

The Adair County News.

VOLUME XVI

COLUMBIA, ADAIR COUNTY, KENTUCKY, WEDNESDAY FEB. 26, 1913.

NUMBER 17

Jamestown Trip.

Our trip to Jamestown, last week, meted such returns as to make The News man feel that the ties that bind us are even stronger than we had realized. By returns we do not mean merely the paucity dollars that passed from the people of Russell county into the possession of The News, but as truly the friendly, social and fraternal greetings that so characterize the intelligent citizenship of that county.

Monday, the first day of circuit court, drew an unusually large crowd and from early dawn until all had returned home nothing occurred to mar the peace and good humor that prevailed. Judge Carter arrived in due time to put the mill of justice in motion by 10 a. m. and his instructions, if rigidly obeyed by the grand jury and followed by unflinching law enforcement, will do all that needs to be done in suppressing the main troubles of law breaking in that bally-wick. Some stock was on the market but no record breaking sale was made. Truly speaking it was a hand shaking crowd, a day of renewal of friendship and rest from labor and in every sense it measured full to expectancy. In such gatherings, every where, it is expected that some appearance of disorder or misconduct will be seen but justice to whom justice is due, we can truthfully say that no town in the state could produce a gathering of like proportion with less evidence of rudeness. It was ideal in conduct.

While there our acquaintance was broadened, meeting many whose names were familiar on our subscription book, but whose faces we had never seen.

While Jamestown has a rival in Russell Springs, only six miles apart, yet both are doing well and pursuing the even tenor of their way. We can not refrain from a worthy mention of Jamestown's fraternal orders, particularly the Odd Fellows, whose efforts to build, broaden and practice the Good Samaritan spirit stands out a monument to that section. Jamestown Lodge No. 359 with only 47 members, whose very being is saturated with desire to do good, is now putting the finishing touches to its new hall. The building is a two story frame, made of good material and finished in first class order. The first floor will be rented for business while the lodge uses the second story which is adjusted to its particular needs and comfort. Aside from preparation rooms, cloak apartment, the hall, 30 by 60 feet, with ample light and ventilation, appeals to every one who knows what the interior of such a hall should be.

With the comfort and convenience of such a home the mysteries, beauties and blessings of the order are bound to find permanent lodgment in many faithful breasts. This building ordinarily would cost $2500, but we were informed that it will not exceed $1500, Mr. Attis McFarland, as chairman of the building committee also, a number one machanic, is due much credit in holding down expenses. He was ably assisted in his work by his committee and others who pride in the fact that the order has received the maximum amount of good at the minimum of cost.

In leaving Jamestown we feel that it would be an injustice if we failed to state that two days and nights at The Faulkenburg Hotel will convince you that it is one of the best hotels in Southern Ky.

Our stop over in Russell Springs was short but pleasant. There we found the same cordial greeting as at county seat and a hopeful view entertained of that town's rapid growth. One of its most enterprising citizens, Robert Ingram, stands behind the screen where the money is deposited, but he is interested in making that town, bigger, better, stronger and more attractive. He appreciates his surroundings and is likewise held in high esteem by the real enterprising citizens. A shake with Mr. S. Wilson proprietor of the Supply Store will make any man feel good and besides his friendly greetings he is wide awake to the interest of the Springs. We failed to meet other business men of that town, due to our brief stay and the further fact they were in Nashville. The Kipple Hotel still holds its reputation for all that's good to eat, supplemented with the most cordial and painstaking attention to guest.

This trip was made for J. E. Murrell, who has been making it for thirty years, and who is very much attached to the people of Russell county, and who regrets that sickness prevented him from shaking the hand of his many friends.

Mrs. Fannie Sexton, who made her home at Gradyville during the life time of her husband, has accepted rooms at the residence of her brother, Mr. J. V. White, becoming a member of the family a few days ago.

The March American Magazine.

In the March American Magazine, Albert W. Atwood writes an article on "Railroad Wrecks—Why they Increase," in which he brings out many interesting facts and ideas. The article is an important one and ought to be read. It is written in the right tone—not carding, but soundly helpful, although searching.

A real bartender contributes "What a Man Will Do for a Drink," in which he tells many amazing stories. Brand Whitlock, Mayor of Toledo, Ohio, relates some of his adventures with Governor Altgeld of Illinois, who pardoned the anarchists. Albert Jay Nock shows how the profession of scientific management proposes even to reduce the time surgeons will require for operations. Walter Prichard Eaton contributes a splendid article on acting. A New York policeman continues the publication of his diary, in which he shows how an ordinary man on the force may develop into a grafter. Dr. Woods Hutchinson writes on "Health and Horse-Power," giving news, comment and suggestion about health.

Edna Ferber, David Grayson, Raymond Ward Hofflund, Earl Derr Biggers, Cav. Angelo de Angellis and Arnold Bennett contribute fiction. Jas. Montgomery Flagg and E. W. Howe present humor. The departments "Interesting People" and "The Interpreter's House" are always worth reading.

Married at Lebanon.

We take the following notice from the Taylor County Enquirer, the marriage having taken place Tuesday of last week:

Mr. John S. Stults and Miss Mattie S. Collins were married in Lebanon Tuesday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. J. W. Miller, a cousin of the bride, the Rev. V. P. Murrell, pastor of the second Presbyterian church of that city, officiating. The marriage will come as a surprise to the many friends of the couple. The bride had been visiting in Lebanon for a few days, and the groom went in an automobile a short time before the ceremony was performed. The bride is a daughter of the late J. T. Collins and is a most estimable lady. Mr. Stults has been in the lumber and stave business here for a number of years and is also a successful farmer. Mr. and Mrs. Stults are now at their home in this city receiving the congratulations of their friends.

An Enjoyable Afternoon.

Mrs. C. M. Russell and Miss Nettie Clark very delightfully entertained a number of their friends on the afternoon of the 22nd.

Jo Russell Jr., and little Frances Russell as "General and Martha Washington" were charming, and added much to the pleasure of the afternoon.

Mrs. Geo. Stults received the prize, a small gilded hatchet, in a very clever little contest, and Mrs. W. T. Price received the booby, a miniature likeness of George Washington.

The souvenirs were small hatchets tied with the national colors.

A delightful salad course was served.

The following were present: Messdames George Stults, George Staples, C. C. Turner, W. E. Bradshaw, W. A. Coffey, Jo Russell, W. T. Price, Charles Barnett, A. D. Patterson, Misses Minnie Triplett, Sallie Baker, Rose Hyde, Sue King and Katie Murrell.

The Meeting at Nashville.

There was a big commercial meeting at Nashville last week, and nearly all the merchants from the mouth of Greasy Creek, in Russell county, this State, to the Kentucky line were invited, and were in attendance. The business men of Nashville sent boats up the river and about eighty merchants took passage for the beautiful Southern city. Arriving at the landing the boats were met by the wholesale men, the passengers driven over the city and later, at a gathering, were wine and dined and listened to many speeches, telling of the great possibilities of the Rock City.

Mr. John D. Lowe, the well-known shoe man of this place, took passage and was of the happy throng. He says it was a good meeting and very satisfactory to the business men of Nashville, who are making an effort for more trade from the Upper Cumberland. One of the main features in calling the meeting was to bring about a united effort to put in more locks in the Upper Cumberland.

It is said that the largest crowd, for many years, attended the opening of the February term of the Russell circuit court.

Mr. Bell Announces.

By reference to our announcement column, it will be seen that Mr. Luther Bell, of the Gradyville precinct, is a candidate for Jailer of Adair county, subject to the action of the Democratic voters at the August primary. There has never been a Democratic candidate nominated from the Gradyville precinct, and Mr. Bell feels like the time has come to recognize his locality. At the time Mr. Bell is a member of the Fiscal Court making a very efficient officer. He is a gentleman of education, of most excellent judgment, his qualifications pointing to him as a man who would carefully guard the interest of Adair county, and for that reason he was selected as a Justice of the Peace.

He is quite popular in his home precinct and in many other sections of the county. He is a grandson of the late Wm. L. Walker, and is well connected.

He is sober, strictly honorable, and there is not a doubt but he would make a good jailer.

Before the primary he hopes to see every Democratic voter in Adair county and personally present his claims.

A Day of Remembrance.

On Feb. 21, 1913, relatives and friends met at the home of J. W. Hale to celebrate the 27th birthday of his oldest son, Malvin.

Malvin was employed in Illinois in 1912, came home in Dec. last, in declining health.

At about 9:30 friends and relatives began to arrive and continued until the noon hour, everyone having well-filled baskets. The good women then proceeded to spread the table which groaned under its weight of good things. When dinner was ready to serve they had 18 cakes occupying the center of the table. The invitation was given for the table to be filled, then Bro. Hale gave thanks to God for the blessings of that glad hour and asked that they all might be spared to enjoy many more such occasions.

It was an enjoyable repast and after 97 persons had partaken of all the good things the table was still heavily loaded.

Malvin was the recipient of many nice and useful presents. His many friends and relatives join the father and mother in their supplication to Him above that their son may live to enjoy many more birthdays.

C. C. Hale.

Was Nearing the Century Mark

Last Friday night at 10 o'clock, Mr. James Bryant, a highly respected old gentleman, died in this city, at the home of his grandson, Mr. Walker Bryant, where he had resided for several years.

The deceased only lacked a few weeks of being ninety-four years old, and had been an active man all his life, complaining only a few days before his death.

He was a very industrious man, and even after the weight of years fell upon him, he was constantly at work, doing chores about the house. What is remarkable, Mr. Bryant's mind was as clear as a bell up to the closing hours.

The deceased was born and reared in the Eastern portion of this county where his remains were carried for interment.

There were many relatives and friends who attended the last sad rites of this much respected old man.

NOTICE.

To Kentucky Female Orphan School Graduates.

All graduates of the above named school are requested to send name and address to Principal of K. F. O. S., Midway, Ky. that each may receive an invitation to the Alumnae meeting in May. Send name and address whether or not circumstances favor attendance.

ELLA JOHNSON,
Principal K. F. O. S.

Notice.

We have set March, the 7th to close our market. If you will only notice what became of the price in the past two years after the Loose Markets closed it would not be necessary for us to emphasize the importance of your bringing your tobacco here while you have the opportunity.

Yours very truly,
Greensburg Loose Leaf Tob. Whse. Co.

Wanted.

350 or 400 bundles top or blade fodder.
Dr. J. N. Murrell.

Sanders---Breeding.

A wedding of much interest to their many friends throughout the county was that which occurred near Garlin, Ky., last Thursday a. m., Feb. 20th, when Mr. Cortez Sanders and Bertha Breeding were made one.

The ceremony was performed by Elder Tobias Huffaker, and the couple left immediately for the home of the groom where a reception was held.

Mr. Sanders is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Sanders of Joppa, Ky. He is a young man of sterling worth, a very prosperous farmer of the Green River section, and is also a teacher of this county.

Miss Breeding is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Breeding, who live a few miles out of town. She is a bright, accomplished young lady, a popular teacher of the county and a general favorite in social life. We indeed congratulate Mr. Sanders upon his choice.

The couple will begin housekeeping at once at their pretty country home on Green River.

They received many pretty presents.

Farm for Sale.

If you want to buy a small farm near Columbia, I now offer you a chance. Situated on the Stanford road 1 1/2 miles from Columbia, and containing 60 acres of land and is one of the most desirable homes in this section. With the exception of 2 or 3 acres, it is all fine limestone land, and in a good state of cultivation. New house of seven rooms, new barn and crib. As good water as found, and ample timber to keep place for many years. 17 acres of wheat, and corn land turned. No better community in county. Call if you mean business.
Tom Waggoner.

Are You a Cold Sufferer?

Take Dr. King's New Discovery. The Best Cough, Cold, Throat and Lung medicine made. Money refunded if it fails to cure you. Do not hesitate—take it at our risk. First dose helps. J. R. Wells, Floydada, Texas, writes: "Dr. King's New Discovery cured my terrible cough and cold. I gained 15 pounds." Buy it at Paul Drug Co.

A Growing School.

The enrollment of the Bowling Green Business University at Bowling Green, Ky., has exceeded that of last year by 25 per cent; but better still the Institution is called upon every month for a greater number of book keepers, stenographers and operators than it can furnish. Now is a good time for young people to enter business life.

Lebanon Death.

Mr. G. J. Basley, who was the father of Mrs. L. B. Hurt, this place, died at his late home, in Lebanon, last week, aged eighty-three. He was a fine old gentleman and had been in declining health for more than a year. Mrs. Hurt was with him in the last weeks of his life.

How the Vote Stands

The following is the standing of the candidates at the Parlor Circle, up to and including last Saturday night:

Mary Smith	950
Margaret Lovett	800
Loretta Dunbar	550

How to Collect Accounts.

We collect notes and accounts and look after claims anywhere in the United States and make no charges unless we collect.

May's Collection Agency,
Somerset, Ky.

Now is the time to advertise stock. This office has a variety of cuts and can do you good service in the way of printing bills, folders or setting an "ad" in the paper.

Foxes wanted.

Grey Foxes $2.50, Red Foxes $5.00; Minks $6.00 to $8.00 each; Coons $1.25, and express. Send name of your express office in first letter.

W. T. Hodgen,
Box 232 Campbellsville, Ky.

Born to the wife of Sam Fesse, on the 24th, a daughter.

Peafowls Wanted.

$1.50 to $2.00 each
W. T. Hodgen,
Campbellsville, Ky.

Twenty-five Men in 48 Hours.

The good news comes from Bowling Green that the Business University there claims that it could put twenty-five telegraph operators in positions within forty-eight hours so great is the demand for good men. This school has just filled nineteen positions and has seventy-three on their hands unfilled. This looks good.

The Best Cough Medicine

"I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy ever since I have been keeping house," says L. C. Hames, of Marbury, Ala. "I consider it one of the best remedies I ever used. My children have all taken it and it works like a charm. For colds and whooping cough it is excellent." For sale by Paul Drug Co.

I have accepted the agency for J. R. Watkins Medical Co., in this county, and will make a home to home canvass. You will find these goods at any time at J. F. Patten's store Columbia. I will be on the square the first day of every court. These goods need no recommendation as they have been tried by the people of this county and have given perfect satisfaction. Call at the above named store if you should need any of these goods before I call on you.
Respt.
S. G. Denny.

The Odd-Fellows Lodge at this place continues to grow. Three were initiated last Thursday night, and others are to follow. The regular meetings are the first and third Thursday nights in each month. Mr. Robert Reed is the Noble Grand and he is a splendid presiding officer. An effort is now on to have a banner lodge at Columbia, and the prospects are flattering to that end.

The Epworth League gave a very delightful social in Miss Pearl Hindman's room, at the court-house, one evening last week. It was largely attended and several hours very happily enjoyed. Candy was made and games played. Mention of the gathering should have been made last week, but like two or three other times, it flipped us.

Mr. G. A. Kemp, who is a salesman at Mr. W. L. Walker's store, met with a very painful accident last Monday morning. He was handling some cross-cut saws when one slipped and a tooth of the saw caught in his second finger on left hand, cutting a severe gash. It bled profusely, but the finger will be all right in a few days.

Business about town has been a little dull for the past week, but the reason is gracefully accepted by our merchants and grocers. They know that the farmers are busy, and they are glad when the time comes to make preparations for the approaching crop. The farmer is the stay of the land and all other business takes a delight in waiting.

Mr. J. V. White is somewhat of a surgeon. Last week he was stretching some fencing and in turning the crank of the stretcher, his hand slipped and the handle struck him on his nose, breaking it. With his own hands he adjusted the broken member, getting it perfectly straight, and at this time the break is not noticeable.

Don't you Believe It

Some say that chronic constipation cannot be cured. Don't you believe it. Chamberlain's Tablets have cured others—why not you? Give them a trial. They cost only a quarter. For sale by Paul Drug Co.

Mr. J. H. Phelps, of Jamestown, who has been in the milling business for nearly 1 year, has employed John Barns, an expert miller and is turning out a superior grade of flour and meal. It is the Miget mill and doing a thriving business.

I keep on hand a full stock of coffins and caskets, also robes; hearses. Prompt service night or day.
Phone 29.
45-1 yr
J. F. Triplett,
Columbia, Ky.

Single Comb White Leghorn eggs for hatching, 65c for 15. If by Parcel Post, you pay postage. Book your order early as I will have only a limited number.

Mrs. Jno. N. Conover.

A great many plows were started in Adair county last week.

All notes and accounts are now due and I need the money. Please come settle at once. It will save you a dun or statement.

W. L. Walker.

Personal

Mrs. G. W. Staples left Monday for Cincinnati, and other markets.

Mr. W. E. Bradshaw was in Louisville a day or two of last week.

Messrs. B. H. Gilpin and W. R. Lyon were in Columbia last Wednesday.

Mr. J. F. Montgomery, who was quite sick last week, has about recovered.

Mr. James Kinnaird, Jr., was visiting the family of Dr. James Menzies last week.

Mr. C. M. Barnett returned home last Saturday, and will be here for several days.

Mrs. Alfred Murrell, who lives out of town, has been quite sick for the past ten days.

Mr. T. W. Taylor and Mr. B. Gilpin, made their regular trip to Columbia last week.

Mrs. J. J. Booker, Miami, spent several days of last week with Mrs. Fayette Davis.

Capt. Geo. Nell, who has been seriously ill, is much better, a statement we are glad to make.

Mrs. Mack Frazer, Danville, who was reported in a dangerous condition last week, has improved.

Judge H. C. Baker and Hon. J. F. Montgomery attended the Russell circuit court a few days of last week.

Miss Annie Kinnaird, who has spent several weeks with her sister, Mrs. James Menzies, returned home last week.

Mr. H. T. Baker, who has been visiting in Knoxville and other points in the South, returned home Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Jo Carnes, of Russell county, left last week for an extended visit to relatives in Texas and Oklahoma.

Messrs. Hugh Hutchison and Hartgrove Mithum and Misses Eva, Mary and Clettie Lay visited near Dunnville last Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Russell left for Cincinnati and other markets the first of the week. It is their intention to buy an immense stock of spring goods for Russell & Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Porter A. Strange, who have been living in Jacksboro, Texas, for several years, reached Columbia, on a visit, last Thursday morning. It is our understanding that at the end of their visit here they will return to Texas and continue to engage in the mercantile business in a different part of the State, believing that they have selected a more profitable location.

I am a candidate for Town Marshal of the town of Columbia, to be voted for at the November election.
N. W. Morrison.

17-2t
Stovewood for sale.
A. H. Ballard

Turnip greens and jowl make a delicious dish these fine days.

An extra good Jersey cow for sale. Will calve in three weeks.
L. C. Hindman,
Columbia, Ky.

14-4t
The doves are cooling, an indication that Spring has arrived.

Some residents of Columbia did considerable gardening last week.

While the weather is profligious road working should become busy.

A good jersey cow for sale.
Ed Barbee.

17-1t
Next Monday will be county court. It is likely some fine horses will be on display.

I keep on hand an assortment of Spectacles. If you need glasses it will pay you to see me.
J. P. Beard.

There were several cases of measles in the Lindsey-Wilson, but the victims have about recovered.

Born to the wife of Sam Fesse February 24th, an eight pound girl. Mother and child are doing well.

FOR SALE.—20 head of cattle.
G. A. Smith, Columbia, Ky.

At the last election the Progressives polled more than 1000 votes in Adair county. In the United States Roosevelt received 11 electoral votes to Taft's one. Since then we have grown stronger. Don't forget the meeting of the Progressives at Columbia next Monday.
G. P. Smythe, Chairman.