Collins, mother of Will Collins, who is now laying very low with the typhoid fever at the Tremont House.

Mr. George Ordway, a banker of Winfield, and brother of Dr. L. S. Ordway of this city, passed through the city yesterday on his way home from a business trip of three weeks in Iowa and Indiana.

Mr. O. T. Crawford, son of L. M. Crawford, who has been for some time connected with a Chicago opera house, comes to take Mr. Cooper's place as manager of the Wichita opera house for a while.

Charles Reynolds, of Des Moines, Iowa, the cornet player, with whom the K. of P. band has for sometime been negotiating.

On Thursday evening last Rev. J. W. Love, for sixteen years pastor in Greensburg, Pa., with his wife and four daughters arrived in our midst.

J. D. Hutchings is the happy recipient of a box of elegant crystal glasses, a present from his friends, J. A. Zorn and A. C. Miller, of Wheeling, West Va.

WILHELM'S LYCEUM THEATRE COMPANY.

This unequalled dramatic company will open a week's engagement at Turner opera house, playing at popular prices, 10, 20 and 30 cents.

Others, again, will say "they employ only cheap actors and actresses."
