Government Crop Report and the General Outlook

CLIPS OFF JULY WHEAT

Corn an Equal Loser--Other Markets Decline.

Chicago, May 11.--Wheat dropped 1/4¢ today, July closing at 64 3/4¢. The reported splendid outlook of the coming crop throughout the southwest and government crop statistics were the main factors of weakness, which compelled liquidation.

JEFFRIES HAS IT YET

Round 18--Jeff tried two lefts for the body, but these were blocked. Then Jeff knocked Corbett to the floor with a right smash to the ear. Corbett got up like a flash, as if the fall had not taken any effect.

CORN AND PRODUCE MARKET.

Chicago, May 11.--The leading futures traded as follows: Wheat--No. 2 hard, 66 1/4 @ 67 1/4

CASH QUOTATIONS. Flour--Dull. Wheat--No. 2 spring, 66 1/4 @ 67 1/4

RECEIPTS AND SHIPMENTS. Flour, bulk, 14,000; wheat, 14,000; corn, 14,000

COTTON. Galveston, May 11.--Cotton quiet; 9 7/16c.

METAL MARKET. New York, May 11.--The market for metals was again weak with price variations...

STOCKS WELD AGAIN

Pressure of Liquidation Overbears Everything.

PRICES AT WEEK'S LOWEST

In Many Cases--Bank Statement Unfavorable.

New York, May 11.--The stock market succumbed as antidote to the pressure of liquidation, which effectively overbore what elements of strength showed in the early trading, wiped out yesterday's recoveries and carried prices down in many instances to the lowest of the week.

DRY GOODS MARKETS

New York, May 11.--There has been more inquiry for brown cotton for export today and one considerable transaction reported but through for China, but on a low-price basis.

DRY GOODS MARKETS

Round 19--Jeff tried two lefts for the body, but these were blocked. Then Jeff knocked Corbett to the floor with a right smash to the ear. Corbett got up like a flash, as if the fall had not taken any effect.
