A GREAT SUCCESS.

EXPERIMENTS MADE WITH THE HOWELL TORPEDO.

Four Trials of the Sub-Marine Weapon Attended with Gratifying Results.

The New Instrument of Destruction Meets the Expectations of the Officer in Charge.

Political Interest in Germany Centered on the Government's Ability to Retain Its Majority—Emperor William's Recent Utterances the Subject of Much Comment—Old World Gossip.

VILLE FRANCOISE, France, March 8.—On Friday the Bamphino, a small steamer, chartered by the Hotchkiss Ordnance company, arrived in the harbor for the purpose of experimenting with the Howell automatic torpedo.

The target was set for 300 metres distance and two and a half metres submergence. In order to thoroughly understand the working of the torpedo, it is necessary to add that motion is imparted to it by the momentum of a fly wheel set in rapid motion by a steam power generating 9,000 revolutions before the torpedo is launched, and that its submergence is controlled by an automatic regulator which can be set for any desired depth.

STUDENTS AT WAR.

THE SENATORS AND PAWNEES AT HASKELL CALLING FOR BLOOD.

LAWRENCE, Kan., March 8.—The Pawnee and Seneca boys at Haskell institute have declared war. A Pawnee and a Seneca had a quarrel Friday night in which the Seneca fired three shots at the Pawnee without effect. The boys of either tribe arrested themselves and a trial was imminent. Revolvers, stones, clubs and broomsticks make up the armament of each side. Chief Clerk Koser is in charge of the institute. The boys are being quiet and no further trouble is anticipated. The Senecas are greatly in excess of the Pawnees in number and to insure the safety of the Pawnees in the quarter he has been removed to the Douglas county jail.

MR. TAUBER'S CONDITION.

WASHINGTON, March 8.—The condition of ex-Representative Taubee has changed for the worse. At midnight his symptoms were alarming and the greatest apprehensions are felt as to the result.

REMOVING THE KANSANS.

LAWRENCE, Kan., March 8.—There has been some trouble brewing at Haskell institute between Superintendent Neasary and the Kansas employes. Upon his arrival last October the new superintendent found nearly all of the employes Kanans.

PREPARING TO ENTER THE STRIP.

GUTHRIE, Ok., March 8.—A restless feeling has been seen among the boomers and today it was learned that the boomers have commenced a secret understanding to enter the Cherokee strip on April 22. The president's proclamation ordering the cattle off the strip has made them believe that if they go there in great numbers the administration will not interfere. Parties are arriving here to make the entry from the south and large numbers are daily arriving at Arkansas City, which is only four miles north of the line.

ADJUDGED INSANE.

Carl McClintock, the Wife Murderer, of Unsound Mind.

LAWRENCE, Kan., March 8.—This afternoon Carlton A. McClintock, Siber, this county, was tried before a jury in Judge Norton's court on the charge of insanity. This is a particularly sad case, as the man comes of a good family. When 6 years old he was injured by a severe blow on the head, which caused insanity. About three years ago McClintock shot and killed his wife in Wichita. He came nearly being hanged by a mob, but escaped by shooting himself. He was sent to the penitentiary, and after serving three years was pardoned by Governor Humphrey. He had been staying on the farm of his father near Sibley since that time, but becoming insane, the family thought, after three years, he was brought to the city this afternoon. The jury decided that McClintock was of unsound mind, and recommended that he be confined in an insane asylum.

GOING TO WASHINGTON.

Chief Mayes Summoned to Appear Before the Senate Committee.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 8.—Joseph H. Mayes, chief of the Cherokee nation, was here today on his way to Washington, where he had been summoned to appear by the government. In an interview the chief said: "I have been summoned by telegram to go at once to Washington and appear before the special senatorial committee on the five civilized tribes of North American Indians, to which is referred the Cherokee question. Senator Butler is the chairman of the committee, and from him the telegram came. I will leave for Washington tonight, and shall meet the committee probably Wednesday or Thursday of next week. What the committee wants with me I can not tell you."

UNEASY BARONS.

Indian Agent Wood Will Prevent Grazing Leases in Future.

ARKANSAS CITY, Kan., March 8.—Today the cattlemen are in feverish excitement. Immediately after the issuance of the president's proclamation ordering them to remove their cattle from the Cherokee strip they began to negotiate for leases on the several Indian reservations in the territory. Some have consummated their leases and paid large sums of money to the Indians. The uneasiness of the cattlemen is caused by the following order issued today by the agent Wood to a cattlemen agent which is in accordance with his instructions received from T. J. Morgan, commissioner of Indian affairs at Washington: "I am authorized by the honorable commissioner of Indian affairs, dated Washington, March 5, 1890, to allow no arrangements to be made by any cattlemen or others to treat with the Indians for lands for grazing purposes upon any reservation, until such a charge and if that if any attempts are made to force cattle upon any of these reservations, I shall at once instruct the police to drive the cattle off of the reservation."
