SUMMARY OF TODAY'S WAR NEWS IN EUROPE

The seat of the Belgian government has been moved to Ostend.

Germany is momentarily expecting a formal declaration of war by Portugal.

The loss of life following the desperate fighting by the Belgians in their last attempt to save Antwerp was terrific.

German currency is on the same footing with Belgian currency throughout Belgium according to an order today.

Reports from Berlin that the Cuban minister has closed his legation in Germany on account of lack of funds are denied in Washington.

Official announcement given out today from Paris reads: "Violent fighting continues but our entire battle front has been maintained."

The suffering in Antwerp is terrible. The city has a population of 300,000, but with other thousands of refugees.

On account of the intense suffering among the troops from inflammatory rheumatism, due to the wet trenches, the allies have installed a system of drainage.

It is believed that the German plan, now that Antwerp has been captured, is to sweep over northern France, take possession of the channel port and form a base of operations against England.

There is fear here over the moral effect of the fall of Antwerp. Napoleon called the city "the pivot pointing at the heart of England." There are now fewer than 400,000 Germans in Belgium today.

The battle line in France is now 350 miles long, extending from Lorraine to the Belgian frontier. The hope of the allies to deliver a crushing blow against the German army in France has been abandoned.

Antwerp has fallen. The Belgians evacuated the city yesterday and the Germans marched in. Only a few of the forts are still occupied by the Belgians. Fires are still burning in many parts of the city. Two-thirds of Antwerp was wrecked by German shells. Before deserting the city the retreating troops blew up the famous fort of Merxet to prevent its being utilized by the Germans.

The War Flag Is Removed From the Cathedral

And a White Flag Run Up in Its Place.

BELGIANS EVACUATE THE CITY

Kaiser's Forces Occupy All but a Few Forts.

The Defenders Fought Desperately in Their Trenches.

HEAVY LOSSES ON BOTH SIDES

Results of the German Artillery Fire Are Appalling.

The Fighting Has Been Indescribably Sanguinary.

The Hague, Oct. 10.—Antwerp surrendered to the Germans at 2:30 p. m. Friday, October 9.

The war flag was removed from the cathedral and a white flag raised in its place at 9 a. m. The actual surrender took place five and one-half hours later.

It is declared that the Cathedral of Notre Dame has not been damaged.

The Germans delivered one of their last furious attacks between 6 and 7 o'clock Friday morning. The Belgians resisted them manfully in their trenches and the desperate fighting resulted in very heavy losses on both sides.

During all Friday night Zeppelin airships directed the firing of the German heavy artillery, the results of which were appalling.

The German artillery forced its way across the River Nethe in which many artillerymen were drowned. The fighting has been indescribably sanguinary.

The Belgians succeeded in blowing up two and possibly more of their enemy's batteries and heavy artillery.

Official Announcement. London, Oct. 10.—The official announcement of the fall of Antwerp, given out at German general headquarters and transmitted here via Marconi wireless, says:

Kansas-Missouri Teams Will Be Closely Watched.

K. U., Missouri and Washburn Games the Big Features.

Kansas City, Oct. 10.—Football enthusiasts who follow the fortunes of Missouri valley conference schools will get their first "line" on the relative merits of the University of Missouri and the University of Kansas teams based on relative scores today when William Jewell and Missouri meet at Columbia, Kansas rolled up a 34 to 0 score against the Baptists last Saturday and it will be up to Missouri to hand the Liberty men a defeat as overwhelming to satisfy Missouri students and Missouri enthusiasts.

Kansas appears to have an easy game scheduled for today when the Jayhawkers and the Washburn College team will meet at Lawrence. The Emporia team it is said will depend upon open play in the hope of crossing the Kansas goal line. At Lincoln, Nebraska meets South Dakota and if the Cornhuskers are able to humble the Dakotas, Nebraska stock will take a big bound. There was some doubt this morning whether the game would be played. Nebraska officials are claiming that some of the South Dakota players were ineligible.

At Topeka Coach Gray's Washburn Ichabods expect an easy victory over Baker university. The Washburn eleven is fast, as was demonstrated in last Saturday's game against the Nebraska Cornhuskers. However, Baker has a heavy line this year.

The Kansas Aggies meet the Kansas Normal players and if the Cornhuskers latter team, because of its great showing against Haskell last week, confident of winning. Coach Lowman realizes his team will have to contend itself to win. Bert Kennedy's Haskell Indians and the Christian Brothers college of St. Louis will furnish local enthusiasm with an afternoon of entertainment. The St. Louis eleven arrived this morning. All the players were "fit" according to the coaches. The Brothers are anxious to defeat Haskell today to even scores for last year's defeat at the hands of the Indians.

FIVE DIE IN STORM.

Tornado Sweeps Through Wilson and Neosho Counties.

Chanute, Kan., Oct. 10.—Five persons were killed and 20 injured in a tornado which swept a path eighteen miles wide through Wilson and Neosho counties early today.

The dead are: Mrs. W. Moke and her two small children and Mrs. F. Herman, all of New Albany, near here, and Mrs. Irene Harmon of Delaware Springs. Mrs. Harmon was more than 90 years old.

The territory devastated by the storm follows the general direction of northwest to southeast. Much property damage was done, the amount being difficult to estimate because telegraph and telephone service in the section is demoralized. The wind was accompanied by heavy lightning and hail but little rain fell.

Weather Forecast for Kansas. Fair tonight and Sunday; slightly cooler in east portion tonight.
