

Big Chautauqua Week Attraction

THE BEN GREET PLAYERS

ONE of the greatest events on the forthcoming Chautauqua program this season will be the coming of the Ben Greet Players. A company of thirteen players, personally trained and coached by Ben Greet, are to appear here.

Mr. Greet is considered today one of the greatest living authorities on the English drama and is world famous for his remarkable productions of Shakespearean plays and old English comedies. He has been connected with the stage for thirty years and has taught many actors, perhaps more than any other man living today.

For twenty years Mr. Greet has been prominent in England for performances in which his splendid companies have acted each year in London, Cambridge, Stratford on Avon and other places in "Shakespeare's England."

Mr. Greet became well known in America several years ago through his presentation of the morality play "Everyman" under the management of Charles Frohman. This was the first time a play was presented in America by a professional company in the Elizabethan manner. This was later followed by a production of Shakespearean plays and classical comedies.

The company of thirteen Ben Greet Players who are to appear on the Chautauqua program here is the same company which made a transcontinental tour under Redpath management during the winter just past, playing to large crowds and mostly in the cities.

They will present "The Comedy of Errors" here, one of the best and most interesting of Shakespeare's productions. Special costumes will be worn in this production.

LODGE NOTES

The Royal Arch Lodge met at its hall in this city last Thursday night and conferred the royal arch degrees on Hon. L. B. Herrington, C. H. Jett and Dr. Boggs. After the conference of the degrees a handsome luncheon was served in the banquet hall. About thirty were present to partake of the refreshments. Hon. L. B. Herrington was called on and gave a beautiful address.

Among the out of town guests were C. C. Williams and R. G. Bentley, of Mt. Vernon.

Sir Knight Bowman, of Mt. Vernon, was buried here last Thursday afternoon with the honors of a Sir Knight. The Local Lodge received the following highly complimentary letter from the Lodge at London of which lodge Sir Knight Bowman was a member:

Eminent Commander and Sir Knights of Richmond Commandery No. 19, Richmond Kentucky.

Dear Fraters:—
On behalf of London Commandery No. 33, I desire to extend to you our most sincere thanks and assurances of appreciation for the beautiful manner in which you conducted the funeral of our much lamented frater, Sir Knight H. W. Bowman.

With assurances of love and respect, we are

Fraternally yours,
J. B. E. Cerlein,
Recorder.

Handsome Donation

Dr. Perry our leading druggist, gave a benefit sale to the P. A. C. Infirmary on 21st and realized the handsome sum of $50.00 for this institution. Dr. Perry is always doing some good thing in church circles and this ample gift will be greatly appreciated by the friends of this Institution.

Much of the success of the Benefit day was due to the following young ladies: Lucy Walker, Duncan Foster, Anne Bennett Cohen, Mame Campbell, Katie Devore and Tommie Cole Covington who assisted at the counter.

Mrs. E. W. Walker interested herself in the interest of the Benefit and the Institution is justly proud of having her for a friend and officer.

Successful Operation

Mr. Jesse Dykes was operated on for gall stones at the Gibson Infirmary last Monday. He stood the operation well and it was entirely successful. He is doing nicely now and will soon be able to be out.

Mrs. West Paralyzed

Mrs. T. H. West, wife of Hon. T. H. West, of Millers Creek, Estill County, was paralyzed last week. She is in a most critical condition with but little hope for recovery.

Remember the Chautauqua. Tickets can be bought for the season at $2.00. Don't delay to buy at the gate, for then you will have to pay more for them.

Our aim is to please everybody and we will be delighted if you will call on us when in need of anything in our line. Covington, Thorpe & Co. 11-11

Coalition

The Bull-moosers and Republicans have fused and put out a fusion ticket as follows:

Judge, T. J. Coyle; Attorney, W. T. Short; Clerk, Burrell Moore; Jailer, Jno. Christopher; Assessor, M. M. Broughton; Sherriff, Put Black; Representative, G. D. Holliday.

As the Court of Appeals refuses to take jurisdiction of questions relating to the primary law and as that law practically provides that fusion can not be made, it will be interesting to see how they can fuse and run on one ticket.

HUMAN RECIPE

To a bright young face, a gown mostly lace,
Bare shoulders and a curl quite petite,
Add a shy little air, an aigrette for her hair—
And behold this debutante sweet.

Zaring's Patent Flour is most economical because it makes more biscuits. 24-31.

Fellow-Citizens of Richmond

Owing to a severe illness of several days duration and which, from present indications, will be prolonged for many days more, I have been and will be unable to discharge my duties as policeman of your city. I am, as you aware, also a candidate for Chief of Police of the city of Richmond, at the Democratic primary, August 2.

Now, you can readily see I am greatly handicapped and will be unable to make an active campaign for said office. When I entered the race for Chief of Police and up to some ten days ago, I was in fine fettle, and the hearty support accorded me by the voters has been most gratifying. While the unseen hand of Fate has taken a thrust at me, yet I take this method of informing my friends that I am in this race until the finish and hope to win. I trust that my friends, who in the past have tendered me their loyal support and influence, will continue their activities in my behalf from now until the polls close on election day. It will be impossible for me to give my race the personal attention I had hoped, for at least several days to come, owing to my illness; therefore I am necessarily forced to take this method of appealing to the loyalty of my numerous friends and ask them to make every honest endeavor to keep up the splendid interest already engendered in my candidacy for Chief of Police.

I doubly assure you from the depths of my heart, my fellow-citizens, that any support given me in furtherance of my race will be most highly appreciated, and I will hold you, each and all, in grateful remembrance as my sincere friends. Thanking you for past favors, and again assuring every one of my high appreciation of any kindness and courtesy shown me in the future, I beg to remain,

Yours respectfully,
Jesse Dykes.

Big Fire Loss

At Mr. William Luxon's home near this city, a large barn in which were nine valuable horses, was struck by lightning, killing one horse and firing the barn. Four valuable animals were burned to death. Mr. Luxon lost three young horses valued at $1500.00 and Mr. Irvine Hume lost a mare called Zim, valued at $1500.00 and one called Burnam, valued at $500.00.

Several persons were in the barn at the time but all escaped injury.

The loss to the barn and contents will reach into several thousand dollars.

The house of Mr. Mack Lowry on the Tates Creek pike was struck by lightning and Mr. Lowry rendered unconscious for four hours.

One Hello

Winchester is happy. They have cut out one set of phones. One unnecessary expense is gone and only one hello is necessary now to reach your friend or patron.

Don't forget Mr. Taxpayer that the Madisonian saved you $127 on one job alone to wit: printing the list of claims. It cost this year about $107. But for the Madisonian it would have cost you $234.
