SEASON OF ADVENT.

The ecclesiastical year began last Sunday, the first Sunday of Advent. Advent in the Liturgy of the Catholic church is the season of preparation for the festival of Christmas.

PUBLIC AT SEA.

The coal operators assert one thing and the striking miners another about the present coal situation, but the public is still in the dark as to the real trouble because of the incomplete statements from both sides.

MOVIE RELIGION.

Finding that his congregation wouldn't come to hear him preach the gospel Rev. R. Ernest Akin, pastor of the First Unitarian church of this city, has introduced movie pictures as a drawing card, and the daily press reports that 800 people, or three and a half times larger than the usual congregation, were present Sunday night for the show.

TURN THEM BACK.

Preparation for turning the railways of the country back to private management at the beginning of the year are going forward. The change will not be welcomed in all quarters, but we believe it is the wisest thing to do.

MINERS' DEMAND.

Since the signing of the armistice, last November, the soft coal miners of the country have averaged twenty-two hours' work a week. This was not the fault of the miners. We do not know with certainty that it was the fault of the operators.

SEEKING A COMPROMISE.

Administration leaders give assurances that the peace treaty, which failed of ratification in the Senate, will again be introduced at the regular session of Congress and ratified with moderate reservations.

first demanded unqualified ratification. The big question that will come before the Senate is not whether there shall be reservations. That point is settled. How far the reservations shall extend is still to be determined.

ATTENTION

Robert Emmet Branch, Friends of Irish Freedom, will hold its regular meeting at Bertrand Hall, 1122 South Sixth street, Tuesday, December 9, at 8 p. m.

All sympathizers with the Republic of Ireland in its now critical hour are asked to attend. Doors open for all.

The United States in our own affairs must be maintained at all costs, and we must not bind ourselves to maintain and perpetuate national injustices through the league. If those who drew up the instrument are not satisfied with that, we should stay out of the league altogether.

There is no mistaking now the attitude of the country in regard to the proposed League of Nations and the peace treaty. Even those who were staunchly in supporting the President's demand for ratification without any reservation are now advocating compromise.
