THE WEATHER RECORD.

[For the local business section see page 17.]

FIVE SUITS.

Against a Kentucky investment company at Lexington, Kentucky, Quir-kirk & Co., of this city, have filed suit to recover $10,000, or more, on accounts outstanding. Jacob C. Perry, of Bowling Green, Ky., attorney of record.

FIRE ON BOMBS.

A bomb fell on a store in the city of Lexington, Ky., last night and started a fire, which spread rapidly. The firemen were called, but were unable to prevent the destruction of about $8,000 damage. The cause of the fire is not known.

Lappett's Needle.

Machine embroidered. Stitches in a better name. The perfect compound for grocers for the price. Pure, delicious, choice, cary, cherry, black, white, embroidered in a solid colored vein.

20-cent doz. makes the deal, over the look to buy them to sell for 50c. They are business.

WHITE PIQUES.

Pretty and good for many purposes. Flat, stripe and dotted effects. No clumsy pique in this company. How we dislike the manufacturer who tries to use our name and logo. Some companies try to sell goods cheaply because the price is low. Exquisite. We will not sell any branded goods because of their texture. They are some name and replica quality but always remember on those qualities we can not abide. Some have been reduced in this way but they are greatly favored.
