Annual Fish Fry

The annual fish fry of the Clark County Fish Club was held at Lower Howards Creek on the Sam Pursley farm on Friday, May 30. About fifteen gentlemen from this city and county attended. Judge Shackelford carried the following gentlemen in his automobile: Sant Bush, P. B. Broaddus and W. O. Harker.

Hon. L. B. Herrington carried R. B. Terrill, J. W. Maupin, Armer Parrish, Edgar Doty and John Noland in his machine, while Roy C. White, Judge Jno. C. Chenault, O. P. Jackson, Jno. E. Baldwin and Jno. F. Wagers went in buggies.

About three hundred people were in attendance. Forty-four automobiles were lined up at one time. An abundance of fish were provided, as well as buttermilk and mint.

Services at the New Christian Church

On Sunday morning, June the first, services were held in the New Christian Church and it was indeed a day of inspiration and hallowed memories. A large concourse of people had gathered and representatives from all of the churches were there to mingle their voices in song, to rejoice "with those who rejoice," and to worship the "One True God."

Mr. John Arnold, the Superintendent, opened the meeting and announced the hymn, after which Dr. E. B. Barnes read from the 16th chapter of Matthew and followed with prayer. The following program was then given:

Chorus by the Primary Class Address—"The Old and the New Church," Hon. W. B. Smith

Solo by Mr. Jordan Music by the choir Assembling of Classes (and taking offering for Children's Day, the money to be used for the work in foreign lands.)

Address—"Order and Reverence in Sunday School," Prof. W. J. Grinstead

Singing by the choir Address—"Why Are We Here?" Mr. R. E. Turley.

The following excellent report was then made, after which the exercises closed with prayer by Rev. E. C. McDougle.

Number of persons present, 510; collections, $85.95. Twenty teachers present and 22 visitors.

The usual morning service was held, at which time Dr. Barnes preached, using as his text, "The Church of the Living God," a sermon beautiful and impressive.

A most enjoyable feature of the service was the special music, Mrs. G. W. Pickels presiding at the organ, and the sweet singing of the choir, a quartet by Mr. Wm. Arnold, Dr. Perry, Mrs. Perry and Mrs. Ballard, and a beautiful solo by the latter, "Thy Will Be Done."

The benediction was pronounced by Dr. Barnes and thus closed the first day in the New Church, a day which dawned cloudless, emblematic of Hope, and full of promise for the morrow.

Golden Wedding

About one hundred and fifty guests assembled at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. John Hisle last Saturday to help them celebrate their golden wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Hisle had prepared a dinner that surpassed anything ever given here.

Some elegant presents were received by this venerable couple given by loving friends.

The wedding cake was unique being about two feet square, and was delicious. This was a present from one of her sisters and had on it "1863-1913." Mrs. Hisle wore a silk dress, a fac simile of the one she wore on her wedding day fifty years ago. Many out of town guests were in attendance.

A most happy day was spent and the departing guests wished them a long continuation of health and happiness.

"The Sweet Girl Graduates"

The Senior Play of Caldwell High School which was given in the Chapel on last evening, was one of the prettiest and most attractive that this school has presented in Richmond. The entire cast of characters was unusually fine but Miss Elizabeth Blanton, "The Sweet Girl Graduate," and Miss Mary Martin, "the mother threatened with nervous prostration," showed very marked histrionic ability and Caldwell is to be congratulated on sending forth such talented young ladies.

The stage setting, the work of the Manual Training Department, is also worthy of especial mention showing skill and perfect taste. Richmond is fortunate indeed in having a High school where everything is taught from the use of the hammer and saw to the intricate work of the drama.

Court Day

Quite a good crowd of farmers, their wives and daughters, were in our beautiful city Court day. Every one wore a contented smile. Crops are doing well and the prospect for a bumper crop is reported excellent.

The disease among horses gave anxious concern to many but as yet it has not ravaged this county to any great extent.

Cattle sold well. Horses and mules sold well.

Caldwell Commencement

The annual commencement exercises at Caldwell High School were begun Sunday night when Dr. Quisenberry of the Baptist Church, this city, preached the baccalaureate sermon at the Presbyterian Church. It was not our good fortune to be present, but those who were so favored, pronounced it a gem. He spoke from the text, "See now that you do not fail."

The program for the rest of the week is as follows:

Tuesday is to be exhibition day. At 10 a. m. exercises will be held in which several pupils will describe the process of construction of the various kinds of articles on exhibition. There will be displays of work in manual training, basketing, in rug weaving, paper cutting, etc., as well as a display of products grown in the School garden.

Wednesday 8 p. m. some one hundred and fifty of the classes under Miss James' direction will give the Operetta, Little Boy Blue.
