Guarantors

The following well known gentlemen guaranteed the sale of 750 Chautauqua tickets and thus secured for Richmond this great educational feature:

C. C. Wallace, F. M. Stiver, E. B. Barnes, G. E. Lilly, W. S. Broadus, R. R. Burnam, Ed. Blanton, W. G. White, W. B. Smith and J. G. Crabbe. With the exception of W. B. Smith, W. G. White and R. R. Burnam, the same gentlemen guaranteed and secured it for 1914.

The educational advantage of such an institution can not be over estimated. It provides amusement, entertainment and education hand in hand.

Cloud Burst

The Buckeye section of Garrard county was visited with a disastrous cloud burst last week which wrought great damages in that locality. The barn of Link Miller washed away. Mr. Miller suffered the loss of his house by fire some months ago and was living in a part of the barn when it was washed away. He lost all of his household effects and about 10 hogs. The farm lands of that vicinity were greatly washed, fencing washed away and crops destroyed.

Salem Hurt was a heavy loser by the flood. It is estimated that his lands have been injured fully $1500.00 and in addition to this he has sustained heavy loss to crops.

Disastrous Wreck

Thursday morning about 10:30 one of the most disastrous wrecks occurred at the junction of the L. & N. R. R. and the L. & A. R. R. in this city, that has been witnessed here. A train on the L. & N. R. R. was going North and when near the crossing an L. & A. train backed directly across the road. The momentum of the North bound train was so great that it could not be stopped and terrific crash into the L. & A. train carried it from the tracks, separating it and overturning the engine of the L. & N. The tracks were torn up, debris was scattered on the road which it took several hours to clear off. Richmond turned out en masse to see the twisted rails and splintered cars. No trains were able to pass for several hours but the passengers were transferred and not much inconvenienced by the wreck. The property loss was great. Fortunately no lives were lost.

Council Proceedings

The E. K. N. School was allowed to construct a sewer on Second street.

Collections were reported as follows: Fines and cost $44.00 by the Chief of Police. The City Collector reported $2326.63 which was apportioned to the several funds entitled thereto.

J. M. Riddell Dead

J. M. Riddell who was well known here died at his home in Barboursville last week. He was buried at that place with Masonic honors.

Mr. Riddell formerly lived here at which time he held a position in the collectors office under T. C. Bronston. He married and removed to Barboursville where he lived until his death. In the latter part of his life, he was the Police Judge of Barboursville.

He was a confederate veteran. The last time that he was in Richmond was last summer when he passed through here en route to Irvine to a reunion of the Blue and the Gray. We remember full well his last words to us: "There is no North, no South; nor East nor West. Its all one big country."

He was a social, congenial gentleman, liked by all who knew him.

He leaves a wife and two sisters, Mrs. Friend and Mrs. Smith, of Irvine, Kentucky.

Church Notes

Rev. C. K. Marshall will preach at Mt. Pleasant, Sunday July 13, at 11 A. M.

Dr. Quisenberry preached at the Union meeting at the Christian Church Sunday night an interesting sermon on the theme "He that is not with me, &c."

The C. W. B. M. meets on Wednesday at 4 o'clock with Mrs. N. B. Deatherage. All members are urged to be present and pay their pledges.

The Ladies Aid will meet with her at 4 P. M. Thursday.

Dr. Quisenberry has put a new life in the Baptist Church of this city. Last Sunday was a great day for the members of this church. It was a rally day. Efforts will be made to build a new church sufficient to accommodate the increased attendance due to the Normal School. This church has a strong membership and there is no reason why it should not be able to build and equip an edifice that will be a model in church building. Dr. Quisenberry is a veteran in this line of work and the local church has been very fortunate in securing him for the pastorate for this reason as well as the still greater reason that he is a most admirable man and an able and consecrated preacher. We look for great things from this congregation.

Miss Belle H. Bennett spoke at the Methodist Church Sunday morning, giving a most interesting account of the second great Methodist Missionary Conference of the Southern Methodist Church, held at Waynesville, N. C. the latter part of June. Eight bishops of the Church were present, and other noted speakers including foreign missionaries and speakers from other denominations. Over $160,000.00 was subscribed for the enlargement and establishment of the missionary work.

Waynesville is the location of the great Assembly grounds of the Southern Methodist Church. This was the first meeting since the establishment of the Assembly, and it was indeed, a note worthy opening. About forty from the Kentucky Conference were present. They took an option upon a good site looking to the building of permanent headquarters for representatives of the Kentucky Conference who may wish to attend the several Conferences held there each summer. Miss Bennett and Mr. W. H. Park were in attendance upon this Conference.

Miss Bennett spoke to the representatives of the Woman's Missionary Society present and raised $10,000 for the work.
