

C. & O. PURCHASES EAST END PROPERTY TO CHANGE CREEK

Mr. Charles Rhomiller Sells "The Point" to the C. & O. Railway Company and Limestone Creek Will Be Changed.

It became known Friday that the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway Company has purchased of Mr. Charles Rhomiller, his attractive home near Limestone bridge, formerly the W. W. Ball homestead and known as "The Point."

For some time the Limestone Creek near its mouth has been cutting away under the C. & O.'s trestle and endangering this long structure. The railway company has spent much money in piling stone about the abutments of their long trestle but this had little effect upon the constant washings of the creek and the situation has become rather serious and most costly to the railway company.

It has been known for some time that the railway company was endeavoring to get this property which blocks the creek's straight course to the river and deflects the stream in the direction of the company's property. It is supposed that the company will immediately cut a course for the creek directly through this property to the river, thereby turning the course of the course of the creek from its property.

It is understood that Mr. Rhomiller received a very fancy price for the property. The change in the creek's course will probably be made without material injury to the attractive homestead.

In Memoriam

The following poem written by Mrs. Eleanor Duncan Wood, of this city, was chosen as the best of sixty-three offered, by a committee of state educators. It will be engraved upon the walls of the new Memorial Building to be erected on the Kentucky State University as a memorial to Kentuckians who fell during the World War. At a mass meeting to be held at the Mason county court house Friday evening at 8 o'clock, the members of the committee of judges will present to Mrs. Wood fifty dollars in gold, the award offered for the prize poem.

"Dear Motherland, Kentucky, here we bring The names of these thy sons who nobly died Who for Thy sake and Freedom's put aside Young Love and Lusty Life, and Call of Spring, And strode down Death's dark ways adventuring.

We cannot bring them back; We cannot give To their young eyes the joy of sunrise, nor To eager ears the call they hearkened for The cardinal around the hills of home. They live But in our hearts—and there are fugitive.

We shall go down to dust even as they. So to Thy Heart, Kentucky, bring we now These deathless names, A coronet for thy brow Best-loved and Beautiful. And thou shalt pay Unending honor till Time's latest day.

And it shall be throughout the coming years Young hearts shall proudly read these hero-names And feel within their own the sacred flames, We'll live for what they died for spite of fears, So faith shall spring once more from blood and tears.

Keep, save these names: Thy sons who would not save Themselves at price of Liberty and Thee. The "Old Kentucky Home" shall hallowed be Throughout the ages by the blood they gave Keep thou them safe, Thy Beautiful and Brave.

LEWIS GRAND JURY DOING THINGS UP IN A HURRY

Judge Halbert Recalls Last Grand Jury Which Made Record—Women Are Selected on Petit Jury List.

The Vanceburg Sun says: Circuit court opened Monday with Judge W. C. Halbert presiding; Commonwealth Attorney John Coldiron in charge of the prosecution, Sheriff Lykins and deputies awaiting to do the bidding of the court. The same members that constituted the previous grand jury were on hand and were again assigned the duty of looking into the law's infractions, which they did by reporting ten indictments the first half day's session, a new record being thus established for speed. Oscar Locke, Fred Riggs, S. Lewis and Chas. King, being among the bunch, were indicted for gaming. We learn that Marshal Hughes had them in Police Court on this charge but they were fined $1 and costs on a charge of disorderly conduct. The town is kept full of citizens from over the county answering to summons that had been served between court sessions. Eight ladies grace the petit jury's quota: Mrs. W. D. Hendrickson, Mrs. J. T. Ort, Mrs. Harve Humble, Mrs. I. W. Adams, Mrs. E. T. Bowman, Mrs. H. C. Paynter, Mrs. T. R. Biggar and Mrs. T. T. Brooks.

WIFE OF MILLIONAIRE BANKER WINS IN LONG FOUGHT CASE

Referee's Decision in World Famous Stillman Case Favors the Wife—Divorce Refused Banker.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Sept. 29.—Mrs. Pitt Potter Stillman won the decision today in her divorce action against James A. Stillman, millionaire and former president of the National City Bank. In the decision, filed by Referee Daniel J. Gleason in the County Court at Carmel, N. Y., the following points are made: The proof does not show that Mrs. Stillman was guilty of misconduct with Fred Beauvis, Indian guide. The infant, Guy Stillman, is the son of Stillman and Mrs. Stillman, and not the child of Fred Beauvis. Stillman was guilty of misconduct with Helen Leoda, and is the father of her two children. The referee decided there was not sufficient proof to show that Stillman also associated with two other women known as "Helen and Clara."

MR. CABLISH'S WILL IS PROBATED.

In the Mason County Court a paper bearing date of June 29, 1920, and purporting to be the last will and testament of Jacob Cablish, Sr., deceased, was produced. The due execution of the paper was proven by the testimony of Messrs. Harry D. Wallingford and Wm. D. Harvin, the attesting witnesses thereto and admitted to probate. By the terms of the will the entire estate is left to his children.

BEST MUSIC EVER MADE AT FAIR SAYS FALMOUTH PAPER

High Compliment Paid Kentucky Cardinal Band By Falmouth Outlook Following Engagement At Falmouth Fair.

This week's Falmouth Outlook says: The Maysville Boys' and Girls' Band furnished the music at the Falmouth Fair on Friday night and Saturday, and rendered the best music ever heard on the old historic grounds. There were 42 members of the band here and they were headed by "Daddy" J. Harbour Russell, who takes as much pride in the boys and girls as did the old blue hen with her first brood of chicks. When the band personnel dressed in their handsome red and white uniforms marched out in front of the audience of 12,000 people, headed by Col. Russell, a storm of welcoming applause was given them. This band is the greatest musical organization of its kind in the United States and it delivered the goods at the Falmouth Fair to the satisfaction of the Fair Company and the vast throng on the grounds. This was their first appearance here and we hope it will not be the last, as the band members are good mixers and made many warm friends during their short stay with us. Every member seems to be an artist with his instrument.

This band was made possible by the efforts and financial assistance of Col. J. Harbour Russell, the proprietor of M. C. Russell Co., wholesale grocers, of Maysville. He organized this band, secured the best instructors, and gave the boys and girls to that city the opportunity of a lifetime. His efforts have been crowned with success even beyond his fondest expectations, as the band's services are sought all over the country. This work has been commended from coast to coast, and shows what can be done with the right kind of leadership, as Col. Russell has demonstrated. He is justly proud of the band, and so is every other Kentuckian.—Falmouth Outlook.

TURKISH SULTAN REPORTED TO HAVE ABDICATED THRONE

Head of Turkish Empire and Church Reported to Have Stepped Down in Favor of His Cousin.

Paris, Sept. 29. — The Sultan of Turkey, Mohammed VI, has abdicated in favor of his cousin, Prince Abdul Medjid, according to an unconfirmed report received here today from Constantinople. Another report stated that Mohammed had decided to abdicate, but acceptance of this had been held up pending word from Mustapha Kemal, whose decision in the matter will be final. The sultan, since the war, has been powerless in the Turkish government. It was he who accepted the treaty of Sèvres, which banished Turkey from Europe after the war. The sultan, being the head of the church of the Moslem world, was allowed to remain in Constantinople. He retained his palace and a small body-guard.

The Turkish Nationalists, headed by Mustapha Kemal, resented the sultan's surrender of Constantinople and trace to the allies and set up a government by national assembly in Ankara.

The Nationalists, being all powerful now through their brilliant victories, plan to oust the sultan. RUNAWAY BOYS ARE SOUGHT IN NEARBY CITIES BY POLICE

Local Police Asker By Parents to Help Locate Two Sixteen-Year-Old Boys Who Mysteriously Disappeared From Home.

Police were asked Friday to help locate Eugene Ginn, 16-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Huff Ginn, of the East End, and Herbert Roberts, 16-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Roberts also of the East End. The two boys disappeared from their home sometime during Thursday night. The parents report that both of the boys went to bed at their homes Thursday night at the usual hour. There was nothing unusual happened before they retired nor did either of the boys let drop the slightest hint that they intended to go away for a trip. When the parents of both boys awakened Friday morning and called their sons for breakfast, there was no answer and an investigation disclosed that they were not in their bed rooms. Investigations in the wardrobes disclosed that each boy had taken a suit case and each boy had taken both his working clothes and his best clothes. Both the police and the parents think the boys left sometime during the night for a trip to some nearby city and at the request of the parents of the boys, Chief of Police Carl Carpenter has communicated with the police departments at Huntington, Lexington, Frankfort and Portsmouth, in all of which cities the boys have relatives, asking that the parents here be notified if the boys are located in any of those cities.
