Turner Walters and Harriet Ware. Mrs. Whitmore is no stranger to the Lincoln public, having appeared before them a number of times, and has been a member of the Musical club of that place. Miss Anne Stuart will be the accompanist. The first of a series of parties at which Mrs. Y. B. Kistler is hostess this week, was given Wednesday afternoon, complimentary to Mrs. Edwin Kistler and Miss Josephine Perry. The guests were: Miss Perry and Mrs. Kistler's two daughters-in-law, Mrs. Edwin Kistler and Mrs. Mrs. The latter, in her recent marriage, was Miss Maud Grimes, and since her girlhood days, has been popular in local society circles. Mrs. Edwin Kistler was formerly Miss Alice Williams of Wichita, and came to Topeka as a bride in the early summer. Thus early in the beginning of the social season, she is formally introduced to friends of the Kistler household since her arrival she has been made welcome in the social set of young married people, at such informal functions as have been given during the summer season. She was charmingly gowned yesterday in white crepe de chine. The wide girde was of white satin. The skirt and bodice were accented with lace, and there was a trimming of white lace. The bodice was made with round neck and short sleeves. With it was worn a corsage bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Perry is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Perry. She has been in Boston, a student at Simmons college, and returned last year. She has had but little opportunity to meet her Topeka friends in the past few years, as she has been at college in the winter, and at the Perry summer home in Barnardstown, Mass., during vacation times. She is an unusually attractive girl and a charming addition to the debutante set. She was dressed in blue crepe meteor, with lace bodice, and tunic of white lace and net. She wore a bouquet of pink rose buds. The hostess was gowned in white crepe, trimmed with lace. The skirt was in tiers of finely embroidered net and lace and the lace trimming was used on the bodice. Her corsage was of pink roses and lilies of the valley. Mrs. Monte Kistler wore lavender crepe de chine, with girde of purple velvet. Lavender and purple sweet pea formed her corsage bouquet. The Kistler home is comparatively new, and carries out the new ideas of substantial elegance in finishing and furnishing. The decorations for the party were effectively arranged, and the dining room was especially attractive. On the table was a large vase of yellow chrysanthemums, and at intervals along the edge of the table were rows of ribbon shikins from yellow to orange. The candles were shaded with yellow, and along the upper walls were arranged banks of ferns. Pink snapdragons were arranged in baskets in the receiving room. In the dining room were jetsam and fern and blowing geraniums formed the decoration. Mrs. E. G. Williams of Wichita, Mrs. Edwin Kistler's mother, was one of the guests. She sat at the table in the dining room and poured coffee. She was assisted in serving by Miss Frances Perry, a sister of Miss Josephine Perry, and Miss Marjorie Rodgers. Mrs. Harrison, Miss Marian Garrett, Miss Irene Horner, Miss Ethelyn Harrison, Miss Harry MacLennan, Miss Helen Estey, and Miss Jessica Short. The marriage of Miss Florence Teat, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Blahop of Cottonwood Falls, and Mr. Ralph Montgomery, of Topeka, took place today in Cottonwood Falls. The bride is a refined nurse, who formerly occupied a position in the Santa Fe hospital. Mr. Montgomery is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Montgomery, of 515 Harrison street, a well known Topeka family. He has a position as superintendent of the time service with the Santa Fe, and he and his bride will make their home in Topeka. A state Red Cross committee has been appointed for Kansas by Jane A. Delano, of Washington, D. C., chairman of the National Red Cross committee. Miss Mayne Conklin, of 561 Clay street, is chairman of the Kansas committee, and all nurses who wish to enroll for nursing service in the Red Cross, are asked to communicate with Miss Conklin. The members of the art department of the Topeka Federation of Women have a meeting Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the home of the chairman, Mrs. F. W. Watson, 401 Topeka avenue. Mrs. Frank P. Whitmore leaves Thursday for Lincoln, Neb., where she will give a musicale for Mrs. E. Letson, Mrs. J. F. Stevens and Mrs. G. P. Elmer, who are entertaining on Saturday afternoon at the Lindell hotel. The guests will number about 100. Mrs. Whitmore's program will consist of German lieder by Schumann and Grieg, a group of Old Scotch songs, and modern songs by the American composers, Chas. Gilbert Spross, Huntington Woodman, Margaret Lang, Mary

SOCIETY Announcement of an engagement that will be much interesting to Topeka people, is that of Mrs. Josephine Kline Webb, and Dr. E. N. Allen, of Little Rock, Ark. Mrs. Webb has been prominent in Topeka society for a number of years. She belongs to one of the old families of the city, and her father, Mr. Kline, had large property interests in this city, being the owner of the Kline addition of the East side. Mrs. Webb is a sister of Mrs. Schuyler Nichols, of Fillmore street. She is a woman who is very much liked among a large number of friends, and the announcement of her forthcoming marriage is one of interest to a wide circle of Topeka people. Mrs. Webb has been occupying rooms at the National hotel for some time. The past summer she spent in the north, and since her return she has been in Kansas City a good deal of the time. Dr. Allen formerly made his home in Kansas City, and he also has some friends in Topeka. He is chief surgeon for the Choctaw division of the Rock Island Railway company, and is now stationed in Little Rock, Ark., where he and his bride will make their home. The wedding will take place early in November. The fall meeting of the Kansas Woman's Home Missionary Union and the Kansas branch of the Woman's Board of Missions of the Interior, will have a convention tonight and Friday at the Central Congregational church. The program for the meeting tonight will include an address by Mrs. F. P. Ensminger, of West Tampa, Florida, who is an able mission worker in the south, and an address by Professor F. B. Riggs, of Santee, Nebraska, who has been active in missions to the Indians, and his subject will be on that phase of the work. Miss Carolyn Lovewell will sing, and there will be some organ music. Sessions of the convention will be held Friday, morning, afternoon and evening. Fur always imparts a touch of luxury to a child's coat, and if not brought in close contact with throat or wrists does not make the youngster susceptible to colds. This little coat of gray blue Bedford cord was trimmed with fur on collar and cuff edge, both of which were cut from the coat material. A wide panel with invisible closing occupies the front and a crushed girde of self-tone silk held in place the slight fullness of sides and back. Buttons and frogs made from cords of the silk trimmed the panel. A wide brimmed hat of blue velour trimmed in white roses and twists of white velvet crowned the pretty head. Mrs. V. B. Kistler entertained at bridge this afternoon at her home in Taylor street. There were guests from the city and out of town guest was Mrs. C. E. Denton, of Wichita, who arrived today to visit Mrs. Kistler. A second bridge party at the Kistler home this week will be given Friday afternoon. La Huite Bridge club met Wednesday with Mrs. Forrest Kutz, and guests of the club were: Mrs. D. W. Studdard and Miss Edith Cole. The club will meet in two weeks with Miss May Graham, 113 Harrison street. The women of the Ladies' Music club were hostesses at a musicale Wednesday afternoon at the First Methodist church, for a large company of their friends. The program was furnished by Professor Carl Preyer, who is at the head of the music department of the State university, Lawrence, and by Miss Elizabeth Alderson, one of the prominent musicians of Topeka. A feature of the musicale was Professor Preyer's rendering of a number of his own compositions. The first of his numbers was a sonata in C sharp minor in four movements. Following he played a mazurka in D flat, and three fantastic pieces, "Consolation," "Ballet Dancer," and "Conbat," and the last number of his own composition was Scherzo in B flat minor. The Preyer numbers, aside from the fact that they were produced by a musician of this state, possessed a good deal of interest, displayed originality of thought and method, and were endowed with musical significance. The recital revealed to a great many Topeka people a fact that they had not known before, that in their own state university they had as the head of the music department as prolific and able a composer as Professor Preyer. As a pianist, he is one of artistic technique and sound scholarship. He played from Chopin and Liszt, uniting delicacy, power, and understanding to a satisfying degree. In the history of music few instruments have been as popular as the piano, and none has accumulated a literature so large. Many of the volumes that have been written for it have been lost in the ocean of oblivion that holds submerged so many wrecks of art and letters. There is, however, a reasonable hope that a better fate awaits the work of this Kansas composer. Professor Preyer is a German by birth, Pforzheim being his native city. He received his early musical education at the Conservatory of Music in Stuttgart, and he also studied under Dr. Navratil of Vienna, and Professor Urban and Professor Barth of Berlin. He has been professor of piano, composition, and fugue in the Kansas State university since 1893. Miss Alderson is a member of the Ladies' Music club, and has taken a prominent part in musical affairs in Topeka since coming to this city. She is now instructor in the teaching of public school music in the normal department of Washburn college. She received her training for this work in Louisville, Ky., where she studied with Miss Bourgard, a well known teacher. She has a position in the quartet at the First Methodist church. She has an excellent contralto voice, and sang two pieces numbers yesterday, "Sunset" and "My, O Savior," by Stradella. The Ladies' Music club has given two or three recitals for guests during the last year, at which their own members, sometimes with assistants from outside of the club, furnished the programs. The practice is looked upon with great favor by friends of the club members who have been privileged to attend the concerts. The women who ushered the guests at the recital yesterday were: Mrs. Charles Kleinhans, Mrs. C. B. Crosby, Miss Sara Kouns, Miss Marian Garrett, Miss Irene Horner, Miss Ethelyn Harrison, Miss Harry MacLennan, Miss Helen Estey, and Miss Jessica Short. Don't Forget Their Rubbers! Dry feet save doctor bills and from now on they will need Rubbers. We are open tonight 'til 10. Payne Shoe Co. THE BIG SHOE STORE 715 KANSAS AVE. SAGE TEA TURNS GRAY HAIR DARK. It's Grandmother's recipe to bring color, luster and thickness to hair when faded, streaked or gray. That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray, streaked and looks dry, wispy and scraggy, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold. Don't bother to prepare the tea; you can get from any drug store a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," ready to use. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color, thickness and luster of your hair, and remove dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Everybody uses "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy, lustrous and abundant.
