

Munson and Namara. 123 to 127 N. Main Street. A passing car sent a spray of mud spots over a nicely browned tray of waffles at a corner stand. "By hokey, look at that!" cried the disengaged proprietor. Then, instantly collecting his wits, he cried to an attendant in a loud voice: "Sugar dem spots off quick!"

Forson. We Must Sell! We Will Sell! 68c for 44-inch German serge, reduced from 75c. 77c for 46-inch German Henrietta, goes faster than $1. 44c for 64-inch all-wool Flannel, cheap at 75c.

ONE SPEECH MADE. MR. DALZELL PRESENTS THE CLAIMS OF MR. SMITH. The Remainder of the Day Spent in Filibustering and Wordy Warfare.

THE NEW TREASURER. GOVERNOR HUMPHREY APPOINTS HAMILTON'S SUCCESSOR. Major William Sims, President of the Board of Agriculture, Named.

ANTHONY'S CANDIDATE FOR THE STATE TREASURERSHIP ENCOURAGED IN HIS ASPIRATIONS BY WESTERN MEN. AN EARNEST RE-SUBMISSION MEETING AT HARPER'S COUNTY SEAT—THE TROUBLE AT CONWAY SPRINGS OVER THE UPAID BILLS AT THE SUGAR WORKS NOT SERIOUS—GENERAL STATE NEWS.

NO MORE LOT JUMPING. THE ATTORNEY GENERAL ORDERS OKLAHOMA'S CITIZENS TO BE PEACEFUL. GUTHRIE, Ok., Jan. 31.—The disorder that has prevailed here for several days received a death blow today by the receipt of this telegram from Attorney General Miller to Marshall Walker: "You will permit no more lot jumping or lot ejections. Let matters remain as they are."

Munson and Namara. GREAT Semi-Annual

WESTERN MATTERS AT THE CAPITAL. WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—C. G. Shepard was appointed postmaster at Rock Creek, Jefferson county, vice A. A. Hart, removed.

MR. SPRINGER DESIRED TO BE HEARD ON THE SPEAKER'S MOTION. The speaker ruled that Mr. Springer's motion was not in order, and, continuing, he said: "The chair will make a statement to the house. The house will not allow itself to be deceived by epithets. The facts which have transpired during the last few days have transpired in the presence of this house and of a very large audience. No man can describe the action of the occupant of this chair in language which will induce consideration unless that description be truthful. [Republican applause.]

MR. SPRINGER DESIRED TO BE HEARD ON THE SPEAKER'S MOTION. The speaker ruled that Mr. Springer's motion was not in order, and, continuing, he said: "The chair will make a statement to the house. The house will not allow itself to be deceived by epithets. The facts which have transpired during the last few days have transpired in the presence of this house and of a very large audience. No man can describe the action of the occupant of this chair in language which will induce consideration unless that description be truthful. [Republican applause.]

MR. SPRINGER DESIRED TO BE HEARD ON THE SPEAKER'S MOTION. The speaker ruled that Mr. Springer's motion was not in order, and, continuing, he said: "The chair will make a statement to the house. The house will not allow itself to be deceived by epithets. The facts which have transpired during the last few days have transpired in the presence of this house and of a very large audience. No man can describe the action of the occupant of this chair in language which will induce consideration unless that description be truthful. [Republican applause.]

MR. SPRINGER DESIRED TO BE HEARD ON THE SPEAKER'S MOTION. The speaker ruled that Mr. Springer's motion was not in order, and, continuing, he said: "The chair will make a statement to the house. The house will not allow itself to be deceived by epithets. The facts which have transpired during the last few days have transpired in the presence of this house and of a very large audience. No man can describe the action of the occupant of this chair in language which will induce consideration unless that description be truthful. [Republican applause.]

SLAUGHTER SALE!! All Former Efforts are Mere Pigmies beside this GREAT SLAUGHTER, Commencing Saturday Morning, January 18!

MR. SPRINGER DESIRED TO BE HEARD ON THE SPEAKER'S MOTION. The speaker ruled that Mr. Springer's motion was not in order, and, continuing, he said: "The chair will make a statement to the house. The house will not allow itself to be deceived by epithets. The facts which have transpired during the last few days have transpired in the presence of this house and of a very large audience. No man can describe the action of the occupant of this chair in language which will induce consideration unless that description be truthful. [Republican applause.]

MR. SPRINGER DESIRED TO BE HEARD ON THE SPEAKER'S MOTION. The speaker ruled that Mr. Springer's motion was not in order, and, continuing, he said: "The chair will make a statement to the house. The house will not allow itself to be deceived by epithets. The facts which have transpired during the last few days have transpired in the presence of this house and of a very large audience. No man can describe the action of the occupant of this chair in language which will induce consideration unless that description be truthful. [Republican applause.]

MR. SPRINGER DESIRED TO BE HEARD ON THE SPEAKER'S MOTION. The speaker ruled that Mr. Springer's motion was not in order, and, continuing, he said: "The chair will make a statement to the house. The house will not allow itself to be deceived by epithets. The facts which have transpired during the last few days have transpired in the presence of this house and of a very large audience. No man can describe the action of the occupant of this chair in language which will induce consideration unless that description be truthful. [Republican applause.]

MR. SPRINGER DESIRED TO BE HEARD ON THE SPEAKER'S MOTION. The speaker ruled that Mr. Springer's motion was not in order, and, continuing, he said: "The chair will make a statement to the house. The house will not allow itself to be deceived by epithets. The facts which have transpired during the last few days have transpired in the presence of this house and of a very large audience. No man can describe the action of the occupant of this chair in language which will induce consideration unless that description be truthful. [Republican applause.]

MR. SPRINGER DESIRED TO BE HEARD ON THE SPEAKER'S MOTION. The speaker ruled that Mr. Springer's motion was not in order, and, continuing, he said: "The chair will make a statement to the house. The house will not allow itself to be deceived by epithets. The facts which have transpired during the last few days have transpired in the presence of this house and of a very large audience. No man can describe the action of the occupant of this chair in language which will induce consideration unless that description be truthful. [Republican applause.]

Grasp the Bargains! They are Sure to Fly! Lot 24163—Cas. Ulsters, formerly $12 00, now $8. Lot 9972—Irish Frieze Ulsters, formerly $22 00, now $15 00. Lot 8584—Cas. Overcoats, formerly $14 00, now $9 00. Lot 2054—Black Beaver Overcoats, formerly $12 00, now $8 00. Lot 4687—Kersey Overcoats, extra size, formerly $15, now $10. Lot 973—Kersey Overcoats, extra size, formerly $22, now $13. Lot 9991—Blue Wale Overcoats, worsted, formerly $22, now $15. Lot 9783—Black Worsted Overcoats, formerly $20, now $15. Lot 3914—Brown English Kersey Overcoats, silk lined, formerly $26, now $25. Lot 4036—Black Wale Chevlot overcoats, formerly $18, now $12. Lot 2232—Mixed Chinchilla Overcoats, formerly $20, now $11. Lot 8991—Blue Chinchilla Overcoats, formerly $20, now $12. Lot 2184—Black Chinchilla Overcoats, formerly $22, now $15. Lot 1852—Blue Chinchilla Overcoats, formerly $20, now $14. Lot 8979—Drab Chinchilla Overcoats, formerly $30, now $20. Lot 2042—Dahlia Chinchilla Overcoats, formerly $30, now $20. Lot 7927—Black Chinchilla, satin lined, formerly $30, now $20. Lot 3869—Brown Chinchilla Overcoats, formerly $25, now $17.

MR. SPRINGER DESIRED TO BE HEARD ON THE SPEAKER'S MOTION. The speaker ruled that Mr. Springer's motion was not in order, and, continuing, he said: "The chair will make a statement to the house. The house will not allow itself to be deceived by epithets. The facts which have transpired during the last few days have transpired in the presence of this house and of a very large audience. No man can describe the action of the occupant of this chair in language which will induce consideration unless that description be truthful. [Republican applause.]

MR. SPRINGER DESIRED TO BE HEARD ON THE SPEAKER'S MOTION. The speaker ruled that Mr. Springer's motion was not in order, and, continuing, he said: "The chair will make a statement to the house. The house will not allow itself to be deceived by epithets. The facts which have transpired during the last few days have transpired in the presence of this house and of a very large audience. No man can describe the action of the occupant of this chair in language which will induce consideration unless that description be truthful. [Republican applause.]

MR. SPRINGER DESIRED TO BE HEARD ON THE SPEAKER'S MOTION. The speaker ruled that Mr. Springer's motion was not in order, and, continuing, he said: "The chair will make a statement to the house. The house will not allow itself to be deceived by epithets. The facts which have transpired during the last few days have transpired in the presence of this house and of a very large audience. No man can describe the action of the occupant of this chair in language which will induce consideration unless that description be truthful. [Republican applause.]

MR. SPRINGER DESIRED TO BE HEARD ON THE SPEAKER'S MOTION. The speaker ruled that Mr. Springer's motion was not in order, and, continuing, he said: "The chair will make a statement to the house. The house will not allow itself to be deceived by epithets. The facts which have transpired during the last few days have transpired in the presence of this house and of a very large audience. No man can describe the action of the occupant of this chair in language which will induce consideration unless that description be truthful. [Republican applause.]

MR. SPRINGER DESIRED TO BE HEARD ON THE SPEAKER'S MOTION. The speaker ruled that Mr. Springer's motion was not in order, and, continuing, he said: "The chair will make a statement to the house. The house will not allow itself to be deceived by epithets. The facts which have transpired during the last few days have transpired in the presence of this house and of a very large audience. No man can describe the action of the occupant of this chair in language which will induce consideration unless that description be truthful. [Republican applause.]

COLE & JONES, The One Price Clothiers, 208, 210 and 212 DOUGLAS AVENUE, WICHITA, KANSAS.

MR. SPRINGER DESIRED TO BE HEARD ON THE SPEAKER'S MOTION. The speaker ruled that Mr. Springer's motion was not in order, and, continuing, he said: "The chair will make a statement to the house. The house will not allow itself to be deceived by epithets. The facts which have transpired during the last few days have transpired in the presence of this house and of a very large audience. No man can describe the action of the occupant of this chair in language which will induce consideration unless that description be truthful. [Republican applause.]

MR. SPRINGER DESIRED TO BE HEARD ON THE SPEAKER'S MOTION. The speaker ruled that Mr. Springer's motion was not in order, and, continuing, he said: "The chair will make a statement to the house. The house will not allow itself to be deceived by epithets. The facts which have transpired during the last few days have transpired in the presence of this house and of a very large audience. No man can describe the action of the occupant of this chair in language which will induce consideration unless that description be truthful. [Republican applause.]

MR. SPRINGER DESIRED TO BE HEARD ON THE SPEAKER'S MOTION. The speaker ruled that Mr. Springer's motion was not in order, and, continuing, he said: "The chair will make a statement to the house. The house will not allow itself to be deceived by epithets. The facts which have transpired during the last few days have transpired in the presence of this house and of a very large audience. No man can describe the action of the occupant of this chair in language which will induce consideration unless that description be truthful. [Republican applause.]

MR. SPRINGER DESIRED TO BE HEARD ON THE SPEAKER'S MOTION. The speaker ruled that Mr. Springer's motion was not in order, and, continuing, he said: "The chair will make a statement to the house. The house will not allow itself to be deceived by epithets. The facts which have transpired during the last few days have transpired in the presence of this house and of a very large audience. No man can describe the action of the occupant of this chair in language which will induce consideration unless that description be truthful. [Republican applause.]

MR. SPRINGER DESIRED TO BE HEARD ON THE SPEAKER'S MOTION. The speaker ruled that Mr. Springer's motion was not in order, and, continuing, he said: "The chair will make a statement to the house. The house will not allow itself to be deceived by epithets. The facts which have transpired during the last few days have transpired in the presence of this house and of a very large audience. No man can describe the action of the occupant of this chair in language which will induce consideration unless that description be truthful. [Republican applause.]

OUR FIRST SPECIAL SALE NEXT MONDAY! 500 PIECES EMBROIDERIES. Look in our Show windows. The prices speak for themselves. ALSO. Two cases Standard Bleached Muslin, first quality, worth 10 cents. Monday we will offer these at 8 cents by the bolt or 8 1/2 cents by the yard. COME MONDAY TO THE "ARCADE."

MR. SPRINGER DESIRED TO BE HEARD ON THE SPEAKER'S MOTION. The speaker ruled that Mr. Springer's motion was not in order, and, continuing, he said: "The chair will make a statement to the house. The house will not allow itself to be deceived by epithets. The facts which have transpired during the last few days have transpired in the presence of this house and of a very large audience. No man can describe the action of the occupant of this chair in language which will induce consideration unless that description be truthful. [Republican applause.]

MR. SPRINGER DESIRED TO BE HEARD ON THE SPEAKER'S MOTION. The speaker ruled that Mr. Springer's motion was not in order, and, continuing, he said: "The chair will make a statement to the house. The house will not allow itself to be deceived by epithets. The facts which have transpired during the last few days have transpired in the presence of this house and of a very large audience. No man can describe the action of the occupant of this chair in language which will induce consideration unless that description be truthful. [Republican applause.]

MR. SPRINGER DESIRED TO BE HEARD ON THE SPEAKER'S MOTION. The speaker ruled that Mr. Springer's motion was not in order, and, continuing, he said: "The chair will make a statement to the house. The house will not allow itself to be deceived by epithets. The facts which have transpired during the last few days have transpired in the presence of this house and of a very large audience. No man can describe the action of the occupant of this chair in language which will induce consideration unless that description be truthful. [Republican applause.]

MR. SPRINGER DESIRED TO BE HEARD ON THE SPEAKER'S MOTION. The speaker ruled that Mr. Springer's motion was not in order, and, continuing, he said: "The chair will make a statement to the house. The house will not allow itself to be deceived by epithets. The facts which have transpired during the last few days have transpired in the presence of this house and of a very large audience. No man can describe the action of the occupant of this chair in language which will induce consideration unless that description be truthful. [Republican applause.]

MR. SPRINGER DESIRED TO BE HEARD ON THE SPEAKER'S MOTION. The speaker ruled that Mr. Springer's motion was not in order, and, continuing, he said: "The chair will make a statement to the house. The house will not allow itself to be deceived by epithets. The facts which have transpired during the last few days have transpired in the presence of this house and of a very large audience. No man can describe the action of the occupant of this chair in language which will induce consideration unless that description be truthful. [Republican applause.]