

COUNTY REFLECTIONS

BY SPECIAL REFLECTOR CORRESPONDENTS.

J. G. ENGLE Auctioneer

Public Sales a Specialty

Reference:
Any bank of Abilene, Kansas.

Phones:
Brown, 126; or
Acme Mutual.

Address:
Abilene, Kas.

DETROIT.

We understand that the Woodmen have purchased lots on the corner of Main street and are preparing to build a hall soon.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Volkman of Junction City were visitors at C. F. Klamms over Sunday.

John Lins is quite sick again. Prospects are favorable for a new store.

Miss Christina Klamms is visiting in Junction City.

Mrs. O. C. Tilton is visiting her mother and other relatives in Laredo.

Mrs. Dunlap is on the sick list. Mrs. Muenzenmayer and son of Junction City were callers in town Monday.

OAK CREEK.

Born Nov. 20, to Mr. and Mrs. Claude Probasco, a son.

Harvey Durrin has rented the McDonald place and will move in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Reel spent Sunday at Dan Bert's.

John Cartner and Lidi Derrick were married Wednesday evening. They will go to housekeeping on the groom's farm a mile and a mile north of Buckeye. Their many friends join in wishing them a prosperous and happy life.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Hoover spent Sunday with her parents.

Roy, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Mustard is quite sick with a paralytic stroke. Their many friends wish for his speedy recovery.

UPLAND.

Mrs. John Helms and Mrs. Herman were callers here Wednesday.

Upland was well represented at the lecture at Chapman Saturday night.

Dr. Greenlee and Geo. Dockhorn came up from Chapman to the turkey raffle last Friday.

The directors of the Golden Rule company held their semi-annual meeting here last Friday. Miss Margaret McFerren, one of our central girls visited relatives in Chapman Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Olson and A. H. Diehl of Chapman attended an insurance meeting at Belleville the first of the week.

Lorin Edwards and three friends came up from Oklahoma to husk corn.

Misses Etta Pillsley and Midge Edwards called on Margaret McFerren last Sunday.

Fam Sollenberger went to Clay Center Sunday to the love feast, taking a car load of Moonlight brethren with him.

The I. O. O. F. lodge will give a box social here in the hall November 26th for the benefit of the band. The band boys will furnish the music and all the ladies are invited to come and bring well filled boxes and be prepared to have a good time.

$25 REWARD.

The above reward will be paid for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person or persons who defaced the monument in my cemetery lot at Woodbine.

MRS. L. SCHWENDENER.
Abilene, Kan., Nov. 23, 1916. wif

BUCKEYE.

Mrs. E. J. Winsler left Saturday for Lawrence to visit her son, C. C. Winsler, then to Brookfield, Mo., to visit her sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Eye spent Sunday with his parents.

Mrs. George Haynes and her mother visited friends at Solomon last week.

Mrs. F. L. Blasi returned last week from her visit east.

Ray Lehr will shell his corn Wednesday.

Frank VanVoort was buying cattle in this vicinity Tuesday.

J. Blackburn of Salina took dinner with E. Hoyt Tuesday.

Quinn Haynes is husking corn for his father.

SOUTH DICKINSON.

A number from here attended the love feast in Abilene last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Boyce of Moonlight visited at W. G. Engle's over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Pitta spent Sunday at A. E. Reynolds's.

Maia Edith Hoffman is home after spending several days in Abilene.

Miss Addie Engle is spending the week at David Brehm's.

The funeral services of Andy Scheufele were held at the German Baptist church last Sunday afternoon.

The revival meetings at the M. E. church in Navarre continue all this week with Rev. Johnston of Chapman in charge.

CHAPMAN.

Francis Kirk is recovering from his serious illness of typhoid fever.

The teachers and students are back and ready for business again. All well except Miss Donica who is reported as having the grip.

John Sanborn of Towner was in Chapman this week visiting his relatives and friends.

Tom Scanlan is doing nicely. Ray Edwards was in Abilene Sunday.

The boys expect to go to Oberlin for a foot ball game this week. All the ones that were injured at Manhattan are reported as doing well.

UPLAND.

Miss Etta Marts is visiting her brothers this week.

The youngest child of I. E. Thomas is very ill with an abscess on his throat.

Leslie Pierce and Jesse Engle Jr. came up from Chapman to visit with relatives.

Frank Grigg, teacher in one of the Salina schools, spent Thanksgiving vacation with his brother Earl, at this place.

The band was treated by a full house Saturday night and the concert was enjoyed by all. The boxes sold fairly well, amounting to about $28.

Sam Sollenberger's attended the love feast at Abilene last Sunday.

Jim Shivers is the happy owner of a car, purchased at Junction City last week.

Mrs. John Aker has gone to Little River to visit a sick relative.

Walter Pierce's visited in Harvey county several days.

Mrs. Tom Dobbins is suffering with an attack of pleurisy.

Mrs. Bert Pierce was soliciting for a new organ for Zion church, getting nearly $80. That speaks well for Upland.

Little Donald Pierce found the can of lye Tuesday morning, getting his hands, tongue and lips pretty badly burned with it, but not swallowing any.

U AND I DOINGS.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bourlina and family visited a few days with Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Ross before leaving for their new home in Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Geoffroy, Mr. and Mrs. Hoffmel Sr. and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Korn and daughters visited Sunday at the Knerr home. The occasion celebrated Mrs. Geoffroy's birthday anniversary and Mr. and Mrs. Korn's wedding anniversary.

Miss Kate Lower of Kansas City and Harry Fritz of Abilene enjoyed a good dinner on Sunday at the home of Levi Taylor.

Harley and Ernest Ross spent Friday night with Whitney Wagner.

Mrs. Edward Webb is suffering

We pay the highest cash price for

Hides

We make a special low price of

Dressed Beef AND Dressed Pork

by quarter or side.

J. A. WAYTS & SON

O. C. TOLBERT Auctioneer

Farm and Live Stock Sales.

My references are those for whom I have worked. If I can't deliver the goods I ask no pay.

Address: ABILENE, KANSAS

with a very sore hand caused from getting a splinter in one of the fingers.

Mariott and Edith Grice, Alice Jackson and Ray Geoffroy were invited to spend Sunday with the Linn young people.

Miss Alice Betz was up from Chapman over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor and Mr. W. S. McCulloh had quite an experience on Saturday afternoon in rescuing one of Mr. Taylor's cows from drowning. While drinking at the river side the cow in some way lost her footing and was unable to regain it. When discovered she was lodged in the mud on the opposite side of the river. She was towed back across the river by Mr. Taylor but it took a long time to get her up the bank. It was a very hard afternoon's work but it was worth about sixty dollars to Mr. Taylor.

Mr. Holroyd is having his turn with ill luck. One thing after another has happened but the climax was reached last week when he had the misfortune to break his collar bone. Mr. Holroyd is finding out what it means to have good neighbors. On Tuesday a number of men went there and husked corn.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Knerr and family spent Thanksgiving with Mr. Knerr's parents, who live in Abilene.

Mr. John Landis received his new Maxwell automobile on Wednesday.

Adin Webb is up from Lawrence to spend the Thanksgiving holidays.

Levi Taylor and family and D. W. Taylor and family of Detroit, H. A. McCulloh and Miss McCulloh, and E. A. Blackman of Salina spent Thanksgiving at John Taylor's.

Friday afternoon some boys who were out hunting on Fred Geoffroy's farm in some way got a fire started and it took some quick work on the part of the neighbors to get the fire out before it spread to the adjacent corn fields. After the fire was put out the sheriff and some of the men went hunting for the guilty parties. These boys are from town and will probably be severely punished.

Mr. Geoffroy lost some hay stacks and all of his kaffir corn heads. Any one found hunting on the farms in the U and I neighborhood without permission of the owners will be arrested. The farmers around here are determined to protect the quail. Hunters will do well to stay away from this neighborhood.

Little Mary Elizabeth Cray has been on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. McCulloh are visiting their son, Rev. Otho McCulloh, and family, of Baldwin Kansas.

Mr. and Mrs. George Craley are the proud parents of a daughter born Nov. 28.

HOLLAND.

Mrs. Nolf and children of Bennington spent Thanksgiving at J. W. Miss Daisy Tolbert and Mr. Clark of Chapman visited at Roy Kauffman's.

Salome Jury is on the sick list.

Mr. Parker Hawley, Mrs. A. S. Hawley of Geneseo, and Mrs. Hawley of Wichita, spent Thanksgiving at C. W. Bell's.

Amos Deesty has been on the sick list.

Pink Jordob was in town.

Mrs. Shetter and Anna spent several days with friends at Skiddy and Pleasant Hill.

LANEY DISTRICT.

The D. C. H. S. students came home Wednesday for a few days' vacation.

Miss Esther Ploeger and friend of Enterprise, spent Thanksgiving with the former's sister, Mrs. H. B. Parker.

Mrs. M. E. Whitney spent a few days in Talmage last week caring for her mother who has been sick.

John Whitney and Fred Washell

Interesting Demonstration

All Day Friday and Saturday, Dec. 2 and 3

We will have a lady demonstrator at our store showing the

White Lily Electric Washing Machine

This is a wonderful machine and worth coming miles to see.

You can do your washing in one hour for less than two cents. Electric cord can be attached to any light socket.

The same washer can be attached to a gasoline engine for use outside of the city where there is no electricity.

YOU ARE CORDIALLY INVITED TO ATTEND
THIS DEMONSTRATION WILL SURPRISE YOU

MINICK & TAYLOR

marketed corn Wednesday.

There will be an entertainment given at the Talmage hall Wednesday evening, Dec. 7th, under the auspices of the Epworth League, consisting of music, readings, etc. Everyone come and bring your friends.

Rev. Crippen and wife took supper with Miles Hutt's Wednesday.

S. A. Romberger's spent Sunday at Mr. Staehli's.

Elmer Whitney came up from Lawrence Thursday to spend Thanksgiving with home folks.

TURKEY CREEK.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Markley and family attended love feast at Abilene on Sunday.

Miss Clara Tagler was a Sunday visitor at Chas. Anderson's.

Miss Sophia Richardson is on the sick list.

Mr. Kilmer and family of Salina were Sunday guests of Mr. Berton Lay's.

Mr. John Olsen spent Sunday at home.

Mr. Byers and family spent Sunday with Mr. Johnson's at Detroit.

Miss Hazel Eytman enjoyed her Thanksgiving vacation at the home of her cousin, Miss Gladys Holland.

Miss Ida Bohannon who has been a recent guest of her sister, Mrs. George Lay, and family, returned to her home at Salina.

Mr. and Mrs. Warner's and other relatives took Thanksgiving dinner with Mr. Steele's.

Mr. and Mrs. Slama and Mr. and Mrs. Harness who pleasantly surprised P. M. Nemecek and family on Thanksgiving evening, departed Monday for their homes in Humboldt, Neb. The party came overland, a distance of one hundred and sixty miles, making the trip in the former's Reo tourist in less than six hours.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Cole, Miss Edna Westover and brother, Ira and Milton Cole attended the social at Johnson school last Thursday.

Mrs. Castiline and grand-daughters, Sophia and Lydia Richardson, returned on Sunday from a visit with relatives in Junction City.

Boyd Clay Lulu and Lillie Nemecek attended the program and basket social at Banner City Wednesday.

Messrs. Joe, George and Charley Haslour were at home over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Slama, Mr. and Mrs. Harness and Mrs. Nemecek and daughter, Pearl, were guests of Mrs. Waterman and daughter, Miss Anna, of Chapman on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Westover and family were pleasant Sunday visitors at Mr. Harshbarger's.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Anderson entertained a large number of friends and relatives on Thanksgiving day.

Louis Haslour had the misfortune to break one of his fingers.

Mr. and Mrs. Tucker were guests of their daughter, Mrs. Lulu Funk, on Thursday.

Corn husking in this vicinity has almost drawn to a close.

RHINEHART.

Mrs. Converse of Colorado is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Taylor.

Mrs. Mary E. Reed of Lee Angeles is visiting Mrs. W. H. Hollinger.

Miss Beaulieu and Arthur Hoffman of Enterprise spent Sunday visiting with friends here.

Misses Irene and Ruth Taylor and Mr. Raymond Hollinger were Manhattan visitors last week.

John Sanborn of Towner, Colo., was calling on friends here Saturday.

Lyon and Byron Taylor returned to Manhattan Monday.

Clay Blackweiser was a Chapman visitor Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hollinger of Salina have been visiting at the W. H. Hollinger home.

ZION.

A number from Zion attended the ministerial meeting and love feast at Abilene.

Miss Ella Wenger returned to M. G. Engle's on Thursday evening after spending about a week with her sister, Mrs. Parish, near Peabody.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Cross of Cincinnati, Ohio, visited with their uncle's, J. P. Cross', leaving for home last Friday.

Alvin Gish is staying at M. G. Engle's.

Elmer and Clarence Cross returned home last Wednesday from Canada where they both have taken up claims. They report favorable there. They have rented their farms for a year and may perhaps go on to Florida.

Elder M. G. Engle and wife expect to leave next Tuesday for the west. Elder Engle is expected to conduct a revival at the Brethren church at Upland, California.

Clarence Stoffer went to Ellis last week to see his brother-in-law, Mr. Ismitt. Mr. Ismitt is fireman for a railroad and had the misfortune of falling. We are glad to report that he is improving. He accompanied Mr. Stoffer home on Friday, returning again to his place of work on Sunday night.

Rev. Snively of south Dickinson preached at Zion Sunday.

Austin Miller went to Hope Saturday on business, returning home on Sunday.

Mrs. J. H. Wagaman spent Sunday night in Abilene.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Ketterman and little daughter, Lucile, and Miss Edith Frey and brothers, Christ and Lawrence, spent Thanksgiving at the later sister's, Mr. and Mrs. Ino. Engle at Talmage.

Miss Edith Zook stayed with her sister, Mrs. Austin Miller on Saturday night.

NEWBURN.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Lenhart and family spent Thanksgiving at Jacob Longnecker's near Pearl.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Willes of Chambersburg, Pa., are staying with her parents, S. H. Lenhart's.

Last Friday night Miss Bell and Allice Betz had a pleasant surprise by a number of their friends.

D. S. Engle's attended the Thanksgiving meeting at Belle Springs.

The gospel meetings at St. James church are well attended.

Miss Elva Engle who has spent a few weeks in Abilene returned home. Farmers are about all done husking corn in this vicinity.

The Knox school which has been closed for nearly a week was opened again Monday morning.

Mrs. Nancy Lenhart and Lizzie Lenhart spent Thanksgiving at George Lenhart's.

Quite a number from this vicinity attended the love feast in Abilene Saturday and Sunday.

George Lenhart is shredding corn fodder this week.

BUCKEYE.

J. Adams is repairing his house. Mrs. G. Haynes had a Thanksgiving dinner. Those present: Mr. and Mrs. Morris Haynes of Junction City, a brother of G. Haynes, Mr. and Mrs. O. Fink and Mr. and Mrs. S. Haynes and son.

Mrs. Ella Mahler arrived at her home, Eagle Butte, Dakota, safely and likes the country.

Roy Lehr's spent Sunday evening with G. Bradley's.

Henry Coffenberger's had a Thanksgiving dinner. Those present: Mr. and Mrs. Len Ingall, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Houghland, Mr. and Mrs. John Middleton and Mrs. G. Bradley and son, Mr. N. C. Reed and Sheridan.

E. E. Stone threshed kaffir corn Monday.

Mr. Webber's took dinner with J. Mark's Sunday.

W. H. Cook's spent Sunday with P. E. Sommers.

Clyde Hinkle left Monday for Topeka to study telegraphy.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Skinner from near Nebraska City visited last week with F. L. Blasi's. They formerly were neighbors in Illinois.

H. B. Lehr's had a Thanksgiving dinner. Those present: Rev. Dr. Blainey and Miss Martha Blainey, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Beck, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lehr.

About forty of John Middleton's neighbors surprised them Wednesday evening by coming with well filled baskets to take supper with them. All report a fine time.

Mrs. Emma Frey writes her sister, Mrs. S. Grove, from Guangs, Africa, the last of October. They were just getting fresh strawberries.

The Misses Grove took dinner with their sister, Mrs. Ira Hoskin Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Hinkle gave a party Wednesday evening in honor of their son, Clyde about thirty-five being present.

Mrs. S. Grove took her daughters, Grace and Helen, and Grace Patten back to D. C. H. S. Monday.

Ira Hoskin butchered a beef for Mrs. C. Patten Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Burkholder, N. B. Martin and Mr. and Mrs. E. Hoyt took Thanksgiving dinner with Price Burkholder, his mother and aunt.

WOODBINE.

Prof. Wm. Oiler conducted a quarterly meeting at Lyons last Sunday.

Aug. Krause and wife were in Junction City over Thanksgiving with their daughters.

Wm. Lueker and wife were in Kansas City and visited relatives.

Herman Oesterreich was in Herington last Monday on business.

Wm. Ploeger, wife and baby and Miss Minnie Oikoff of Kinsley, are visiting here with friends and relatives.

J. C. Nuss and family moved to Liberal, Kansas, last week. Mr. Nuss has a fine position there in a hardware and implement business.

J. L. Sternberg made a short visit in Newton recently.

Wm. Abrams of Enterprise was here on a visit with relatives.

Miss Ruth Muenzenmayer and her sister May were visiting in Detroit a few days.

Henry Brehm and family have relatives from Harvard, Neb., visiting them at the present time.

Fred Krause of Oklahoma was here on a short visit.