TAKE CARE OF THEIR COLLARS.

Daily Care Will Keep the Horses Working Full Time.

See that each horse's collar is clean each morning before putting it on. Prevention is worth the proverbial amount of cure and consists in carefully fitted collars. The use of pads is largely a matter of choice. We have made it a rule to use pads only with the smaller and lighter collars when used in heavy work. Galled shoulders frequently result from the use of a sweat soaked pad or one wet in a heavy rain. Careful washing of the shoulders with some antiseptic solution during the first few days of early spring work toughens the skin, lessens the action of the sweat glands in that region and gives many a faithful horse relief from the daily torture of a sore shoulder. Sore neck in horses is due usually to one or two causes; a short collar or two great weights coupled with the side motion as noted in a two-wheeled vehicle. A horse can carry quite a heavy weight on the neck provided there is no jerking sidewise.—A Farmer.

Coburn's Biennial Report, Wakefield, Kan., April 19.—I shall be pleased to have the names of any of the Twenty-Second District who desire a copy of Secretary Coburn's last biennial report. This copy is up to the usual interesting standard of Mr. Coburn's reports and will be forwarded postage paid while the supply lasts.

Bureka School.
Report of district No. 88 for the month ending March 24: Boys enrolled 19, girls 12, total 21. Those perfect in attendance were Leola Lay, Wallace Lay, Grace Nemecek, Hazel Ertman, Grace Henry and Redger Frank, Ella Olsen, Emmert and Josephine Johnson, Tardy but not absent, Mildred, Robert and Walter Lay. Not absent during the year, Robert Lay; not tardy, Leola Lay. School closed March 24. A dinner was given by the patrons and friends of the district after which a program was rendered by the pupils. A good sized crowd was in attendance.—Lulu V. Nemecek, teacher.

Card of Thanks.
We desire to publicly express our sincere thanks to the many kind friends and neighbors who assisted us by their loving service during the illness and death of our beloved wife and mother. (Also for the beautiful floral offerings.—S. Cassat and family.

Pleasant View's Last Day of School.
At about 1 o'clock between 85 and 75 people were gathered at the school house. Between 1 o'clock and 3:15 a good program was rendered. After the program ice cream and cake were served during which the Pleasant View band played many nice pieces. This proved to be a day of surprises. In the first place the pupils and visitors were surprised by the refreshments. Then the teacher, Miss Grace Van Scoyoc, having been thoroughly surprised by the band boys playing for them, was still further surprised when she found herself the recipient of a beautiful clock from the band boys as a token of their appreciation for the use of the school house twice a week for practice during the school term. All appeared to have a good time.

WELL KNOWN KANSAN DEAD.
J. T. Thompson of Herington, Banker and Stockman.
Herington, April 12.—J. L. Thompson, a well known Kansas banker and stockman, died here Tuesday morning. He has been in ill health for about seven months.
Mr. Thompson was at one time president of the First National bank of Herington. He was a successful farmer and stockman and owned considerable property in Central Kansas. He was a perfect type of the prosperous Kansas farmer. He lived just outside of Herington in an immense country home.
