Pic-Nic.
There will be a Pic-Nic in the Woods of Mrs. LLOYD, two miles east of the Fair Ground, on the Lewisburg dirt road, next Saturday, August 13th.

We call attention to the fact that the Teachers of Mason County will hold a meeting at the Court House, in this city, on Saturday next, August 13th, beginning at 10 o'clock, A. M. We are not informed of the object of this meeting, but think that subjects of importance will be discussed. It is earnestly desired that the attendance be large.

The rebels assert that they obtained about 1,700 recruits during their raid in Maryland.

Grant's army has not been paid for four months, and the troops in the West have been without money for six months.

The Annual Meeting of the Christian Church, will begin in this city on Thursday, August 18th.

The Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, will be held in Maysville, on Wednesday, Sept. 7th.

A nine months armistice has been agreed to at Vienna, between Germany and Denmark.

It is said that Postmaster General Blair contemplates retiring from the Cabinet.

They have news at Washington of the capture of General Stoneman and a portion of his command by the rebels.

The Chattahoochee is a small, shallow stream, fordable, at ordinary stage, at almost any point. The banks are lined with beautiful fringes of willow; and wherever the primitive forests still remain on the bank, the luxuriance of Southern foliage is seen in its first beginnings. Oaks, poplar, and beeches attain a gigantic size, and the leaves of the wild cucumber tree bush themselves out to the length of a yard.

Very destructive fires have been raging in the woods of Maine for some time past. On the 20th ult. the fire, fanned by a gale, swept upon the village of Salmon Brook and destroyed nearly the whole place—upwards of twenty-five buildings. Many sheep and cattle in the vicinity were also burned.

THE QUOTA OF BRACKEN.—The number of men required to be furnished by our neighboring county under the recent call is 158.

The number of vessels lost at sea during the month of July was thirty-three.—Of this number five were steamers, ten were barks, three were brigs and thirteen schooners. Of the above, nine were captured and burned; one captured, fate unknown; one sunk after collision; two foundered; two were burned and one is missing, supposed lost. The total value of the property lost destroyed, captured and missing, is estimated at $2,359,000.

REBEL PRISONERS.—It is estimated that the number of rebel prisoners of war received at the military Prison at Louisville since September, 1862, will amount to 32,000.—These prisoners were captured by our armies operating south of Nashville and in Eastern Kentucky.

The house in which William Penn and his family resided while they lived in Philadelphia was recently purchased by a citizen of that place, and will be demolished. The house was occupied by Penn in 1700, and in this house his son John Penn was born. It is now about 175 years old, and is the last relic of the Penn family.

The new opera house, in Paris, is raising its monstrous head day by day.—Imagine a theater which, with its dependencies, will cover eight acres of ground, and then imagine what it will cost.

HOW TO SUSTAIN YOUR LOCAL PAPER.—Subscribe and pay for it. Send your printing and advertising to the office.

Help make the paper interesting by sending items of local interest to the editor. Lay aside your fears that the editor will grow rich.

We have met the gentlest, mildest and palest ladies in public places, who, nevertheless, in their own homes, were like beautiful white roses, which prick as sharply as the fellest and the reddest.

Good Results.—A member of the 2d Wisconsin informs us that during the three years hard service that regiment has been in, it has, by official record, received from the Sanitary Fairs and funds of the country the enormous catalogue of goods, &c., as follows:
One Needle Case, 20 cts.
One Cotton Shirt, $1 60 cts.
Grand total, $1 80.

Let those who have insinuated that the soldiers never received anything from Sanitary Fairs, now hold their peace and silence their jaw.—Lacross Democrat.

Washington Correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer.

WASHINGTON, August 6, 1864

General Grant and staff arrived here this morning from City Point. General Hooker arrived from the West last evening. These notables are stopped at Willard's and have been, the greater part of the day, in consultation with the President and his Chief of Staff, Halleck, and Secretary Stanton. Before this reaches you it is probable you will have heard, by telegraph, something of the results of the conference now being held by these high officials, but up to the moment of writing this nothing is known of the purport of this convention nor of its deliberations. There are many conjectures, idle and unfounded, afloat, that I will not trouble you with. There is scarcely a doubt, however, that the statement in my last letter, that Hooker is to take command of all the forces north of the James and for the defence of Washington, is correct, though at nine o'clock this morning Gen. Hooker had not been advised of the purpose for which he was ordered here.

The Veteran Invalid Reserve Corps, sent their brass band in front of Willard's Hotel last night at 10 o'clock, to serenade General Hooker. After the band had played three or four pieces, and some two hundred persons had collected around, a call was made for Hooker, and he appeared at the window of his room. A speech was demanded and the General attempted to make one, but it was evaded at once that speech making was not his forte. He indicated his contempt for oratorical accomplishments, and said there had been enough speeches made since the war began to put down forty such rebellions as that we are now fighting. It was a great struggle for the gallant General to get through with his brief speech, and he must think the Chronicle, was poking fun at him when in its notice this morning, it said "In this part of his speech in which he (Hooker) taboored mere speech-making, he was unusually great in argumentation."

All the leaders and directors of the armies are now here, save Sherman and Meade.—This announcement is not contraband, because by the time this letter reaches you, all military chiefs will have joined their several commands. There is, at the moment I write this, a more numerous convention of military chieftains and staff officers in consultation with Mr. Lincoln, Gen. Halleck and Mr. Stanton, than has been brought together since the war commenced.

The disaster at Petersburg last Saturday, together with the threatening aspect of affairs in this vicinity and the Shenandoah Valley and north of it, have entirely changed the order of procedure, and it is believed by many who should, from their positions, know what is going on, that Grant will not return immediately, and perhaps not at all to City Point, but that Meade will be left in charge of that portion of the army which will be retained before Petersburg to hold the works. It is known that Grant is reluctant to give up, at this time, the attempt to take Richmond, because he has continually asserted that he would have the confederate capital before he returned with his army northward. He has promised that he will fight it out on this line if it takes all the summer, and you know we have only got through with two-thirds of the hot season, and he has only lost about two-thirds of his army.

HAMILTON.

NOTICE To the Tax-Payers of Mason County.

BY an act of the General Assembly it is made my duty, immediately after the 1st of June, to proceed with the collection of the public Revenue as speedily as possible. By the same act it is made my duty to report, at the July, September and November County Courts, the amount of taxes collected and pay the same over to the Auditor. I am authorized under said act to notify the Tax-Payers by public notice, at the Court House door, and in the different Precincts or districts of the County, that on certain days between the 1st of October, and the 15th of November, I, or my deputies, will attend at the place of holding election in such districts and receive their taxes. It is made the duty of the tax-payer to attend on such days and pay the same. If this is not done, after that date they will have to pay the same at the Court House; and, if not done there within the time prescribed by law, ten per cent. upon the amount is added. Thus it will be seen that it will be to the interest of the tax-payers to see to it that their taxes are paid, within the time prescribed by law, as after that time I shall invariably add the ten per cent. imposed by law, to their lists when I come to collect. This I shall be compelled to do as I shall have to advance the revenue due by such delinquents and enforce payment at once with the costs to reimburse myself. By paying attention to the matter and promptness, the thing will work first rate. The people have the same time as heretofore, within which to pay their taxes.—The only difference being, that they shall give the matter attention themselves and see to its payment at the times and places prescribed, instead of the old way of having the Sheriff call half dozen times, more or less, for their taxes.—The law is plain, simple, and to the point; and I intend to comply with its provisions and enforce its penalties, and this notice is given to call the attention of the people to it, so that no harm may be done any one, in consequence of their ignorance of the law. The time and place at which I, or my deputies, will attend in the different Precincts to receive taxes between the 1st of October, and the 15th of November, will be advertised by public notice stuck up as required by law. In the mean time, let every one pay up that can when called upon between this and the 1st of October, and the good account of the promptness of the people of the county may be reported to the auditor at the July and September terms of our Court. Respectfully,
H. S. JEFFERSON, Sheriff Mason Co.

According to the above, the Tax-Payers are notified that HENRY S. JEFFERSON, Sheriff, will attend at the following places, on the days named, to receive their taxes:
At Mt. Gilead, 14th and 15th days of October.
At Preston's, 17th day of October.
At Helena, 18th day of October.
At Maysville, 19th and 20th days of October.
At Sardis, 21st and 22nd days of October.
H. S. JEFFERSON, S. M. C.

CHARLES E. TABB, Deputy, will attend at the following places, on the days named:
Orangeburg, 7th & 8th of October, at W. H. Pollett's Store.
Lewistown, 11th and 13th of October, at Jno. Law's Store.
Washington, 15th and 14th of October, at H. W. Wood's Store.
Maysville, 15th and 17th of October, at the Clerk's Office.

PERRY JEFFERSON, Deputy, will attend at the following places, on the days named:
Dover, 11th and 12th of October, at R. T. Evans' Grocery.
Millsboro, 13th and 14th of October, at Capt. Whipple's Store.
Germanstown, 15th and 17th of October, at Jno. Lloyd's Store.
Washington, 18th and 19th of October, at Jno. Thompson's Grocery.
Maysville, 20th and 21st of October, at Thomas Daulton's Stable.

MULLINS & HUNT'S NEW WHOLESALE DRY GOODS STORE!

THE SUBSCRIBERS, LONG ESTABLISHED in a large retail Dry Goods business in Maysville, would call the attention of Country Merchants to their recent addition of an extensive Wholesale Department; which will be conducted on a STRICTLY CASH PRINCIPLE.

The many years of experience possessed by our buyer, combined with a perfect knowledge of the Kentucky trade, a thorough acquaintance with all the Manufacturing and Importing Houses in the East, and the fact of our purchases being made for "Cash," together with a firm determination to sell at a mere commission advance on Eastern Cost, will be sufficient guarantees to CLOSE CASH BUYERS that we cannot be undersold by any WESTERN JOBBING HOUSE.

Our Stock will be found better adapted to the wants of our customers than it is usual to find in the generality of JOBBING HOUSES; as it will embrace a greater variety of goods than is ordinarily met with in an exclusive Wholesale Establishment. The departments allotted to

HATS AND CAPS AND Notions,
Will be at all times especially attractive as particular attention will be paid to them, and a LARGE STOCK Kept constantly on hand. We would impress upon our friends that in sending us orders they may rely upon having them executed to the fullest extent of our ability.
