

LOCAL HERALDINGS.

D. A. Huling wants to see you. S. J. Hartman, J. L. Troup and D. T. Palmer were in town Saturday.

C. A. Lewis started for Decatur county Tuesday night, on business.

Peter Hansen has put a three story addition to the Loggia Mills.

W. T. S. May came up from Kirwin Saturday, to attend the convention.

Proceedings of the Democratic Convention will be found on the 7th page.

J. B. Woods, our genial Sheriff, is building a new barn in the east part of town.

F. W. Lovell, of Bow Creek, has sold his farm to S. J. Finney, of Wanego, Kansas.

There is money in it. Ask D. A. Huling.

A very heavy rain visited this county last Saturday night, making the corn crop a sure thing.

Kenneth, Sheridan county, is soon to have a new paper called the Sentinel, edited by W. L. Humes.

D. C. Clark has cut, with a header, over 300 acres of grain, and will probably reach 400 by the time that harvest has ended.

Wander if Lamb joined in the chorus of the song "Old Hundred" as sung at the Democratic Convention at Chicago last week.

D. A. Huling wants to see you. Wm. Bissell, Senior editor of the Herald, and E. W. Warner are in attendance at the Republican State Convention this week as delegates from this county.

D. L. Smith, County Treasurer, started for Topeka, Tuesday night, to make his annual settlement with the State Treasurer. He will take in the State Convention while there.

It is reported that a severe hail storm visited the country in the vicinity of Big Creek last Friday, doing considerable damage. The report has not been confirmed to us.

We failed to mention last week the departure of J. E. Kelley, for Kirwin, where he will assist his father in the Post Office Store at that place. We are sorry to lose Elmer.

D. A. Huling wants to see you. This office will turn out in the next thirty days, 500 premium lists for the Phillips County Agricultural and Mechanical Association. It will be a pamphlet of about 32 pages.

G. W. Young & Co. have sold this season alone nearly 30 machines, and these, with the old supply, will not be able to save only about 4-5 of the grain in this part of the county.

J. P. Hicks, of Plainview, was in attendance at the county convention Saturday. Mr. Hicks probably has more wounds from the late war than any other soldier in Phillips county.

M. W. McGill, of Towanda township, was in the city Saturday, attending the convention as a delegate. We understand that Mr. McGill is a candidate for Commissioner in that district this fall.

There is money in it. Ask D. A. Huling.

We have quite a number of new correspondents this week, among whom are "Major," from Marvin, "Greenhorn," from Prairieview, and "Uncle Joe," from Hillside. These, with our "Ped," "Vox" and "Tattler" and others, are all welcome visitors.

A. Troup, P. M. of Marvin, was up to attend the County Convention Monday and took occasion to come in and pay for one year's subscription to the Herald. He also informed us that he has just proved up on his timber claim on Bow creek.

The following-named gentlemen came over from Logan, Saturday, to attend the Republican Convention: J. Wiltrout, O. W. Gandy, D. W. Workings, Prof. A. M. Bryant, A. S. Ennis, A. B. Miller and W. M. Dunning. These gentlemen all read the Herald.

James H. Kennedy, of West Cedar, while attending the convention Saturday took occasion to renew his allegiance to the Herald by paying for it for almost two years ahead. Such substantial remembrances are that which make the poor Editor's heart leap for joy. Come often J. H.

We were shown this week two cog wheels cast by J. H. Close and E. B. Sanborn, of this place, that were as perfect as could be cast by any eastern foundry. These gentlemen have the necessary accoutrements for this kind of work and can cast a wheel of almost any size and shape.

There is money in it. Ask D. A. Huling.

Oliver Rubin, of Crow, gave us a call Tuesday, and reports crops in his part of the county excellent. He also reports the new town of Crow booming. Mr. Rubin is one of the substantial farmers of that part of the county, and has an abiding faith in the future of this country.

Harvest is nearly over and the farmers have had good weather although a part of the time has been very hot for both men and horses. The crops of wheat and rye are excellent, and for some fields it is claimed they will yield as high as 40 bushels per acre. The farmers all give very encouraging reports as to quantity and quality. The corn crop is also very flattering.

C. J. Lamb, in an interview with an eastern paper, on his road to the Chicago Democratic Convention, remarked that "if the Democrats did not endorse Ben Butler for their candidate for president, (he) the Greenbackers would nominate a candidate for Congress in this, the 6th district, and make a three cornered fight." Just as if the destinies of the Democratic party were centered in the 6th Kansas District. We imagine we can see the "Boss" using that argument in his plea to Cleveland and other candidates to withdraw from the race.

D. A. Huling wants to see you. The Phillips County Fair will commence October 8th, 1884.

Boys—to Mrs. and Mr. H. R. Daniels on July 13, 1884, a daughter.

Boys—to Mrs. and Mr. Harter, of Big Creek, July 14, 1884, a daughter.

Judge Pratt and daughter, Jesse, went to Topeka Tuesday morning. The Judge will take in the proceedings of the State Convention while there.

Mrs. Ed. Noble, of Hiwatha, Kansas, sister of J. H. Close, arrived at this place yesterday, and will visit a few days with relatives and friends.

We acknowledge the receipt of an invitation to the celebration of the fifth anniversary of the city of Downs, on the 29th inst. If walking is good we'll be there.

There is money in it. Ask D. A. Huling.

The Phillips County Republican Convention is called to meet at Phillipsburg, September 13th, 1884, to nominate candidates for county officers. We have not room to publish the call this week.

There is money in it. Ask D. A. Huling.

H. and C. Cozad, the new druggists of Long Island gave us a call this morning, having been summoned as witnesses on the case of the State vs. Joseph Exline. Mr. H. Cozad is newly appointed Post Master at the Island.

Frank Smith purchased of G. W. Young & Co. last Saturday, the Walter A. Wood Self Binder that received the premium at the Bismark Fair last fall, the blue ribbon still remaining on it when it arrived here.

Francis L. Rhany, of Goode P. O. gave us a call Tuesday. Francis is quite a stirring young man and by perseverance and industry will succeed in Kansas. He reads the Herald, and sends a copy to his brother W. H. Rhany, Fairfield, Iowa.

D. A. Huling wants to see you. G. W. Young & Co. have sold this season over 4,000 pounds of twine for binding grain, and the other towns in the county comparatively the same, and yet about 1-5 of the grain will go back to mother earth for want of machines to save it.

A rancheress of Washoe Valley, Nevada, has invented a novel method of preserving eggs for winter use. During the summer she breaks the eggs, pours the contents into bottles, which are tightly corked and sealed, when they are placed in the cellar, necks down. She claims the contents of the bottles come out as fresh as when put on.—[American Farmer.

A severe rain storm, accompanied by some hail, visited a small territory north of town last Friday evening. We have failed to learn the full extent of the damages done, but hope they are not as bad as some report, however. The small grain that remained uncut suffered severely in some places. The path of the storm was only about a mile wide, and did not extend very far east. Those who are losers have our sympathies.

Yesterday morning Sheriff Woods arrested Joseph Exline, of Dayton township, charged with grand larceny on a warrant sworn out by Samuel Gordon, for stealing a steer and selling it and appropriating the proceeds of the same to his [Exline's] own use. Exline was just returning from Iowa, where he had been visiting, when arrested at the Central House by Sheriff Woods. The case will be tried to-day before His Honor, Esquire Strain, at 10 o'clock, a. m. McElroy & McCormick will appear as attorneys for the State. G. W. Stinson for defence.

LATER—Exline was arraigned this morning before Justice Strain and waived examination, gave bond in the sum of $150, for his appearance at court August 4, 1884.

D. A. Huling wants to see you. A paper to be first-class must receive first-class support. First-class support consists in every subscriber paying his subscription in advance, patronizing the job department, instead of sending the work to foreign offices, and in every way giving the paper your moral help. Taking and reading it, and not paying for it will never do. Moral support of itself was never known to run a newspaper; moral support cannot be utilized when ink and paper bills are to be paid. The men who work on newspapers are human, and enjoy corned beef and cabbage as well as anybody. The atmosphere in this locality contains a large amount of ozone and is very bracing, the scenery very grand and picturesque, but nevertheless it seems to be one of Nature's first laws that one can not pay for printing material with ozone or pay workmen on beautiful scenery.

D. A. Huling wants to see you. Married. On Tuesday evening, July 15th, by Rev. W. R. Allen, at the residence of the groom, Mr. Alexander McPherson to Mrs. Mary J. Calligan, both of Phillipsburg, Kansas.

There is money in it. Ask D. A. Huling.

NORMAL INSTITUTE.

Our County Normal Institute will open promptly on Monday morning, August 4th, at 8 o'clock, sharp. Teachers remember that in order to win the race you should start at the word "go." Loiterers lose opportunities, and do an injustice to themselves, as well as the Institute. Be on hand, ready, like true soldiers, to do your part in the battle for self culture. Remember that the knowledge gained will be in proportion to the industry employed.

Our course of study is exhaustive, and our corps of instructors first class, but the work accomplished will depend upon yourselves. I shall do all in my power to make this summer's Institute a complete success, but I cannot accomplish the work alone. I must have your cheerful co-operation, which I trust will be freely given. Make all your arrangements early and come with a full determination to succeed. The following will be the programme for the term, subject, however, to such modifications as the exigencies of the case may demand:

GOOD Morning Gentle Reader.

Did you know that FRED. E. WINSHIP had started in business?

Did you know he is anxious to work up a good trade?

Did you know that in order to do so he expects to down them on prices?

Did you know he has the noblest store and the best selected stock in the west.

Did you know that eleven years experience in a new country gives him decided advantages.

Did you know that your trade will be a great object to him, and that he expects to make his goods and prices an object to you.

It is good judgment in you to place your dollars where they will do you the most good and after a careful inspection of my stock and prices, if you do not think that I merit your patronage, I do not want it. All I have to say is this: give me a trial. I pay no rents. My expenses all told are a mere trifle. My goods are bought for cash and I flatter myself that I can sell cheaper than any merchant who does a credit business.

My stock is fresh, attractive and complete in everything belonging to general merchandise, and I shall always pay the highest market price for produce.

You will find me doing business in the old Fred Dutton store (which has been lately refitted) where I hope to receive a liberal share of your patronage, and if your neighbor asks you for the news, please tell him about this little article you have seen in the paper, and oblige

Your Friend, FRED E. WINSHIP.
