ROCKEFELLER OF MEXICO MADE PENNILESS BY VILLA

Chihuahua, Mexico, Jan. 2.—Six weeks ago called the Rockefeller of Mexico, General Luis Terrazas today is all but penniless. His fifteen millions of acres in the state of Chihuahua, comprising two-thirds of the commonwealth, have been seized by General Villa. Hundreds of houses in the city of Chihuahua which belonged to Terrazas, as well as his holdings in banks and factories and mines have been taken away from him, and he is now a refugee without money or home. His vast holdings have been divided among the widows and orphans of rebels who have lost their lives in the present rebellion.

Luis Terrazas.

Terrazas was the wealthiest man in Mexico. Second to him in wealth in the state of Chihuahua was Enrique Creel, his son-in-law. Creel was formerly ambassador at Washington and minister of foreign affairs under Diaz. Like Terrazas, he is a staunch supporter of General Huerta. So his vast holdings also have been taken by the rebels. Terrazas obtained the nucleus for his fortune, estimated all the way from $100,000,000 to $150,000,000, through the gift of 5,000,000 acres of public land by the government nearly half a century ago for his services in clearing the state of Chihuahua of brigands and for his work on behalf of the nation during the war with France. One of his most notable exploits was his organization of a force of volunteers who, under his command, captured this city from a band of several hundred bandits who had defeated the federal garrison and caused the constituted officials of the government to flee for their lives. As a reward Terrazas was made governor of the state, which office he filled many years. His successor was Mr. Creel, his son-in-law.

General Villa, who has now declared himself governor of Chihuahua, says that no part of the wealth of Terrazas and Creel ever will be returned.
