SERVICES APPRECIATED.

Mr. H. S. Givler, Wa-Keeney, Kansas.

RANSOM, Kan., November 16, 1897.

HIGHLY HONORABLE AND MOST PUSSANT SIR:—Permeated with the spirit of the most abject adoration, I am enthralled by the keenest desire to congratulate you upon the magnificent improvement made in the latest issue of THE WORLD which I received yesterday. Even the paid locals and the patent medicine ads appear to have shared of the prevailing splendor.

We have for a right smart period appreciated your arduous efforts in bringing THE WORLD 'way up above the standard of your adversary and proudly maintaining its pre-eminent superiority, but I did fully, freely, thoroughly and unreservedly catch on to a competent, comprehensible comprehension of your undoubted transcendent ability to adorn and beautify the blessed beautitudes of the people's paper until WE had seen it. Notwithstanding that I entertained this disloyal sentiment, WE were possessed by a profound presentment that the powders of journalism were pent up and that the squeaking matrix could not much longer contain the detergent detonation. I humbly beg to enquire if WE are correct in my surmise.

We crave permission to extend a personal tribute of sincere gratitude for the ceaseless, vigilance and untiring zeal you have manifested in defense of the party of all peoples which I believe is now courageously governed by the noblest porpoises.

WE had been informed that THE WORLD was squelched. Allow me to felicitate you upon the fact that it is not a fact. WE congratulate you that the several separate and distinct hemispheres of THE WORLD still rotate in the accustomed orbit. I congratulate you that you did not succumb to the auriferous onslaught of honest, honorable "old Abe." WE are glad to note that your general appearance is radiant with iridescent beauty and that your special features are still intact and most especially that the haw side of your southwest quarter is a scintillating triumph. May THE WORLD live long and execute many carabolic curves athwart the ambient environment. Selah!

I. R. JOKIN.

We clip the following from The Independent of last week. We take the liberty to change just one word in it which was absolutely necessary to make it truthful and consistent with well-known facts and give it any point whatever:

The election is over and the animosities engendered during the contest should now be laid aside. There were some attacks made upon the RE-PUBLICAN candidates that were wholly inexcusable and the more the case is thought over the more disreputable appears the course of the men (?) who conducted those features of the campaign. The charges were willfully and knowingly false. But it is over now and we will draw the mantle of charity over the prosecutors taking it for granted that they did know how to conduct a campaign on the broad platform of political principles.

One of our "scandalous inventions" which we did not originate, but did publish before election, has already proven true. The Independent has changed hands, or, rather, changed one initial letter, from W. C. to W. L. Olson and A. H. Cox as proprietors. In the light of known facts, already published, that change of one letter is about the only difference any observant reader will expect. However, we give the "mantle of charity" a tremendous yank in the direction of our contemporary and sincerely hope to see it "burst forth in deathless triumph," etc., etc., ad libitum, ad nauseam.

THE COUNTY HIGH SCHOOLS.

From the Western School Journal.
 The Atchison county high school is situated at Edlingham. J. W. Wilson is the principal. Every township in the county was represented in the school last year. This year a business department has been opened. Prof. George W. Richardson, a competent teacher, recently from New York, has charge of the department of music. Students from other counties are admitted, but these of course are required to pay tuition.

The Sumner county high school is at Wellington, and was opened in September. The enrollment has already reached 262, and 28 of the 30 townships in the county are represented. Every student, it matters not what course he or she may be pursuing, is required to take two lessons each week in orthography, vocal music, and elocution. Thos. W. Butcher is the principal of the school. His assistants are E. Kelly, Miss Maude Price, V. E. Creighton, Mrs. Clara Scott, and Miss Florence Wilson. Many of the students board themselves, and this reduces the costs for a year at the school to a small amount.

The Labette county high school is at Altamont. The enrollment this year is 162. Each of the 16 townships in the county has sent students every year since the school was opened, and one of the four most remote townships from Altamont sends 29 this year. This conclusively disposes of the objection that residents at a distance will not patronize the school. The total expense of maintaining the school is less than one mill on each

The three-year-old boy of J. A. Johnson, of Lynn Center, Ill., is subject to attacks of croup. Mr. Johnson says he is satisfied that the timely use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, during a severe attack, saved his little boy's life. He is in the drug business, a member of the firm of Johnson Bros. of that place; and they handle a great many patent medicines for throat and diseases. He had all these to choose from, and skilled physicians ready to respond to his call, but selected this remedy for use in his own family at a time when his child's life was in danger, because he knew it to be superior to any other, and famous the country over for its cure of croup. Mr. Johnson says this is the best selling cough medicine they handle, and that it gives splendid satisfaction in all cases. Sold by Jones & Gibson.

A. N. Johnson, the jeweler, has removed his shop to his residence in the east part of town. His patrons can leave work at the P. O. or call there for same.
