Baldwin & Harber sold three mules to W. B. Burton of Lancaster for $600; also one to Stewart Jones of Fayette county for $230.

W. H. Hendren of the Kirksville locality sold 92 head of cattle to Simon Wehl at six cents a pound. They will average about 1000 pounds.

J. L. Sowers will leave next week for Richmond, where he will chase, shoot, dynamite and spear the news for Grant E. Lilly's Madisonian. Richmond reporters will have to sleep with one eye open if they expect to keep long side of Jeems.—Argonaut.

Among the Estill Masons who attended the centennial celebration of the Richmond Masonic Lodge, held at Richmond on the 26th, inst., were: Messrs. D. A. Wallace, R. W. Smith, C. T. Grinstead, Rev. W. P. Fryman, Jno. Miller, David Tewart and Elias Ashcraft, of Irvine Lodge.—Estill Tribune.

An Oversight

By an error, which in the rush of going to press was overlooked by us, two paragraphs of our report of the Masonic picnic were omitted. They are as follows:

"Arriving at the Campus the line of march was broken and the crowd collected under the trees near the pavillion, where Mr. Neale Bennett, the Master of Richmond lodge, acted as master of ceremonies in a modest and agreeable way.

"Dr. C. K. Marshall offered an invocation."

We regret the omission very much, but, like the editor who wrote up the wedding elaborately and left out the name of the groom, all that we can now do is to continue to regret it.

The Richmond Band, under the leadership of Prof. Alex Bowles, played a beautiful selection of popular airs throughout the day, which added much to the pleasure of the guests.

Altogether it was a memorable occasion long to be remembered by our city and guests.

"Get-together" Meeting

The members of the Methodist church will have a meeting next Friday evening; when the work of the Conference year will be reviewed in the several departments of the church. A short extra program has been prepared besides, and a social hour will be enjoyed. It is desired that all the members of the congregation shall be present to learn more of the work of the church, in general, and to become better acquainted with each other. Light refreshments will be served. Hour 7.30.

New Corn Sold

Price Williams, of Taylor's Fork of Silver Creek sold to Sam DeJarnatt, 9 acres of corn judged in the field at 99 barrels at $2.75 a barrel. This corn was sold sometime ago. It is believed the price of corn will range around $3.50 a barrel.

Judge Morrow Dead

Judge T. Z. Morrow died last Monday. He was one of Kentucky's most noted jurists. He had been in declining health for some yeas. He was a brother-in-law to Senator W. O. Bradley.

Sunday School Convention

One of the largest and most enthusiastic conventions ever held in Madison County was the Sunday School Convention held at the Pond Church on Thursday, August 28. It opened with prayer by Rev. C. K. Marshall and the welcoming address was given by Mr. W. L. Crutcher and the response made by Mr. Wilson. Miss Helton the Secretary of the Convention sang a solo which was greatly enjoyed. Next on the program was an interesting talk by Mrs. Joe Chenault on "The Training of The Child," followed by Mr. Kelch of Berea whose subject was "The Critical Period." Mr. R. E. Turley then came to the platform and discussed the subject "Reaching The Adult," after which Mr. Walter Frazer made the last speech before the noon hour, "The Message of the State Worker." And here if we might be permitted to say the best was yet to come, for a spread such as has rarely been seen in the County was now put before the guests. Everything from fried chicken and old ham to ice cream and coffee.

The first, and a very interesting talk of the afternoon was made by Dr. E. B. Barnes on "Israel at Mt. Sinai," the subject for the Sunday School lesson for the 31th.

Rev. C. K. Marshall gave an earnest talk on "The Advantage of Bringing The Boy and Girl to Christ," and asked those who had made a confession from twelve to eighteen years of age to stand. The result was his best argument.

Mr. John Arnold's subject, "The Worship Period of The Bible School," was one of the good things of the day and full of helpful suggestions.

The Boy Problem was discussed both pro and con and the various reports from the Committees were heard. The meeting then adjourned with prayer, and all felt that "it was good to have come up to the house of the Lord."

Chautauqua For Farmers

On Saturday, August 23rd the farmers of Madison County met at the court house and decided to hold a farmer's Chautauqua as had been previously discussed. Mr. R. E. Turley was elected secretary and Messrs. E. C. Million, T. H. Collins, and Jonah Wagers were appointed an executive committee to perfect the plans of the organization.

Chautauquas will be held at three different parts of the county, White Hall, Waco, and Kingston being chosen, and a four days session will be held at each place. This is a great opportunity for Madison County farmers to hear scientific farming discussed by men of national reputation and entirely without cost.

Every farmer wishes to know how to raise more and better crops and the kind of fertilizing that should be used and the opportunity will now be afforded.

Thursday the executive committee met the farmers at Waco and the work is now on in earnest. Let every Madisonian boost the cause!

Unfortunate Accident

On Tuesday afternoon while coming down Lancaster Ave. in Mr. Allen Zaring's car, Cosby Duncan lost his hat, and not realizing how fast the car was going, jumped out to recover it; in so doing he was thrown violently to the ground sustaining serious injuries to the back and head. He was carried to his home where he remained in an unconscious condition for some time; everything was done for his relief and at the present time he is resting comfortably and his friends hope for his rapid recovery.

Tobacco Cutting in Progress

Cutting and housing tobacco in many parts of the county is in progress. The crop in the county is not up to the average, although in some parts of the county where rains visited at the right time, the crop is fairly good.

A few years ago when the small farmer grew tobacco, it was the practice to cut and scaffold tobacco in the patch. A few days sun would yellow the weed considerably, then it was housed.

In conversation with some old time tobacco growers, it was the opinion given by them that where tobacco was housed in small barns the color was brighter than when housed in large barns. They assigned as a reason that the air would freely circulate through the tobacco.

The practice of scaffolding tobacco in the patch has about gone out of date among growers of the weed, but it is believed by many old and experienced growers that the extra trouble in scaffolding tobacco in the sun for a few days would more than compensate the grower for the extra trouble.
