

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XXI.

STANFORD, KY., TUESDAY, MARCH 14, 1893.

NO. 4

LONDON, LAUREL COUNTY.

—W. B. Catching has returned from Washington and John Pearl has taken his sign down.

—Miss Montgrief was at the opera house Friday night with stereopticon views and lecture. Small attendance.

—Mrs. Sallie Leavell and little daughter, Wadie Lee, of Bryantsville, came to London Saturday and will visit relatives here this week.

—In the cases against Albert Yodl for retailing liquor brought up before County Judge Barnett last Monday, conviction was made in 3 out of 17, Judge W. L. Brown defending.

—John Chester, one of the twins of Dan Lovell, died Friday and was buried Saturday. The little one was a namesake of the writer, who regrets the death of the only one named after him, as no other but the parents can.

—The Brodhead band has an engagement to play at the Jackson opera house to-night, Monday. Your correspondent has been favored with complimentary, for which he is glad to thank K. M. Jackson, the owner of the opera house.

—Col. Frank B. Riley has almost given up his application for the United States marshaling of Kentucky, having returned from Washington City to-day without presenting his application. He says he was under more obligations to Congressman J. B. McCreary than any one else in Washington. He also said that Gov. McCreary kept open house for all Kentuckians and every one from this State was received cordially at any and all times.

—It is understood Mr. W. H. Hayward, our accommodating depot agent, and Miss Annie Ferrill will be married this week. Mr. J. D. Cozatt, formerly of Junction City, is holding down the office and the license has already been issued. Mr. Ed Melvin and Miss Amanda Moore will also be married before your paper comes out, if all signs and reports don't fail. May the good Lord bless and prosper them, is the wish of yours truly.

—The Louisville Times had hurtful headlines a few days ago, in which it mentioned the self-appointed ring of "original Cleveland men," who propose to dispense the democratic patronage of the State. The parties who have been selected, or who have selected themselves to do that work, for the 11th congressional district, were not Cleveland men before his nomination by a—sight, and the men they are endorsing for office in this district are being selected by them without any regard or consideration of the democratic county committees, who have done good work. The reason I mention the above is because I am chairman of Laurel county for the democracy and the result of the last election will show for itself whether or not my duty was done as compared with the work of my predecessors, and I think that the committeemen of every county who have done work for their party and have managed to assist in it should be considered in everything pertaining to the advancement of our party, if the members of the committee have done their duty.

THE LEGISLATURE.

—The Galloway bill, apportioning the State into seven Appellate Court districts, passed the Senate.

—The Senate passed the House bill to prohibit barbering on Sunday and the signature of the governor is all it needs to make it a law.

—Under the Galloway bill Lincoln county is put in with the following in the 5th Appellate District: Henry, Trimble, Carroll, Gallatin, Owen, Scott, Franklin, Bourbon, Fayette, Woodford, Garrard, Boyle, Jessamine, Madison, Mercer, Rockcastle, Clay, Jackson, Laurel, Owley and Knox.

Let us suppose that there is a highway between New York and Chicago on which a line of coaches is running. Now a coach leaves every morning and it takes 24 days to make the journey. After the line has been established for some time suppose you take a coach from New York some morning for a ride to Chicago, how many coaches would you pass before reaching your journey's end? Can you answer it?

The regard of women is generally much influenced by the estimation which an individual maintains in the opinion of men.—Scott.

'Tis beauty that doth oft make women proud;

'Tis virtue that doth make them most admired;

'Tis modesty that makes them seem divine.—Shakespeare.

When baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had children, she gave them Castoria.

DANVILLE.

—Levner & Hummelstone, furniture dealers, will next week move into the room on Main Street recently occupied by the Danville Democrat.

—E. H. Fox, photographer, is making handsome pictures of the D. & D. Institute buildings for Superintendent Argo, to be sent to the World's Fair.

—Squire Walker has moved into Zack Hughes' house, just East of Centre College, and Mr. Hughes has occupied the house Mr. Walker has been living in on Main Street.

—Mr. M. J. Farris received a telegram Monday from his agent at Fort Worth, Texas, informing him that his agent had sold 4,000 cattle for him. Mr. Farris left on the noon train to confirm the sale.

—Mr. F. G. Offutt has sold to J. T. Mock his quarter interest in the Mock farm, stock, &c., for close to $9,000. Mr. Offutt will probably go back to Simpson county, his former home.

—Ed Rowland has a banjo, a very fine instrument, with a silver plate on it, on which is the following inscription: "Presented to his Royal Highness, the Prince of Wales, by James Bohoe, the World's Champion Banjoist."

—Mrs. Allen K. Collins, formerly of Danville, died at home in Sherman, Texas, on the 3d inst. Her husband, two sons and a daughter survive her. Mrs. Collins was a good woman and is kindly remembered by many Danville friends. Before her marriage she was Miss Lewis, of Fayette county.

—The following was taken from the Kentucky Baptist of last week: "Danville.—Pastor J. W. Lynch baptized a young man last Thursday evening who gives promise of great usefulness to our church. We are sure that we have the finest preacher in Kentucky, and he is doing good work for us."

—About 104 o'clock Monday morning Mr. Frank Fox went into an outhouse on the premises of his brother, Mr. Monte Fox, and cut his throat from ear to ear with a razor, severing the windpipe. Drs. Haniap and Meyer gave him prompt attention and at 12 o'clock he was yet alive. Mr. Fox has been in bad health for a year or more and it is thought his mind became somewhat affected. Later—Mr. Fox died a few minutes after noon.

—Mr. Albert Edward Little, of Elma, Canada West, is visiting his uncle, Mr. George Lawrence. Mr. Addison Craft, of Holly Springs, Miss., an old Centre College man, was in town Thursday. Miss Sallie Worrell has returned from a visit to Chicago. As agent for the Cincinnati Southern Railroad, George D. Batterson, express agent of Danville, will sell tickets to nearly any spot in the United States. Mr. B. H. Perkins and family will soon remove to Middlesboro.

ONLY A BABY.

It was only a baby who died to-day,
Only a baby has passed away,
Leaving its hearth and home for aye.

"Only," they whispered, but did they know,
Aught of the silent killing woe,
That surged through the mother's heart? Ah no!

Only a baby, whose small white hands,
Will never be raised to her who stands
Bowed by her Master's stern commands.

Only a baby whose little feet,
Will never on earth make music sweet;
They have wandered away to a golden street.

Only a baby whose trusting head,
Will henceforth rest on a narrow bed,
Far down in the home of the silent dead.

Who hath sought a calm and beautiful rest,
Leaving its tender and coy nest,
For a place less warm than a mother's breast.

Only a baby, tiny and fair,
With the golden tint on its yellow hair,
Sleeping so calmly and peacefully there.

Only a baby, but she who has pressed,
The weal, cold form to her aching breast,
Knoweth the meaning of those words best.

Printed in affectionate remembrance of a loving wife, from her own selections.

Put To Flight.

All the peculiar troubles that beset a woman. The only guaranteed remedy for them is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. For women suffering from any chronic "female complaint" or weakness; for women who are run-down and over-worked; for women expecting to become mothers; and for mothers who are nursing and exhausted; at the change from girlhood to womanhood; and later, at the critical "change of life"—it is a medicine that safely and certainly builds up strength, regulates and cures.

It doesn't, if it even fails to benefit or cure, you have your money back.

What you are sure of, if you use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, is either a perfect and permanent cure for your Catarrh, no matter how bad your case may be, or $500 in cash. The proprietors of the medicine promise to pay you the money, if they can't cure you.

Rheumatism Quickly Cured.
Three days is a very short time in which to cure a bad case of rheumatism; but it can be done, if the proper treatment is adopted, as will be seen by the following from James Lambert, of New Brunswick, Ill.: "I was badly afflicted with rheumatism in the hips and legs, when I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It cured me in three days. I am all right to-day; and would insist on every one who is afflicted with that terrible disease to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm and get well at once." 50 cent bottles for sale by W. B. McRoberts, Druggist, Stanford, Ky.

Mother's Recommendation.
We are acquainted with many mothers in Centerville who would not be without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house for a good many times its cost, and are recommending it every day. From personal experience we can say that it has broken up bad colds for our children. Centerville, South Dakota, Citizen. 50 cent bottles for sale by W. B. McRoberts, Druggist, Stanford, Ky.

—Little Charlie Oain, of Brownstown, W. Va., got his father's big 44 caliber pistol and started to play soldier. The little fellow looked down the barrel for the ball and "he is up with the angels now!"

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

—The board of supervisors were in session Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

—If any one has found a street lamp lighted in Lancaster within the last two months he has certainly kept the matter very quiet.

—A special train came up from Rowland Sunday, bringing the lumber for the new building on the old opera house site.

—In the early part of May a young business man residing within the corporate limits of town, will lead to the hyemal altar one of Lancaster's prettiest and sweetest young ladies. We have this straight.

—Mr. Nelson Bardett met with a painful accident Friday afternoon. He was riding a young horse near the K. C. depot, when the animal became frightened at a passing train and throwing the rider to the ground, stepped on his left ankle, breaking both bones. He was removed to his room over Haselden's store and Dr. Kinnaid dressed the wound. He is resting easy and will be able to be out before a great while.

—Mrs. T. K. Hackley, of Danville, is here visiting friends and relatives. Mr. Bart Spencer has returned from the Louisville Commercial College. Mr. Tom Sevance, of Stanford, was here Sunday. Mr. John T. Baughman, of Richmond, was here Saturday and Sunday. Miss Maud Robinson is the guest of Miss Bessie Burnside. Mr. Homer Baughman, of Danville, visited his niece, Miss Nannie Sweeney Sunday. Miss Mamie Henry returned to Crab Orchard Friday. Miss Maggie Bright is visiting Miss Lizzie Thompson. Miss Nannie Evans, of Junction City, is visiting Mrs. W. B. Mason. R. H. Batson is in the East buying spring goods.

CRAB ORCHARD.

—Crab Orchard has a mattress factory and the manager, Mr. E. W. Lee, is turning out some of the nicest mattresses, and pillows we ever saw. He has every variety of material and is supplying the country with any kind of mattress desired. So if you are not resting well at night, he can show you how a good sleep can be obtained.

—Mr. W. K. Buchanan left Sunday for Somerset. Here's wishing him a prosperous trip, and speedy return. Henry Pettus left Sunday for Va., to engage in business. He is a steady, good boy, and we wish him success in his new home. Willie Myers and his sister Miss Minnie, of St. Louis, are visiting their grandmother Mrs. M. J. Harris.

—There was a parlor meeting of the W. C. T. U. at Mrs. W. T. Stephenson's Friday night. Opening song, "To the Work." Scripture reading; prayer. Recitation, "Social Department of Mothers' Meeting," with discussion on same; song "Bringing in the Sheaves;" recitation, "A Saddening Report;" song, "There are Lonely Hearts to Cherish;" recitation, "The Brain of the Battle;" song, "God be With You;" benediction. The next meeting will be with Mrs. W. K. Buchanan, Friday night, March 17th. Interesting programme and we invite all to meet with us.

—Misses Lizzie Beazley and Maud Pettus spent a few days last week in Lancaster, and Miss Hattie Henry returned with them. Misses Sallie Green and Bettie Higgins have returned from a pleasant stay in Somerset. They report that place as growing and were delighted with their visit. Little Sammie King, tells a good joke on them. Mrs. Kittie King leaves Monday for the cities, to purchase a stock of millinery. Our sick are improving, we are glad to note, and hope with fairer weather, all will be out. Mr. J. S. Fish and Birney left for Vincennes Ind., Friday where they will join the rest of the family and start for California this week.

—The president has nominated ex-Gov. Gray, of Indiana, to be Minister to Mexico; Patrick A. Collins, of Massachusetts, Consul General at London; Josiah Quincy, of Massachusetts, Assistant Secretary of State, and Robert A. Maxwell, of New York, First Assistant Postmaster General.

—The first postmaster named under the new administration was appointed Friday for Elora, Tenn. The first postmaster appointed under President Cleveland's first administration was in Tennessee, and both were made through the influence of Representative James D. Richardson.

—Fifteen years ago William Frits, then a comparatively young man, was express agent at Hawesville, and he got behind some $300 or $400 in his accounts. He suddenly disappeared and "Bill Frits' ghost" was quite a by-word in that town. It now turns out that he has been secreted in the attic of his mother's small house the entire time. He looks more like a ghost than a human and the more credulous believe that he has been raised from the dead.

Bucklin's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by A. R. Penny, Stanford, Ky.

HUSTONVILLE.

—Prof. M. G. Thompson, who has so creditably conducted Christian College at this place, is thinking seriously of taking charge of Daughters College at Harrodsburg.

—Mrs. America Bailey has a rocking chair which is over 100 years old. It is still in a good state of preservation and is used daily by that aged lady. She has owned it nearly 50 years.

—James Harper is back from Atlanta, where he did fairly well in the mule business. He gained so much corollence in his absence that his immediate family hardly recognized him.

—Mrs. Sam Peacock, who died at Gallatin, Tenn., last week, left besides her nine children, two of Mr. G. F. Peacock's, whom she was raising. Her death was greatly regretted by her many friends here.

—Ed Owens, of this place, and Miss Rebecca Cook, of Burgin, were married Friday. They eloped, but we were unable to learn the particulars. Mr. Owens has not reached his majority by a couple of years.

—There is a good deal of talk being engaged in here in regard to having a fair. The men are as a general thing in favor of it, but the dear women, who have most of the work to do, are in for giving Stanford the honor.

—Mrs. Evan Lyon died Friday from effects of an operation performed several days previous. She left besides a husband six children to feel the fearful blow of a mother's loss. Mrs. Lyon was an excellent lady and her death is greatly deplored.

—John Aug. Williams, of Harrodsburg, will deliver a serious of lectures to the members of the Masonic lodge at this place, beginning Friday, 24th, and continuing till Saturday evening, 25th. Members of the Masonic lodges in this section are cordially invited to be present.

—James Reid, of Grays, is spending a few days with his homefolks here. Miss Annie White, of Hubble, is the guest of Miss Mary Adams. Dr. W. B. Penny and family, of Stanford, are registered at the Weatherford Hotel. The Dr. is practicing his profession, dentistry. Miss Louise Bailey, of Stanford, is visiting her cousins, Misses Jennie and Anna Reid. Dr. Fayette Dunlap and Harry B. Hocker, of Danville, were here Sunday. Mr. J. V. Cook, of Garrard, was here last week to see his brother, Mr. J. M. Cook, who is rapidly improving. Mr. John Frye, the aged father of our clever townsman, Mr. James Frye, is quite ill of a blood trouble. Mr. Steve Drye, gauger at Trowbridge's distillery near Eubanks, spent Sunday with his better-half. Mrs. Dr. Lee E. Huffman, who is visiting her numerous relatives here, is in better health than she has been for years. Her little daughter, Annie Cook, is also visiting in Hustonville.

—The creek could accommodate a good sized steamboat this morning, and it is still rising.

—Misses Alice and Agnes Spears are visiting Mrs. Hawkins. Miss Mollie Wright, remained in town last night to attend the candy-pulling.

—Mrs. Bruce, Miss Fannie Hopper and little Miss Lizzie Twidwell Bruce, have joined Mr. Bruce, at Perryville, and expect to be absent several weeks.

—The "Heads 'er Pints Club," better known as the kids around Hustonville, had a candy pulling at Mrs. Dinwiddie's, Friday night, which was enjoyed immensely by all present.

—Hustonville is the greatest place to keep a secret I ever saw. One made its appearance here several days ago and though I made a determined race after it it still eludes my efforts.

A Million Friends.

A friend in need is a friend indeed, and not less than one million have found just such a friend in Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. If you have never used this great Cough Medicine, one trial will convince you that it has wonderful curative powers in all diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs. Each bottle is guaranteed to do all that is claimed or money will be refunded. Trial bottles free at A. R. Penny's drug store. Large bottles 50c and $1.

Deserving Praise.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never had a remedy that sell as well or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time and we stand ready to refund the purchase price if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. A. R. Penny, druggist.

Cholera in Pennsylvania.

Swickley, Penn. We had an epidemic of cholera, our physicians called it, in this place lately and I made a great hit with Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I sold four dozen bottles of it in one week and have since sold nearly a gross. This Remedy did the work and was a big advertisement for me. Several persons who had been troubled with diarrhoea for two or three weeks were cured by a few doses of this medicine. P. P. Knapp, Ph. G., 25 and 30 cent bottles for sale by W. B. McRoberts, Druggist, Stanford, Ky.

Just the Thing.

This is an expression the traveling public generally use when they find something that is exactly what they want. This expression applies directly to the Wisconsin Central Lines, which is now admitted by all to be "The Route" from Chicago to St. Paul, Minneapolis, Ashland, Duluth and all points in the Northwest. Their double daily train service and fine equipment offers in ducement which can not be surpassed.

This is the only line running both through Pullman First-Class and Tourist Sleepers from Chicago to Pacific Coast Points without change. For full information address your nearest ticket agent or James C. Bond, General Passenger and Ticket Agent, Chicago, Ill.
