All Children's Overcoats at One-Half Former Price!

We have selected out some suits, ranging in price from $18 to $30, and placed them on a separate table, and will give you the choice of the lot for $15.

Customers will please bear in mind that we are not closing out a stock of "cheap trash" or "old shop worn plunder," but strictly first-class goods—new styles—and at much lower figures than are asked by dealers who make it a point to buy "job lots" of goods from three to five years old and palm them off for new goods.

COLE & JONES, The One Price Clothiers, 208, 210 and 212 DOUGLAS AVENUE, WICHITA, KANSAS.

AT 64 CENTS!

2000 yards, full yard wide, Standard Bleached Muslin, at the "ARCADE."

OUR SPRING SALE

Embroidery Sale. Muslin Sale. Lace Sale. THIS WEEK AT THE "ARCADE"

P.S. The "ARCADE" was closed for two full days some two weeks ago, marking down goods and making bargains for our patrons, and right royally have the public shown their appreciation of these low cut prices. The "ARCADE" is always first. We always lead. We never follow.

THE "ARCADE" LEADS.

AWFUL DISASTER

DEATH BY FIRE IN SECRETARY TRACY'S RESIDENCE.

Mrs. Tracy and Daughter and Maid are Suffocated and Horribly Burned. The Secretary Narrowly Escapes From the Burning Structure and Lies in a Precarious State.

FIVE THOUSAND POUNDS.

Mr. Parnell Compromises His Suit Against the "Times". LONDON, Feb. 3.—The trial of the suit for libel brought by Mr. Parnell against the Times was to have begun today, but when the case was called counsel announced that the suit had been compromised.

CIVIL RIGHTS BILL IGNORED.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Feb. 3.—In the circuit court this morning Judge Field decided that no person had any lawful right to occupy a seat in a theater, in other words that a seat was so occupied by anybody it was only through the sufrage of the proprietors and managers of the theater.

BRITISH GRAIN TRADE.

LONDON, Feb. 3.—The Mary Lane Express in its weekly review of the British grain trade says English wheats are lower; the large stock in millers hands slackens the demand. The sales of English wheats during the past week were 68,963 quarters at 30s 1d against 52,791 quarters at 29s 1d during the corresponding week last year.

THE BANKS NOT OPENED.

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—The bank examiner did not make his report on the condition of the Lenox Hill bank as expected this morning. This brought at least 300 depositors to the bank whose hopes have now descended to despair.

STABBED BY A CRAZY HUSBAND.

NEW YORK, Feb. 3.—Emil Meyer, a blind chairmaker, heretofore a fond husband and father, in a fit of sudden madness last night made a British attempt to murder his whole family and himself at No. 282 Second street. He dragged his wife from her bed by the hair, drove the sharp prongs of a pair of shears into her chest, twisted his child against the stove.

TERRIBLE EXPERIENCES BY FISHERMEN.

GLOUCESTER, Mass., Feb. 3.—The experiences told by fishermen arriving from the banks are the most harrowing that has been related by them for many years. The weather on the north Atlantic, always boisterous in January, has been phenomenally so this winter. The fishermen unanimously pronounce it the worst they have ever experienced.

ACURE FOR HYDROPHOBIA.

VIENNA, Jan. 3.—Dr. Hekali, a professor at the Klanseneburg university, claims to have discovered an absolutely certain antiseptic remedy for hydrophobia, destroying the virus at the seat of the bite. It consists of a solution of chloroform, bromine sulphurous acid and permanganate of potash with oil of cayenne.

IN FAVOR OF REVISION.

CHICAGO, Ill., Jan. 3.—The Chicago presbytery this morning voted almost unanimously in favor of the revision of the confession of faith.

JACKSON OUSTED.

MR. SMITH REPRESENTS WEST VIRGINIA'S FOURTH DISTRICT.

The Interloper Unseated Without a Democratic Vote in His Behalf. A Quorum of Republican Members Secured for the First Time in the Present Session.

A Quorum of Republican Members Secured for the First Time in the Present Session.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—The journal having been read in extenso (at the demand of the Democrats) Mr. O'Ferrall, of Virginia, and Mr. McKinley, of Ohio, were upon their feet. The former with a motion to correct the journal and the latter with a motion to approve the document. The speaker recognized Mr. McKinley, but subsequently on Mr. O'Ferrall's statement that he was acting in good faith, recognized that member, who stated that the journal contained no reference to the fact that the speaker on Saturday last would not allow him to read the evidence in the election case as part of his remarks.
