ST. LOUIS AT THE FOOT

In the National the Giants Have a Good Margin.

Brooklyn Has Lowest Standing With Boston Next.

St. Louis, Oct. 7.—It devolved upon St. Louis, the tail enders in the league pennant race, to finally and irrevocably head off the marvelous rush of the Chicago American league baseball team and drive the final spike in the latter's aspirations for the 1905 pennant, when the coveted piece of bunting was almost within its grasp, and to give Philadelphia a clear title to the American league championship.

Almost as remarkable as the now historic burst of speed displayed by Chicago on its last eastern trip was the reversal of form of the locals when they drove Dr. White, Manager Jones' premier pitcher, from the box in the third inning and snowed the visiting team under an avalanche of hits and runs, practically clinching the game, which they finally won by a score of 6 to 2.

With two runs already counted in the fateful third, Manager Jones started to substitute Walsh for White. There was a hurried consultation and Jones gave White another opportunity. The next two St. Louis men to face the Chicago pitcher hit safely, Tom Jones for a double and Koehler for a home run. Walsh was then sent in and held the locals safely the remainder of the game, but the damage was done. Attendance, 1,312.

COOLEY'S SUNDAY GAME.

Will Have K. C. Athletics Here to Play a Topeka Nine.

Dick Cooley, debonair and prim as a New England old maid, came to Topeka Friday and put on the harness in behalf of the Topeka franchise in the Western association. Late in the afternoon, with Herman Crow, he made the first payment on his purchase and is now a full fledged magnate in the Shiveley circuit.

The principal matter about which Dick engaged himself, however, was to talk "up" Sunday's exhibition ball game between a team composed of "pick-ups" which he himself will handle, and the crack team from the Kansas City Athletic club which won the city league pennant in Kansas City this last summer.

The following will be the lineup on Sunday:

Topeka—Henry, catcher; Eels, pitcher; Cooley, first base; Perrine, second base; White, short stop; Brown, third base; Lyons, left field; Miller, center field; Bankhead, right field.

K. C. A. C.—Butterworth, catcher; Allen, pitcher; Riddle, first base; Mallon, second base; Smith, short stop; Owens, third base; Burrows, left field; Colton, center field; Hallen, right field.

It will be seen from these lists that some very high grade men are on both teams. The crowd which will wear the blue and white of Topeka are an especially fine array. Eels, with the Kansas City Blues all of this year, and a part of last, after his release from Joplin will be one of the pitchers. On the other side, "Pete" Allen, the former Kansas university star, will appear. Allen played with the Kansas City "Gits" also a part of the season.

The game will be called at 3 o'clock, because of the early darkness at this time of the year. Haskell, an umpire of the American association, will wear the mask and protector.

MISSOURI SHOWS UP WELL.

Defeat Simpson College by Score of 26 to 0.

Columbia, Mo., Oct. 7.—Missouri battled against the Simpson college team on Rollins field Friday afternoon and won by a score of 26 to 0. Simpson was outclassed from the start. It made first down only once during the game and gained a total of less than thirty yards. It had the ball but once in the second half. The Missouri team showed great improvement over its work in the Kirksville game a week ago.

The Missouri linemen piled up the Simpson backs on the line of scrimmage almost every time they tried to come through. At each snap of the ball the Tigers got the jump on their opponents. The Missouri team could have doubled the score had Coach McLean kept the regulars in throughout the game. After the first touchdown he began to substitute rapidly and used twenty-four men during the game. Eleven men were tried out in the back field, and from their work it is certain that Missouri has excellent material for this department of the game. The length of the halves was very short, the first half being twenty minutes and the second fifteen.

A BET OF $10,000 TO $9,000.

Wall Street Broker Takes Long End in Favor of Giants.

New York, Oct. 7.—The first big bet on the result of the world's championship baseball series has been made, Jacob Fields, the Wall street broker, laid $10,000 against $9,000 that the Giants will be victorious in the series which begins next Monday.

The bet came through a little discussion in Rector's, on Broadway. Fields was in a party and baseball was the topic of discussion, particularly the proposed series between the Giants and Athletics.

"I would bet $10,000 to $9,000 that the Giants will win," Mr. Fields repeated several times. At another table sat another party, and in it was Davy Johnson, the noted plunger, and Frank Farrell. Fields reiterated his defi and then Farrell walked over to him and said:

"Well, I'm here to take your bet."

"Now, let us make it $1,000 to $900, instead," said Mr. Fields.

"No, make it your original proposition or the bet does not go," said Farrell.

There was a big crowd on hand and Fields gave in. Checks were signed and the bet recorded. The bet will probably result in all bets being recorded with the Giants favorite.

PLAYED FOOTBALL AT NIGHT.

Fairmount College Defeated Cooper at Wichita 24 to 0.

Wichita, Kan., Oct. 7.—The football season was inaugurated here last evening with a game at Association park between Fairmount and Cooper college. The game was played by artificial light, the light being supplied by gasoline pressure lamps. There was not sufficient light to make it a success, the umpire and referee not being able to see the mass plays. Cooper college proved an easy opponent for the "Wheatshockers," who scored two touchdowns and kicked two goals in each half, making a score of 24 to 0.

K. U. STILL BOASTING.

Coach Kennedy Brags What They Will Do to Washburn.

Kansas City, Oct. 7.—The Kansas university football team passed through Kansas City last night on the way to Fayetteville, Ark., where they play the University of Arkansas today. The squad stops at Springfield, Mo., Monday to play Drury college.

The members of the team who are on the trip are Captain Pooler, Myers, Rouse, Donald, Brunner, Heintzman, Pingry, Root, Reed, White, Hart, McNaughton, Waring and Milton. The team is accompanied by Coach A. R. Kennedy and Manager W. C. Lansdon.

"Of course we expect to win the two games on this trip," said Captain Pooler last night, "but we do not expect any large scores. We had a hard game with the College of Emporia last Wednesday and we will have to be careful not to overdo the football business. We are in pretty good shape. We are weak at the center of the line and at right end, but those places will be strengthened before we play any hard games."

"The boys are doing good work," said Coach Kennedy, "but not the kind of work they will do in a few weeks. We are going to play football this season. The only teams I am afraid of are Colorado and Oklahoma.

"You needn't laugh at Oklahoma," he said, as the reporter smiled at the thought of Oklahoma scoring on the big, husky men who were gathered around their coach. "Benny Owen is going to pound football into those men of his. He learned his football from Yost and he learned how to teach the game as well as how to play it. I'm really afraid of those fellows. Washburn? Don't worry about us when we go to Topeka to play. Don't print this, but we are going to beat Washburn without any trouble. It'll be the last time we will play Washburn and we will—well, I won't describe it to you. And Haskell? It'll be 'The Last of the Mohicans' when we go against the Indians. Watch us. Kansas will play football this year."

The freshman team of the University of Kansas will play the second Haskell team at Lawrence today. The freshmen have a strong aggregation and expect to easily defeat the redskins.

HUGHES TO THE WHITE SOX.

Former Topeka Pitcher to Sail in Fast Company.

"Long Tom" Hughes, the stellar box artist of the Topeka team during the past year, has been drafted by the Chicago White Sox.

Tom was originally put on Clark Griffith's string of New York Americans about a month ago by the national commission. But someone evidently ripped out his "Tom"-ahawk, and Griffith informed Mr. Sheard and Mr. Logan, his owners, that he was not wanted.

"Tip" O'Neil, president of the Western League drifted into town last Saturday. He heard that Hughes had been dropped by the Highlanders and wanted an explanation. None was forthcoming, so O'Neil said that he would find a berth for the lanky pitcher.

On Thursday Mr. Logan received a telegram from O'Neil to this effect: "Chicago White Sox will take on Hughes." So the big fellow is sold and he will get a fast league trial despite the turndown which the New Yorkers gave him.

TO EJECT SALOON MEN.

Crusaders at Kansas City, Kan., Cause Building Owners to Act.

Kansas City, Kan., Oct. 7.—Another move in the crusade against the "joints" was made, following the arrival of J. K. Codding, attorney for the State Temperance union. The preliminary notices to owners of property where "joints" are located were prepared and placed in the hands of a constable for service. If the property owners do not eject their tenants or secure the closing of the places the notices will be followed by injunctions. Under the law for the abatement of nuisances, a reasonable notice must be given the property owner before injunction proceedings are brought.

Injunction suits and more notices will follow, the crusade leaders say, until every "joint" in the city is closed.

Mr. Codding said yesterday that the State Temperance union was engaged in prohibition law enforcement work in twenty counties in Kansas.

"We closed the saloons in Wabaunsee county two days ago," he said. "Every place is closed. In Ellsworth county nine injunctions have been brought and there are five criminal prosecutions. The joints will be closed there."

OUTLOOK IS GOOD.

No Anxiety Is Felt Regarding Future of Business.

Unprecedented Fall and Winter Trade Is Looked For.

RAILWAY EARNINGS

Still Show an Increase Over Same Month in 1904.

Undiminished Activity Is Apparent in the Iron Trade.

New York, Oct. 7.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says:

"Favorable trade reports still predominate and there is no anxiety regarding the future. Higher temperatures checked retail distribution of heavy wearing apparel and other reasonable merchandise, but preparations for unprecedented fall and winter trade continue without diminution. Superlatives are needed in commenting on real estate transactions, building permits, bank exchanges and railway earnings, and failure statistics for the third quarter show a very low commercial death rate. Quarterly records back to 1875 disclose no three month period when the ratio of liabilities to solvent payments through the closing house was lower than the 62 cents to $1,000 just recorded, while the average loss to each firm in business of $15.26 was less than in any year except 1881.

Latest reports of railway earnings in September show a small gain of .7 per cent over last year's figures.

"Commercial failures this week in the United States are 195, against 240 last week, 206 the preceding week and 22 the corresponding week last year."

Bradstreet's.

Bradstreet's says:

"Collections for the country as a whole are good. Money is still moving to the country, and while a liberal supply for ordinary trade purposes higher quotations at home and abroad seem certain. Bank clearings testify to new heights being reached for this season of the year, after a full year of record breaking totals at the metropolis and in the country outside thereof. Something like a downward swing in prices of agricultural products is in evidence this week, a result of the pressure of new large crops of fine quality, which augurs for lower prices of feeding stuffs and cheaper cost of meat production are coming this winter.

"In the east, although the late decline in cotton has led to some hesitation in placing orders for later delivery, some large sales of print cloths are reported.

"Eastern shoe manufacturers are well provided with work.

HE TALKS OF ETERNITY

Dr. Chapman's Subject at the Auditorium Last Night.

"Where will you spend your Eternity?"—a subject as old as the hills, but without whose discussion no evangelistic meetings are complete, served as the text for Dr. J. Wilbur Chapman's sermon to over 2,000 people at the Auditorium on Friday night.

The fifth chapter of Jeremiah, the lamenting prophet, furnished the text: "What will you do in the end?"

"I'll change that a little," said Dr. Chapman. "I'll say, 'Where will you spend your eternity?' But for the sake of brevity we'll change it again, 'Eternity, where?'"

Dr. Chapman did not enliven his subject with any theories as to the plan or scope of eternity, he did not talk in "scientific circles," as a famous man expresses it, but he simply asked each man and woman in the house to consider the problem for himself and herself.

"Sometime ago," said Dr. Chapman, "I asked a college professor of great repute, 'What is eternity?'"

"'Where computation leaves off,'" was his reply.

"'But I cannot explain that,' was my reply to him.

"Then go as far as human mind can carry a man,' said the professor. 'When you get to the very end, drive a stake, and there begins eternity.'

"A time comes to every man," said Dr. Chapman, "when he sits quietly in his office, before his fireside, when he walks the streets, and sees nothing else and hears nothing else, and has but one word on his mind. It is 'Eternity.' And he asks himself the question, 'Why' and 'Where' over and over again.

"It is something that you must decide for yourself. It is a great question, one of immense compass and individuality and you alone can settle it. Do it today. Do it now. Do not wait. You know not when death may come. It may be tonight, it may be tomorrow, it may still be a long time. But you must be in readiness."

Mr. Fred Butler added immensely to the effect of the sermon, by singing at its conclusion the old hymn, "Where Will You Spend Your Eternity?" He did it well, as he does all things well which he undertakes to sing. He had the audience in his power.

After the song was completed, people who wanted prayers said for them were asked to raise their hands. Fully 50 did so, and almost that number signed pledge cards to lead better lives.

IN THE VAUDEVILLE HOUSES.

Emil Chevriel at Star—Mrs. Jules Levy at Novelty.

A varied bill is announced for this week at the Star theater. The headliner being Emil Chevriel, styled the French musician and raconteur. M. Chevriel has the distinction of being one of the few performers who has appeared with equal success on both sides of the Atlantic. Apart from his clever trick violin playing he is a joker of high order. His broken French accent adding much piquancy to his "squibs." Baby Tobie Stark has been winning praises throughout the country, her singing and dancing being quite remarkable for a child of her age. Vincient Kiralfo, Roman axe swinger, executes feats which are both clever and daring. New illustrated song and pictures complete the programme.

The headliners at the Novelty theater next week will be the Levys. For more than two decades Jules Levy, the celebrated cornetist, who died eighteen months ago, enjoyed the reputation of being one of the greatest in his line, in the whole world. Next week at the Novelty the widow of the great cornetist, assisted by her pretty daughter Louise, and son, Jules, Jr., will present a neat musical playlette in a manner that promises to keep the family name prominently before the music loving theater goers for some time to come. Jules, Jr., is a chip off the old block, and his artistic playing of the cornet shows that he has inherited not a little of his noted father's skill. The beautifully toned cornet he uses is one that his father played for years all over the world.

P. O. CLERKS ASSESSED

Five Per Cent of Salaries Went Into the Campaign Fund.

Washington, Oct. 7.—The civil service commission is preparing to forward a circular letter to all government employes warning them against campaign contributions as in violation of law. The letter is like those ordinarily circulated when election campaigns are in progress but the necessity for warning was emphasized by a discovery by Commissioner Green when engaged recently in investigating difficulties between the postmaster at Goshen, Ind., and his clerks. Mr. Green reported to the commission when the clerks were under examination they told him that during the campaign of 1902 they had contributed 5 per cent of their respective salaries to the Republican state campaign fund and that the contributions were made through United States Circuit Judge Baker who resides at that place. When questioned on the subject Judge Baker is said to have admitted the truth of the statement. The sums contributed were not large and as it did not appear there had been a recent offense the commission did not feel justified in making a formal charge against Judge Baker.

What Did Luck Do for Them?

When we consider the few who owe fortune or position to accident or "luck," in comparison with the masses who have to fight every inch of the way to their own loaves, what are they, in reality, but the exceptions to the rule that character, merit—not fate, or "luck," or any other bogy of the imagination,—control the destinies of men? The only luck that plays any great part in a man's life is that which inheres in a stout heart, a willing hand, and an alert brain.

What has chance ever done in the world? Has it invented a telegraph or telephone? Has it laid an ocean cable? Has it built steamships, or established universities, asylums, or hospitals? Has it tunneled mountains, built bridges, or brought miracles out of the soil?

What did "luck" have to do with making the career of Washington, of Lincoln, of Daniel Webster, of Henry Clay, of Grant, of Garfield, or of Elihu Root? Did it help Edison or Marconi with their inventions? Did it have anything to do with the making of the fortunes of our great merchant princes? Do such men as John Wanamaker, Robert Ogden, or Marshall Field owe their success to luck?

I have never known a man to amount to much until he cut out of his vocabulary such words as "good luck" and "bad luck," and from his lifemaxims all the "I can't" words and the "I can't" philosophy. There is no word in the English language more misued and abused than "luck." More people have excused themselves for poor work and mean, stingy, poverty-stricken careers by saying "luck was against them" than by any other excuse.

That door ahead of you, young man, is probably closed because you have closed it,—closed it by lack of training; by a lack of ambition, energy, and push. While, perhaps, you have been waiting for "luck" to open it, a pluckier, grittier fellow has stepped in ahead of you and opened it himself.—Orison Swett Marden in Success Magazine.

DRIVE RATS AND MICE OUT OF DOORS

The objection to the ordinary rat and mice poison in the past has been that, while it kills the vermin, they are liable to crawl between the floors and die, thus creating a disagreeable odor. A recent discovery of science, Stearns' Electric Rat and Roach Paste, contains a peculiar chemical that actually burns up the stomach of the rats and mice who eat it, and drives them out of the house to die. It is sure death, and can be depended upon to rid the home, barn or store of all rats, mice, cockroaches, water bugs, bed bugs, etc.

Sold everywhere or sent express prepaid on receipt of price. Stearns' Electric Paste Co., Chicago, Ill. Small size 25c, hotel size, eight times the quantity, $1.00.
