

STOLE 700 POUNDS CHOP

Thieves Broke Into Banner Mills Tuesday Night.

HORSE, HARNESS, WAGON

Taken From Three Places to Haul Their Booty Away.

Two men robbed the Banner feed mill at 63 North Main street some time Tuesday night of 700 pounds of wheat and corn chop.

The horse belonged to a shoemaker living near the corner of Main and Murdock, and the wagon belonged to Mr. Myron Dean, who owns the grocery store at 52 North Main street.

Mr. Dean's stable was locked, so the thieves could not get in and get his horses, and there was no harness in the barn where the horse was found.

The mill is owned by Carter & Baxter, and yesterday they stated that the chop stolen would amount to about $15, besides they were greatly incensed.
