

ADAMS COUNTIAN KILLS HIS NEPHEW WHILE IN BUGGY

Neighbor County Is Searched for Wm. Thornton, Who, After Killing His Nephew Said He Would Drown Himself in Ohio River.

Manchester, Ohio, April 20.—On a lonely road ten miles west of here William Thornton, 45 years old, farmer, who lives at High Hill, in the western section of Adams county, shot and killed his nephew, Ned Thornton, 24 years old, shortly after midnight Wednesday morning.

Thornton and his nephew had been visiting at a place east of Manchester and were driving home in a buggy when the shooting occurred, it is said. According to a version of the shooting given out by Harmon Holderness, prosecuting attorney of Adams county, both Thornton and his nephew had been drinking moonshine whiskey.

William Thornton lives with his brother, Michael Thornton, about two miles west of the point where the shooting occurred, and Ned Thornton lived with his father, Thomas Thornton, two miles from the home of his uncle.

After the shooting William Thornton went to his home and told his brother, Michael Thornton, that he had killed Ned.

"You will find the boy's body down the road a couple of miles," he said. "I am going to drown myself in the Ohio River."

With this statement he fled from the home and no trace of him has been found.

Michael hurried to the home of his brother Thomas and told him of the murder of his son. The two brothers set out together to find the body. They found it in a gully about fifty feet from the scene of the shooting. Traces of blood on stones showed that Thornton had dragged himself away from the road after the shooting. There was a bullet wound in his chest. Near the body was a .38-caliber revolver.

The two brothers reported the shooting to Charles Pettit, Sheriff of Adams county, who, with two deputies, Aaron Meeker and William Garret, searched the hills of Adams county for some trace of the slayer.

Prosecuting Attorney Holderness said that he had little faith in the statement of William Thornton that he intended to drown himself in the Ohio River. Holderness said that he believed Thornton was hiding out in the hills which abound in the western section of the county.

The sheriff and his men returned here late Wednesday night and reported that they had been unable to locate Thornton.

PROPOSED SALARY SCHEDULE SENT OUT BY SUPT. COLVIN

State School Superintendent Sends Out His Recommendations on a Salary Schedule for Teachers.

Frankfort, Ky., April 19.—A suggested schedule for Kentucky school teachers, ranging from a minimum of $50 a month with certain percentages of increases based on education to a minimum of $95 a month for college or university graduates, today was sent to county school superintendents by State Superintendent George Colvin. He is endeavoring to aid county superintendents in making up their salary schedules.

He suggests that $50 a month be the basis of fixing the salary of teachers with eighth grade education, $53 for one year of high school, $56 for two years, $59 for three years and $62 for high school graduated. For each year of normal school work finished after the eighth grade he would add 10 percent to the minimum salary, paying such teachers $65 a month on graduation. If, however, high school graduates attend normal schools, he would pay those completing one year $68 a month, and two years $76 a month. For the third year of college or university work done he would make the minimum $85 a month and for graduates of colleges or universities the minimum would be $95 a month.

The state superintendent says that principals should receive $5 to $30 a month for supervisory work, based on the importance and size of their schools.

OPENING DAY IN BLUEGRASS LEAGUE IS A GALA ONE

Great Crowd Here To Witness The Formal Opening of the Blue Grass League—League Magnates Meet Tonight.

Play Ball! The 1922 season of the Blue Grass League opens at the East Second street ball park Thursday afternoon at 5 o'clock when President Thomas M. Russell and Secretary-Treasurer E. L. Willett toss the first baseball of the year with an official Blue Grass League O. K. on it.

Great interest is shown among Maysville people in support of Manager Boskens' aggregation of ball players. To show the keen interest of the city and the extent to which the local ball club is being backed, most all local business houses closed at 1:30 o'clock and all employers and employees are crowding the street cars on their way to the East End park. It is estimated that all records at attendance at ball games in this city since the old Ohio State League days will be broken this afternoon.

As a fitting celebration for the opening a grand street parade was held, starting at the Central Hotel, headquarters of the local team and the league, the parade moved through the principal streets to music furnished by our two juvenile bands, the best in Kentucky. Just as the famous Cardinal Land has brought the attention of the state and the nation to Maysville as a musical town, we are expecting the baseball club which bears Maysville's name to bring reputation to the best little city on the map in sport circles this summer.

The lineup for the opening game is as follows:

- Winchester.
McCourt, second base.
Thoss, catcher.
Zapflin, first base.
Carroll, shortstop.
Henry, right field.
Basket, third base.
Shea, center field.
Vallandigham pitcher.
Tavener, pitcher.
Maysville.
Weimer, center field.
Class, third base.
Connolly, catcher.
Slayback, second base.
Kresser, shortstop.
Dressel, first base.
Margerum, left field.
Rosken, right field.
Einenman, pitcher.
Shaw, pitcher.
James "Red" Roberts, Captain of the world famous Center College football club, will umpire the opening game assisted by two other official umpires of the league.

NICHOLASVILLE BOY IS KILLED BY AUTOMOBILE

Seven-Year-Old Lad Meets Accidental Death In Front of His Home on Tuesday—Was on Errand.

Nicholasville, Ky., April 19.—James H. Hill, seven-year-old son of Mrs. Pearl Hill, a widow, was killed instantly this morning when an automobile driven by Reed Elliott, of near Harrodsburg, accidentally struck the boy while in front of his mother's home on the business block of Main street.

Elliott in a statement made after the accident said that he was driving north on the right side of Main street at the rate of about ten miles an hour when he saw the child standing on the curbstone about fifteen feet ahead of him, looking directly across the street. As he drove nearer, the child started across the street, and Elliott sounded his horn and turned quickly to the left, Elliott said. The child ran under the wheels, which passed over his body while Elliott was making every effort to stop his car and attract the boy's attention, he declared.

There were a number of witnesses who rushed to the car as it stopped. The child was taken to his home and several physicians called but he was pronounced dead on his arrival. The little body was crushed. It is said that Mrs. Hill, who has two other children, was having her flat padded, and had sent the boy to a furniture store across the street for another roll of wall paper.

$200,000 NEEDED FOR WAR MEMORIAL AT KY. UNIVERSITY

Campaign To Be Opened Next Monday To Raise Funds for Proposed Memorial Building In Honor of Kentucky Soldiers.

The campus committee of the University of Kentucky began work in the Kentucky memorial building campaign at a meeting held Tuesday afternoon in the office of President Frank L. McVey. The goal in the state is $200,000 necessary to complete the fund for the building proposed two years ago in honor of the 5,056 Kentucky war dead.

W. E. Freeman is chairman of the campus committee and the other members are Enoch Grehan, W. D. Funkhouser, J. J. Downing, T. P. Cooper, W. S. Hamilton, Miss Frances Jewell and Miss Marguerite McLaughlin. Charles Mahoney represents the student body.

The campaign will open over the state Monday and will continue through Saturday, April 29. The state has been divided into eastern and western districts with J. A. Wilson, of Louisville, chairman, and subchairmen named for each three counties of each district.

The amount pledged and subscribed when the suggestion of a memorial building was made is about $165,000 and the quality of the building now depends upon how much can be raised by this second campaign. It is hoped by the committee that the subscriptions will amount to $200,000 in addition to what has already been subscribed.

All alumni and former students, citizens of the Commonwealth who have not already given all who have given and desire to increase the amount of the gift and students and faculty of the university will have an opportunity to subscribe when the campaign opens Monday.

W. S. Hamilton, J. J. Downing and Miss McLaughlin will solicit the faculty next week and W. E. Freeman, W. D. Funkhouser, Miss Jewell and T. P. Cooper will work with Charles Mahoney and the Su-Ky Circle of the university body for soliciting in Lexington, Fayette county and about ten adjoining towns.
