TOO BIG FOR HIS CLOTHES. NEW YORK, Oct. 23. - A Washington special says: The expert from the New York school of massage, who has helped Secretary Manning so much, had an interview with the president yesterday. Mr. Cleveland intends to take a course of treatment to see if he can't reduce his flesh. He has gained so much in the last six months that he has had to have the buttons of his coat moved three inches.

MINISTER COX RESIGNED. The formal resignation of S. S. Cox, minister to Turkey, has been received at the department of state.

ANOTHER REVERSAL FOR SPARKS. In the case of Maria Goode, nee Wilcox, of Kirwin, Kan., on appeal from the decision of the commissioner general of the land office, the secretary of the interior has decided in accordance with former rulings of the department; That the marriage of a single woman who had made homestead entry will not defeat her right to make final proof and receive title to the land under the homestead law. This decision reverses that of the commissioner of the general land office, who held that "a woman who makes homestead entry and subsequently marries before completing the same, forfeits her right thereby to acquire title to the land."

THIRTY-NINE LITTLE INDIANS. The secretary of the interior has informed the war department that the thirty-nine Indian youths between the ages of 19 and 22 years among the Apaches confined at Ft. Marion will be received for educational and industrial training if delivered to Capt. Pratt, superintendent of the Carlisle Indian training school in Pennsylvania, and he also directed the commissioner of Indian affairs to provide school accommodations for those below 13 years of age suitable to be sent to school.

A PRELIMINARY CONFERENCE. Major General Schofield, who has charge of the ceremonies attending the inauguration of the Earthquake statue next Thursday, called at the White house today and had an interview with the president with respect to his participation in the ceremonies. The president and most of the cabinet will attend, but the details of the trip to New York have not been completed. It is expected that Mrs. Cleveland and the wives of several of the cabinet officers will accompany the party.

PRESIDENTIAL APPOINTMENTS. The president this afternoon made the following appointments: Paul N. Lockwood, of New York, to be attorney of the United States for the northern district of New York; Lucis M. Lamar, of Georgia, to be marshal of the United States for the southern district of Georgia. The following are to be consuls of the United States: Seth Pratt, of Massachusetts, at San Francisco; C. H. McCall, of Alabama, at Santos; Wm. R. Gracchouse, of Louisiana, at Tampico; E. J. Smithers, of Delaware, at Teia; Isaac John J. Campbell, of California, at Tanihau; Leopold Mooney, of New York, at Hall.

A TIMELY REMINDER. Several weeks ago at the request of leading Democrats of East Tennessee, Maj. J. H. Wagner was appointed United States pension agent at Knoxville to succeed Robt. Taylor, Democratic nominee for governor. The new appointee was major of the 13th Tennessee cavalry of the union army and was called to soldier. Immediately after his appointment several Democrats of East Tennessee came here and urged Secretary Lamar to recommend to the president the reconsideration of the case and the revocation of the appointment on the ground that as a member of the legislature in 1867 Wagner voted to disfranchise ex-convicts and also voted for a resolution to offer a reward for the apprehension of ex-governor new Senator Isham J. G. Harris. Today Secretary Lamar made the following response to the persons who were demanding a reconsideration of the case. The secretary of the interior declines to recommend the revocation of Major Wagner's commission as pension agent at Knoxville. He says that Major Wagner was appointed upon the recommendation of the leading and best citizens of Tennessee, all parties who represent him as a man fully qualified, by integrity, intellect and character, for the duties of the position, and as a man endeared to the people by his consistent support during the past twenty years of their highest and best interests. The fact brought out against him since his commission was issued that he had given an unjust and unwise vote for disfranchisement when he was a young man not more than 21 years of age, immediately after the war, when the passions of both sides were roused to the highest pitch, should not now be used to obstruct him from public trust among a people whose rights and interests he has ever since been true and loyal to. We have all been contending that the issues of the war and the passions growing out of it should not be kept alive, and I do not know of any instance in which that precept has been better enforced than by example in this. Both sides in Tennessee showed courage to fight. I am confident they have also that higher quality, the magnanimity nobly to forgive.

CHICAGO VS. ST. LOUIS.

The Sixth and Last of the Championship Games, St. Louis 4, Chicago 3.

St. Louis, Oct. 23. - The sixth, and what proved to be the decisive, game between the Chicago and St. Louis Browns was by far the closest and exciting of the series, although the sky was overcast with threatening clouds which promised rain at any moment, the crowd early began to arrive on the ground and continued to pour through the gates till long after the game was under way. The attendance was slightly larger than yesterday, the total receipts being $2,500, this made the total amount won by the St. Louis club by the result of the game, $10,910.20, of which sum $6,564.45 was taken in at Chicago, and $4,345.75 at St. Louis.

In order that the game need not be called on account of darkness the hour for its commencement had been fixed at 2:30. Fifteen minutes previous to that hour the Chicagoans marched upon the field, being warmly received by the audience, which by this time packed the free seats and completely filled the grand stand. Ten minutes later the St. Louis club appeared and were greeted with the wildest applause. Before the game began Mr. H. Clay Sexton, on behalf of the members of the Merchants Exchange, presented Mr. Bushong, umpire Grace Pearce, of the league staff, had been selected. His voice was weak and his decisions throughout the game gave rather poor satisfaction.

At precisely 2:30 the game began, with Chicago at the bat. Before the end of the first inning it became evident that it was to be a battle of pitchers, Clarkson and Caruthers, the crack pitchers of the respective clubs, being in splendid condition. Neither side scored in the first inning and only one man reached first base - O'Neill, of St. Louis, who got a base on balls.

For the Chicagoans Pfeiffer hit safe to right, stole second, reached third on a pass ball and came home on Ryan's hit.

In the fourth Pfeiffer sent the ball under the seats behind center field for a home run, and on the sixth made the third and last run for the visitors by getting to third on a hit which passed between the legs of both Robinson and Welch, and coming home on Williamson's fly to Welch.

Up to the eighth inning St. Louis had not made a hit or run, but one man on first. In this inning, however, Combs got first on a safe hit to right; then Welch hit to Burns, who threw the ball past Anson, allowing Combs to score, and after Pouts and Robinson had retired on flies Bushong went out on balls and Leatum's three-base hit brought in two runs. Leatum, however, overran third and was touched out. Caruthers retired the nine by going out at first on a little hit to Burns.

This left the score tied and the crowd went wild. The ninth inning yielded no runs for either side though Burns made a couple home hits.

The Chicagoans in the tenth retired in one, two, three order.

For St. Louis Welch hit safe past second, four hit to Williamson who fumbled the ball, hitting Welch to second. Robinson went out on balls and Leatum's three-base hit brought in two runs. Leatum, however, overran third and was touched out. Caruthers retired the nine by going out at first on a little hit to Burns.

Acts of a Demon.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Oct. 23. - One of the most barbarous crimes ever perpetrated in this city was committed last night by a colored man by the name of Cy Laffery. He engaged in a quarrel with his wife and knocked her down, and then in a brutal manner beat her until she was unconscious. Finding that she was seriously injured, he saturated her clothing with a half gallon of coal oil and set fire to the same. Leaving her thus he made his way to the back door of his residence, and it was several minutes before the neighbors discovered the woman's awful condition. When the flames were extinguished her body was burned to a crisp. She died at 5 o'clock this morning, and the perpetrator of this crime is still at large. He is about thirty years of age, about six feet tall and weighs about 175 pounds. He wears no whiskers, but has a mustache. Lying in frosty talked of and should be fall into the hands of the enraged colored people of this city his lot would be a hard one.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Oct. 23. - The national Women's Christian Temperance Union met this morning and will hold several meetings this afternoon. The annual report will be presented by Mrs. Frank J. Barnes, it to be followed by an address and musical exercises.

Episcopal Congress.

Chicago, Oct. 23. - The house of deputies of the Protestant Episcopal church resumed deliberations at 10 this morning. Rev. Dr. Clark presented a report from the committee on memorials on deceased members, the reading of which was accompanied by religious exercises conducted by President Dix. The report was adopted by a standing vote.

Four messages from the house of bishops relating to amendments to the constitution were concurred in.

A message from the house of bishops recommending that the canon relating to lay readers be amended so as to make the period of license longer than one year. It was not concurred in by the house. The house then went into committee of the whole to consider questions affecting liturgical revision.

In the Episcopalian convention the special topic was the alterations and additions proposed for adoption by the convention and after submission to the diocese for the next three years for final adoption at the next convention. These changes differed from the alterations and additions heretofore considered, in that unlike the latter class they require two years for ratification. The form adopted at the last convention and submitted to the diocese in the book of modification was concurred in the house of bishops having already decided in its favor for the "order how the psalter is appointed to be read" and for the "order how the rest of the holy scriptures is appointed to be read."

The general order concerning the service of the church, including an enlarged table of proper psalms and a table of selections of psalms is substituted by the action of the deputies.

Much new matter, not only in form but in substance, is afforded, and the next result is a marked enrichment of the prayer book containing what is termed a missal and mandatory in the service of the church. Further revisions of the book will be acted upon Monday.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Oct. 23. - The state synod of the Presbyterian church in session here today, passed a resolution condemning the "Amos" doctrine.

A Brilliant Finale.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 23. - The St. Louis exposition which opened the fall festivities here closed tonight after a most successful season. The closing scene tonight was a grand parade through the sides and avenues of the building by the exhibitors marked out in fantastic costumes accompanied by representatives of various social societies and clubs of the city. Every foot of space in the great building was occupied by spectators who enjoyed the fun immensely.

A notable and the most enthusiastically received feature of the parade were three small boys, one bearing the inscription "The Browns are the champions of the world," while the other two carried large base ball banners named after two members of the club. Behind these marched nine very small boys, one of whom announced to the audience that they were Anson's babies.

Mr. Blaine of Maine.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23. - Hon. James G. Blaine arrived here at 10:30 a. m. from Brownsville and was driven to the residence of Hon. J. Ewing, his uncle, at 3 p. m. He was escorted by the students of Washington and Jefferson college of which he is an alumnus to the steps of the old building from which he graduated, and made a half hour and a quarter address after which he was driven over the oil fields. Tonight the students tendered him a reception. The building was brilliantly illuminated and thousands participated. Mr. Blaine will remain here until Monday.

Foreclosure Asked For.

DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 23. - G. W. Thomas, of New Jersey, and Thomas S. Hughes, of New York, filed a bill in the United States circuit court this morning to foreclose the first mortgage on the Chicago and Canada Southern railroad, of which they are creditors.

The college building will be commenced in two weeks. Only institution this society has in Kansas.

A MAINE HOLOCAUST.

The Town of Farmington Literally Destroyed by Fire.

LEWISTON, Me., Oct. 23. - A dispatch from Farmington says: Friday afternoon Sandy River railroad men working on the side of the track discovered a fire in the barn of J. R. Stover. The fire was supposed to be extinguished at 4 o'clock, but the wind had taken sparks to different points, seven roofs being on fire at one time, and in a few moments the Albert Street building and William Tarbox's was ablaze and Huntress and Bondman's were next caught and were destroyed. It then leaped to the large Cragin hotel on Pleasant street which was burned. The fire stopped here in its north bound course and leaped across the street to the county jail. The prisoners were turned loose.

From the jail the fire communicated to the hotel Marble. It was now nearly midnight and the panic was widespread. The entire village seemed to be on fire. Sparks flew in all directions. The fire leaped to the north of Main street, destroying buildings in its path. While those fires swept to the north desolation spread to the south for a block at the same time. On Broadway the postoffice, Perkins' block, Arcade block and the old county building were swept away. The fire fell five brick stores, The Exchange hotel on Main street next caught and was soon swept out of sight.

Up to this point the fire had been confined to the west of Main street, here it leaped over to the east to the Baptist church, which was also destroyed. It was now about 2:30 a. m. and the fire had almost spent itself on the north, but continued for some time to burn furiously to the south.

The following buildings were burned: Thirty-three dwelling houses, nineteen stores, three churches and two newspaper offices. The loss is estimated at $900,000. The insurance is not large; for instance, the Baptist church was not insured at all, the Congregational church and parsonage are insured, the Methodist church is insured to some extent. Hon. Fred Perkins loses $100,000, without a cent of insurance.

A prominent business man estimates the thirty-three dwelling houses destroyed to have been valued at $2,000,000, or more, aggregate of $60,000, much of which will prove a total loss.

The nineteen stores burned were worth $5,000 each, or $95,000. The three churches destroyed were valued at $90,000 and were insured for not more than one-third of that amount.

The Farmington Journal Publishing Co. will lose from $20,000 to $30,000. The Chronicle has a delicately equipped new building, the machinery and type are a total loss, amounting to $15,000, thought to be insured.

The safes and valuable private papers of the estate of Mr. S. O. Belcher are believed to have been saved.

The Hotel Marble loses $40,000 in the house and furniture, J. Milliken, lost his own private residence.

A list of the merchants burned out is as follows: H. T. Emery, variety goods; Minch & Richards, dry goods; Wm. F. Belcher, clothing; D. H. Knowlton, books and stationery; J. T. Gay, books and shoes; The People's Trust Co.; Geo. McPherson, jeweler; J. B. Greenwood, insurance; Russell & Priest, jeweler; Jas. F. McKee, restaurant; The Massena and Old Fellows halls were also burned, the last named insured.

Aid was summoned from distant points; the Phillips fire department was on hand at 9 a. m. The Lewiston steamer was delayed, but was at work at 3 o'clock. Portland sent a steamer that arrived at 6.

The village department had one hand engine and a hook and ladder. The water supply was from the reservoir and a low.

Quirks of the Quake.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Oct. 23. - Dispatches received at 2 p. m. report the damage at Summerville by the shock yesterday afternoon greater than at first stated. It damaged fire chimneys so they will have to come down. A number of geyzers have been discovered where only water spouts up continuously. The water has an odor similar to kerosene oil, and it is accompanied by the sand of different colors. The people of the town are thoroughly worked up and great uneasiness is felt by all. The duration of the shock is estimated at twenty to thirty seconds, and the force so great that persons found it exceedingly difficult to open doors or get out of houses to a safer locality, and some cases are reported where persons were thrown down by the shock. There was a slight shock in Summerville and Charleston at 11:55 last night.

The development of geyzers at Summerville by yesterday's shock is corroborated, but the geyzers all found in the water is explained by the fact that the refuse from the crossing off factory has been emptied into the drains in which the geyzers appeared.

Water did not spout very high from most of the geyzers, but it is reported that water was thrown up fully three feet from one of them near Ashby river. The water is cold as far as clear as crystal.

New disturbances occurred there today.

Railroad Wreck.

DURHAM, Mich., Oct. 23, 12:45 a. m. - Word has just been received of what is believed to be a serious wreck on the Detroit, Grand Haven and Milwaukee, road about eight miles from here. A passenger train ran into a freight late tonight. Help has been sent from this city. No particulars have yet been received.
