

Eighteen Years Since.
We hope we shall not be accused of treason for republishing for the benefit of all concerned, the following choice relic of the past:—Om. Day

[From the New York Tribune, June 1, 1845.]
CHRISTIANITY AND WAR.
If some pestilence were now raging in our South-western border, mowing down a hundred or two human beings per day, and threatening to overstep the land, what a profession of prayers, and fastings, and deprecations of God's wrathful justice would be heard from all our ten thousand churches! If news had but arrived that the inhabitants of the valley of the Rio Grande, no matter on which bank residing, were pining and dying for food, what thrilling appeals would be made to Christian benevolence through our newspapers! What meetings would be held to raise supplies of corn and cattle for our suffering dying fellow-men! Yet now, when we hear of hundreds recklessly slaughtered there—dying in agony and scorching thirst, their life-blood oozing gradually away into the burning sands, and their bodies tumbling hurriedly into holes like cannon, mobs assembling to shout and dance over the 'glorious tidings' and every ear is strained for more bulletins of butchery. We hear that the Mexican army is starving, after being subsisted many days on barley, corn and salt, in a region where fresh water is often a rarity and we think not or care not that when an army begins to starve the people must have starved already, and our patriots burrah 'That's right! Give it to 'em! Block up the mouth of the Rio Grande! Let them have nothing to eat! Humble them! Chastise them! Cut them down! Such is war—such is the devilish spirit which creates and is cherished by it. And what is our christianity, what is the church (in which term we include all organized societies of Christians) doing to arrest this complication of crimes and horrors?

Some of Mr. Chase's friends say that he 'resigned' the Treasury portfolio; but it is the better opinion that his case was like that of the Irishman who, on being asked why he joined the army, replied, "Be jabbers they forced me to volunteer!"—Hartford Times.

A 'NIGGER BULL'—We have heard of 'Irish bulls,' but the following 'Nigger bull' beats them all, and deserves a wide range in the jokes of the pastures. A negro preacher in Cincinnati, Ky., attracted to his church services by his eloquence, his loyalty, or his ebony congregation, a number of soldiers of miscellaneous proclivities, belonging to an Ohio regiment stationed there. Upon joining being called for, one of the 'miscellaneous' presented himself for church membership. The colored clergyman was not a little astonished, and said, "Brother, we can't you in this church; we take only colored folks. If you want to join meetin' you must go to Mr. _____'s church. He takes white folks." The soldier was considerably back set at damper upon his pious aspirations. A sympathizing colored member commiserating his discomfiture, cried out, "Brother Jilson, take him; take him; if he is a white man he's got a black heart!"

Fate of the Apostles.
Matthew is supposed to have suffered martyrdom, or was slain with the sword at the city of Ethiopia.
Mark was dragged through the streets of Alexandria, in Egypt, till he expired.
Luke was hung upon an olive tree in Greece.
John was put into a cauldron of boiling oil at Rome and escaped death. He afterwards died a natural death at Ephesus, in Asia.

James the Great was beheaded at Jerusalem.
James the Less was thrown from a pinnacle or wing of the temple, and the stones to death with a fuller's club.
Philip was hanged up against a pillar at Hieropolis a city of Phrygia.
Bartholomew was flayed alive by the command of a barbarous king.
Andrew was bound to a cross, whence he preached to the people till he expired.
Thomas was run through the body with a lance at Cordoba, in the East Indies.
Jude was shot to death with arrows.
Simon was crucified in Persia.

TRULY SWEET.—"When I am in pecuniary difficulties," said a pensive bankrupt, "my garden, my flowers, all fresh and sparkling in the morning, console my heart. 'Indeed!' asked his sympathizing friend.—"I should have thought they would have reminded you of your trouble, for like your bills, they are all over dew!"

WHAT WILL Mrs. GAUNDY SAY?—An exchange paper is jubilant over the fashion Empress Eugenie has lately set, and says her example will commend itself to the good sensible women. "She, upon a recent occasion, appeared in public with skirts shortened sufficiently to display the handsome richly ornamented garters worn by her." A modest bachelor says that the printer has evidently made a mistake; that garters—not garters—is hight of this new fashion.

Diarrhea AND FLUX.
STRICKLAND'S Anti-Cholera Mixture,
Is a composition of astringents, absorbents, stimulants and carminatives, which every physician acknowledges is the only preparation that will effect a permanent cure of Diarrhea and Dysentery. This Anti-Cholera Mixture is now in use in several of our army hospitals where it gives the greatest satisfaction. It has saved the lives of thousands of our soldiers and citizens, and we will guarantee it to be the best remedy in the world for Diarrhea and Dysentery.
Mr. Woods, of Covington, Ky., will be most happy to satisfy any one as to the virtue of Strickland's Anti-Cholera Mixture; in fact we have a great number of testimonials from patients who have been cured after being pronounced incurable by their physicians, some after taking only one bottle of Strickland's Anti-Cholera Mixture. If you suffer with Diarrhea and Dysentery try one bottle.

He might furnish a volume of certificates, but the public have long since learned to estimate such things at their true value. The safest plan is for every one to test for himself the virtues of a new medicine. Give the one trial, and you will never use any others. It is not necessary to publish a long list of diseases cured by the Cedron Bitters, as a specific in all diseases of the STOMACH, BOWELS, KIDNEYS, or LIVER;

In all affections of the BRAIN depending upon derangement of the stomach or bowels, such as GOIT, RHEUMATISM & NEURALGIA; And in FEVER AND AGUE;
It is destined to supersede all other remedies. It not only cures all these diseases but it prevents them.

A wine glass full of the Bitters taken an hour before each meal will obviate the ill effects of the most unhealthy climate and screen the person taking it against disease under the most trying exposures.

DR. JOHN BULL'S
COMPOUND CEDRON BITTERS!

The Latest and Most Important Discovery of the Nineteenth Century.

NO MAN'S NAME IS MORE INTIMATELY connected with the history of the Materia Medica of the United States, or more favorably known as a pioneer in medical discovery, than that of JOHN BULL, of Louisville, Ky. His inimitable preparation of Sarsaparilla has long stood at the head of the various compounds of that kind, and his Compound Eclectic of Wild Cherry has become a household word throughout the West and South; and his Worm Lozenges, in less than a year after their introduction, attained a reputation as widespread as the continent of North America. But the crowning glory of his life remains to be obtained in his latest discovery, or rather combination, for he does not claim to have been the discoverer of CEDRON, which is the basis of the Bitters now offered to the public. That honor belongs to the native inhabitants of Central America, to whom its virtues have been known for more than two hundred years. Armed with it, the Indian has recourse to the most deadly malaria, and handles without fear the most venomous serpents. It is a belief with them that while there is breath left in the body, the Cedron is potent to cure, no matter what the disease may be.

While Dr. Bull is not prepared to endorse this extravagant pretension, he is nevertheless satisfied from a thorough examination of the evidence relating to its virtues, that as a remedy and preventive for all diseases arising from exposure either to changes of weather and climate or to the miasmatic influences, it stands without a rival, and justly deserves the reputation it has so long enjoyed in Central America and the West Indies. In and its attendant train of symptoms, it acts more like a charm than a medicine. There is nothing in the whole range of the Materia Medica that can for a moment bear a comparison with it in this disease.

A full account of this wonderful plant may be found in the eleventh edition of the U. S. Dispensatory, pages 1287 and 1288. Dr. Bull has been for years engaged, and justly so, brought to a successful termination, and he is now enabled to offer to the public a combination of Cedron with other improved tonics, the result of his long experience in the preparation of medicinal whiskeys, which he is confident has no equal in the world.

He might furnish a volume of certificates, but the public have long since learned to estimate such things at their true value. The safest plan is for every one to test for himself the virtues of a new medicine. Give the one trial, and you will never use any others. It is not necessary to publish a long list of diseases cured by the Cedron Bitters, as a specific in all diseases of the STOMACH, BOWELS, KIDNEYS, or LIVER;
