ALEX. BOYD KILLED.

Attacked Policeman Wallace Last Night and Was Fatally Shot, Dying in a Few Minutes.

Alex. Boyd, colored, was shot by Policeman J. P. Wallace shortly before 8 o'clock last night, and died a few moments later, on the pavement in front of O. H. P. Thomas & Co.'s grain warehouse, at the southwest corner of Third and Sutton streets.

The City Council was in session, and shortly before the trouble occurred, Mr. Wallace, who had left the Council Chamber only a few moments before, was near the corner of Court and Third streets when Boyd came along and accosted him. The officer approached and seeing Boyd was drunk placed him under arrest and started to take him to jail.

Boyd resisted, and when just west of the warehouse named above he pulled a bottle of whisky from his pocket and dealt Wallace a blow, breaking the bottle and drenching the officer with the contents.

Wallace warned the negro to stop and keep back, and fired a shot in the air thinking this would frighten Boyd into submission. The negro, however, kept fighting, and pulling something from his hip-pocket started toward Wallace. The latter again warned him back, but Boyd heeded not. He seized the officer by the throat and Wallace then turned his pistol on the man, firing four or five shots in quick succession. Boyd fell to the pavement and died in less than five minutes.

Chief of Police Donovan was in the Council Chamber when the shooting commenced and was soon at the scene of the trouble. Wallace handed over his pistol to the Chief and was taken to the Police Judge's office. Later he was ordered by Judge Newell placed in the custody of the Chief to await his examining trial.

Coroner Wood took charge of the body of Boyd and had it removed to Means' undertaking rooms, where the inquest was held this morning at 9 o'clock.

Boyd is a brother of Steve Boyd who was shot and killed some years ago under the C. and O. viaduct at the foot of Wall street. Enos Barnes, a Washington negro, was convicted of killing Steve, and served ten years, when he was pardoned on the statement of Dr. Paris Wheeler that a man named O'Brien had confessed that he killed Boyd.

Alex. Boyd was married, but had not been living with his wife. He had been working for some time about Pfeiffer's saloon on Market street.

The inquest had not been concluded when the BULLETIN went to press.

GOT HIS WATCH.

A Cabin Creek Young Man Brought a Chicago Pickpocket to Time Last Week.

A young man from Cabin Creek, who was in Chicago last week during the G. A. R. encampment, had the misfortune to be relieved of his watch by a pickpocket. He missed the watch immediately and looking around saw the thief running and started in pursuit.

The Kentuckian chased his man two squares and into a saloon, catching him just as he went behind the screen. He then asked very politely for his watch, after he had stood the pickpocket on his head and mopped up the amber from the saloon floor with him. The pickpocket said he didn't get it, claiming that another man had the watch, whereupon the gentleman from Cabin Creek remarked that he was from Kentucky and would give him just three seconds in which to prepare for death or deliver the watch.

The watch was handed over and the thief was then set up on the proper end and advised not to try to rob a Kentuckian again.

DR. LANDMAN will be at the Central Hotel Thursday, September 6th.

Trusts

Generally control the markets, local and foreign, which causes the consumer to bear the burden, for there is no competition. The firm who would secure the exclusive sale of any article of merchandise only do it so they can try and force the people to pay their price, which is higher as a rule, especially when the same article can't be bought in the community. We claim to be true friends of the people, and go into market, cash in hand, buying of the possible, for all classes; also Shirts, Underwear, Neckwear, Suspenders, Hats, Caps, Trunks and Valises. We claim that our business is closely watched as to expense. Therefore we do not care who handles the same merchandise as we do, even if it's of the same make; we would rather that they did, for we do and can sell for a closer margin of profit (and they know it; that's one reason they want to be exclusive) than any other firm in Maysville. We might mention that we are in a position to get any article under the sun in the way of Clothing, Hats, or Furnishings for man or boy, and will continue as ever to be the true friends of the people by selling good, clean, first-class merchandise of any make, a shade cheaper than those who would control our community.

Best Tailor-Made Clothing
