Of course the beef trust is not going to allow the duty taken off of hides as long as there is a Republican administration. If there is any part of an animal used by the trust that the latter does not get the benefit of, it has not yet been discovered. As Mr. Dooley puts it, "a cow goes lowin' softly to Armour's an' comes out glue, beef, gelatine, fertilizer, celoloid, joolry, soft cushions, hair restorer, washin' sody, soap, lithrachoar and bed springs so quick that while aft she's still cow, for-rard she may be anything fr'm buttons to panyma hats." The hide goes with the cow and the price of the cow is fixed by the packers' combine. Therefore the duty on imported hides is no protection to the man who raised the cow. All that it does is to enable the combine to charge a larger price for hides, which is added to the cost of shoes, and amounts to an unnecessary tax on the people. And the people have to foot the bill or go barefooted.

The Republicans of the State of New York, amongst other planks in their platform, adopted the following on the tariff:

We reaffirm our belief that the greatest national issue is the maintenance of prosperity, and we stand squarely for the integrity of the principles of a protective tariff. That principle is required to maintain the highest scale of American wages and the supremacy of the American workshop.

On the day following the convention the press dispatches from New York City announced that "an enormous crowd of men and women, estimated at 8,000, stood around a new department store seeking work at very low wages; so great was the crowd that a force of extra police was necessary to keep order." "The efforts of these poor people," remarks the Indianapolis Sentinel, "to get a chance for employment did not verify the Republican claim of prosperity, nor did the small amount of wages offered prove that protection had maintained 'the highest scale of American wages.'"

DONE WITH POLITICS

Until People Are Given Chance to Express Their Wishes—The Republican Machine.

Colonel F. C. Coles, of Ashland, Ky., President of the Ashland Coal and Iron Company, is at the Emery.

"I was a delegate to the Louisville convention," said he, "but I am out of politics now until the people have a chance to express their preference free from the domination of Federal office holders, who hold the whole thing in the hollow of their hand. They could not beat Bradley for delegate, he having 1,900 votes out of the 2,200 in the convention, but I thought the honors of the convention ought, at least, to have been divided with the old, tried and successful leader. He could not buck against the Internal Revenue machine, but he will second the nomination of Roosevelt at the National convention. Bradley is sincerely a Roosevelt man. Strange it was that the name of our late candidate for Governor, Colonel Morris B. Belknap, was not mentioned in the Louisville convention dominated by the same forces that nominated him last year. He occupied a lonely seat in the gallery. So soon are we forgotten in politics."

The Richie whose heirs are advertised for was a nephew of the late Dr. James Richie, a native of Washington, and a distinguished citizen of New Orleans for many years, having been Chairman of the first secession convention assembled in that city.

FOYNT BROS. are the only Maysville distillers selling pure liquors by the quart, gallon or barrel, direct from distillery to consumer. Seven-year-old whisky $2 per gallon. Age and quality guaranteed. Get the best. Office 126 Market street—Watson's old stand.

Pop Carr is a funny man. The late Bill Nye proclaimed him "A fountain of wit." When Ezra Kendall left the minstrel field the only person capable of taking his place was Pop Carr. He more than made good. Mr. Carr will appear in the first part of the Ted E. Faust Minstrels at the opera house on Monday, May 9th, as premier end man and also in the olio in his celebrated monologue. His talk is finished, very artistic and his songs are the talk of the day. Seats now on sale at Ray's.

SPRING FEVER.

[Pittsburg Chronicle.]

Same old thing,
Comes every spring,
It's late this year,
But it's here
Just the same.
Same weary frame,
Brain fog,
Legs that lag;
Don't want to walk,
Don't even want to talk.
Hate to work,
Would sooner shirk,
No aching bones,
No groans,
But just all-fired
Tired.
Want to loaf around
Where work can't be found,
Where there's nothing to do
But sit and view
The scenery,
The greenery,
And all the things that are spring's.
Want to be out somewhere
In the open air,
And hear the birds sing
As they swing
On twigs that oscillate
Beneath their weight.
Often wish
For a chance to fish,
If a stream could be found
Without covering much ground.
For it isn't hard to bait
A hook, and then just wait
For the fish to bite;
Even if they don't it's all right,
Because there'd be nothing to lug
Back home but the pole and jug.
Don't have to go
To a doctor in order to know
What has gone astray
When a fellow feels this way.
It's the spring fever sure,
And the only cure
Is to loaf to-day,
And the coming day,
And every other day,
Till it goes away.

Results of Small Sums of Money.

The following shows how easy it is to accumulate a fortune, provided proper are taken. The table shows what would be the result at the end of fifty years by saving at certain amount each day at the rate of 6 per cent:

Daily Savings.	The Result.
One cent.....	930
Ten cents.....	9,504
Twenty cents.....	19,008
Thirty cents.....	28,512
Forty cents.....	38,016
Fifty cents.....	47,520
Sixty cents.....	57,024
Seventy cents.....	66,528
Eighty cents.....	76,032
Ninety cents.....	85,536
One dollar.....	95,040
Five dollars.....	475,200

Nearly every person wastes enough in twenty or thirty years, which, if saved and carefully invested, would make a family quite independent; but the principle of small savings has been lost sight of in the general desire to become wealthy.

Maysville's New School Superintendent.

Superintendent D. S. Clinger of the Manchester Public Schools, a position he has filled for a number of years with credit to himself and perfect satisfaction to the patrons of the school, was employed by the Board of Education of the Maysville Public Schools upon the first ballot, notwithstanding the fact that there were forty-five other applicants. This flattering compliment to Superintendent Clinger time will prove is not misplaced confidence, as he will demonstrate to the people of Maysville, as he has to the citizens of southern Ohio, his splendid ability as an educator as well as gentlemanly bearing under whatever conditions.

The pastor Rev. H. T. Musselman will preach at the First Baptist Church at usual hours to-morrow. At night he will deliver the second of his series of sermons on Christ in the business world, subject "Christ and the Manufacturer." The Ithaca Concert Company will sing at the morning service.

A few of the Kentucky cardinals are to be seen in the county this season, and they are very beautiful in their bright and splendid plumage.

HYOMEI A RECORD-BREAKER.

Novel Method of Curing Catarrh—Sold on Approval by J. James Wood & Son.

The popularity and remarkable sales of Hyomei have broken all records. In nearly every city and town in the country, this guaranteed cure for catarrh has given most astonishing results.

The leading druggists are so enthusiastic over the remarkable percentage of cures following the use of Hyomei, that with hardly an exception, they advertise to their customers that Hyomei will be sold with the understanding that it costs nothing unless it cures.

In Maysville Wood & Son are endorsing it and guaranteeing to refund the money unless Hyomei cures catarrh. They have sold a great many Hyomei outfits, and to-day no other treatment for the cure of catarrh has as many friends in Maysville and vicinity as Hyomei.

It is a scientific, yet common sense method of treating and curing this too common disease. It sends by direct inhalation to every cell of the air passages in the head, throat and lungs, a balsamic air that destroys all catarrhal germs, purifies the blood with additional ozone, and makes a complete and lasting cure of any catarrhal trouble.

The complete outfit costs but $1, and includes an inhaler, medicine dropper and sufficient Hyomei for several weeks treatment.

You take no risk in buying Hyomei. J. J. Wood & Son positively guarantees to refund your money unless it cures.

Mosquitoes and Malaria.

Editor Bulletin: The warm weather has come and we shall soon have mosquitoes. Recent experiments and observations have conclusively settled the fact that malarial fever is the result of mosquito poisoning. It will be well therefore for the authorities and the inhabitants to take such measures as the latest scientific research suggest. All stagnant water should be covered with a thin coating of oil. A few barrels would suffice. There is no danger from the river or running water. The fish eat the eggs and larva. When such a little cost of work and money will save human suffering and valuable lives such work and cost ought not to be begrudged.

The inhabitants should look well to their premises. Water barrels, old tin cans and standing water of any sort are breeding places for these pests. After the heavy spring and summer showers all such water should be either covered or cleared away. Care and attention will rid the city of this danger to a considerable extent, and preserve the good health and low rate of mortality we now enjoy. Truly yours,

T. S. BUCKINGHAM.
