NUMBER 21

Death at Mt Pleasant.

Miss Susan Montgomery died in the Mt. Pleasant section March 18. Funeral services were held at Mt. Pleasant church Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock by Rev. Tobias Huffaker, and she was buried at the Squires burying ground. She was 82 years of age. She was the youngest and last surviving child of Francis Montgomery, who was one of the pioneer settlers of Columbia, and who died of cholera during the epidemic of 1832. At the time of her death she lived with her niece Miss Louantha Squires. Her nearest relatives are nieces and nephews, who are the children of her sister, Mrs. Sallie Squires and her brothers, Dr. W. B. Montgomery, John Montgomery and Frank Montgomery. She was a devoted Christian woman. She always delighted in attentions to the children of her sister and brothers, and more especially those that were orphans. The funeral was largely attended by relatives and neighbors.

Arm Broken.

Clayton Turner, a young man who lives in Taylor county, employed by the Rapid Transit Company, met with a serious accident at this place last Wednesday morning. He was with the big car and it got out of commission near the cemetery. When ready to move Turner undertook to crank it when a kick came, breaking his right arm in two places below the elbow. A physician attended him, but it will be some time before he can again be on his job.

$35,000 Paid Out for Hogs.

The hog market in Adair county county has been exceedingly brisk for the last six weeks, and a vast total sum of money has been paid for them. One firm has purchased about $15,000 worth, and summing up what has been paid by other dealers, the sum total reaches $35,000. This information we get from the two banks of Columbia. The hogs were all sold on the Louisville market, and it is our information that the dealers are well satisfied with prices realized, the market at this time being active.

This money all remains at home, which is an evidence that Adair county is not on the verge of starvation, but stands ready to loan meal to friends at any time.

The Broken Coin at the Parlor Circle this (Tuesday) night, the most thrilling play ever flashed on the canvas here.

Will Return Home Soon.

A letter from Mr. J. P. Dohoney, Sr., who is in St. Anthony Hospital, Louisville, to his family, states that he is improving rapidly. He is now able to walk about his room, and he thinks that if he does not receive a back set he will be able to return home in a very few days. He is in very fine spirits, and thinks that a permanent cure for his malady has been accomplished.

Attention is called to the stock advertisement of Mr. A. S. Chewning in today's News. He has some first-class stock and he invites the public to read their pedigrees. Mr. Chewning has opened the way for the farmers in this section, who own good mares, to have them produce better colts. Read what he has to say.

Not Now, But Later.

The people of Green county would like to have a new court house, but at present, with the railroad tax question unsettled, it would be impossible to get the fiscal court to levy a tax for a public building. There are many citizens who are living in the hope that some day the county will be relieved of its burden, and that day many think will come before a great while. In our judgment, if Green county could arrange to settle, by compromise, the railroad debt, the historic town of Greensburg would take on new life. Not only a court house would be erected, but many business houses and handsome residences would go up. But when you think of the present temple of justice, in the hearts of the oldest citizens, there is a tender feeling that lingers for many men, now dead, who became prominent, and who commenced the practice of law in the old historic building. There were Wm. P. Willis, Aaron Harding, the Barnetts, the Buckners and Wards, who as attorneys, gained reputations all over Kentucky.

Do not fail to be at the Parlor Circle this (Tuesday) night. One of the greatest series ever produced is now on, and will run for twenty nights.

Mountain Dare.

Wilson Bros., of Cave City, recently sold to G. L. Jones, Hatcher, Taylor county, the show stallion, Mountain Dare, by Chester Dare, dam by Montrose. Mountain Dare is a show horse that has to his credit many blues won in some of the best gatherings of show horses that meet on the show grounds throughout the State. He holds as high rank as a breeder as his aristocratic blood warrants, having sired Mauk, the show horse that won many premiums in the East last year, and sold for $2,350.00. We did not obtain the price paid for Mountain Dare, but understand that it was no small sum. Mr. Jones is to be congratulated in securing this horse and will doubtless be rewarded by a most liberal patronage. It is a good sign to see our stockmen retaining the best stallions produced in this section and adding to the stud some of the most fashionable breeds produced in other sections. High class horses are the ones that it pays to raise. Wilson Bros. say, in their opinion, they never owned a finer horse or better breeder than Mountain Dare.

Married in Casey County.

Wednesday of last week, Mrs. Tennie Smith, of this county, was married to Mr. Thos Miller, of near Dannville. Mrs. Smith has been a saleslady in a dry goods store, in Casey county, for some time, and it was at the store, where the couple first met. Mr. Miller is said to be a very prosperous farmer. Mrs. Smith's relatives and friends in Adair extend their best wishes.

The Greensburg Loose Leaf House will close for the season in a very few days. The management informed a News man last week that the business for this year had been satisfactory, but not quite so good as last season. They handled many thousand pounds, and secured as good prices for the farmers as any other house in this part of the State. The profits to the company were not as great as in the past, due in a measure to tobacco being too dry most of the season. It is well enough that we have only one loose leaf house in this part of the State, as dividing the profits would make the business undesirable.

Miss Grace Hobson and Mr. Shirley Fennell, both of Campbellsville, surprised their friends by going to Lebanon Tuesday of last week and getting married. The bride is a daughter of Mr. Wm. Hobson. Only a short time ago she visited Miss Ruby Wagoner, of this place.

The members of the Republican County Committee are urged to meet in Columbia next Saturday, the 25. There is some very important business to be transacted. Let nothing prevent the members from attending. By order of Chairman.

Died at Cane Valley.

Mr. C. Allison Wilson, who was seventy-seven years old, after a long illness, died at the home of a son, in Cane Valley, last Wednesday night. He was one of the best known men in that community, and his death brought sorrow to the whole neighborhood.

When the Civil war came he espoused the cause of the Union, entered the Federal army, making a gallant soldier until he received his discharge.

Many years ago he made a profession of his faith in Christ, united with the Baptist Church, and lived consistently until the end.

He lost his wife a number of years ago, but he is survived by several sons and daughters, Mr. Geo. E. Wilson, of this place, being one of the number.

The funeral services, which were held in the Baptist church, Cane Valley, were largely attended, and many friends followed the remains to the cemetery.

Wins a Prize.

Herschel Baker Jones, aged 24 months, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Jones, and grandson of Judge H. C. Baker, was one of the prize winners in the most perfect baby contest at Knoxville. The contest conducted by the leading specialists of the city, commenced on Wednesday morning, and was continued through the week, and attracted great interest in the city, the papers devoting much space to it. There were several hundred babies in the contest, eight winning prizes.

Millinery Opening.

Our hats will be open for your inspection Saturday, Mch., 25. You are cordially invited to see our beautiful display. Mrs. Geo. Staples

The two church buildings, the Baptist and the Christian, which are being constructed at Campbellsville, will be completed about the same time—the latter part of spring or early in the summer. The Baptist edifice is considerably larger than the Christian, but there will be very little difference in the cost of the buildings. Each one will have put up about thirty thousand dollars the day of dedication. They are very conveniently arranged. The Baptist will contain fourteen Sunday School rooms and the Christian eight. They will be heated by steam, the furnaces having already been installed. The buildings are a great credit to Campbellsville and the liberal donors.

If you want to be entertained to a finish, see the Broken Coin at the Parlor Circle to-night (Tuesday).

The Ladies Aid Society of the Presbyterian Church will meet with Mrs. Nannie Flowers Thursday, Mch., 30 at 2:30 p. m. A special work is being planned for the ladies. Make your arrangements to attend this meeting and learn more about it.

Notice to the Trade.

Will give 10 per cent discount on all shoes for 30 days. Mar. 21, '16. D. M. Moore, 21-22. Garlin, Ky.

A delightful time was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Montgomery by members of the Presbyterian Church, last Friday evening. The hours were passed in innocent games, listening to music and social converse. There were refreshments.

Evan Loy passed through Columbia last Friday afternoon with one hundred and seventy hogs that he bought on Cumberland river. Some of them were very heavy weighing from 350 to 600 pounds. They went from here to Louisville.

Next Friday night will be the regular meeting of Columbia Chapter No. 7 Royal Arch Masons. All Companions are requested to attend. J. D. Lowe, High Priest.

Married in Russell County.

Sunday, March 12th, Mr. J. P. Catron, the well-known picture man, of Science Hill, and Miss Ivona Brown, of the Clear Spring section, were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ivy Brown, in the presence of a few relatives and friends. After the ceremony by Rev. B. F. Vails, the little crowd very willingly filed into the dining room where a bountiful repast was served to the satisfaction of all present. Afterward the guests returned to the sitting room where they enjoyed a social chat, then wishing the bride and groom much happiness took their leave for home. Mr. and Mrs. Catron will move to Science Hill to make their future home.

T. E. Waggener has purchased Mr. W. H. Gill's one-half interest in the general store which has been conducted over the firm name of Gill & Waggener. Mr. Waggener will continue the business at same stand.

Good shows Thursday and Saturday nights this week.

The Presbyterian prayer meeting will be held Wednesday night at 7 o'clock with Mrs. Nannie Flowers.

Frank Shepherd, this county, is on the Federal grand jury, court being in session at Louisville.

Get Busy.

The business interests of every town should be interested in having large crowds to attend the county courts, once a month. People make business, and when three to five hundred farmers come to town, they are sure to leave a goodly sum of money in it. Our observation is that Saturday is the best business day for Campbellsville, and that court day is nothing more than an ordinary day. In fact, many people of the town would not know that county court was in session were they not told. If the business men of Campbellsville want to see trade lively on court days, let them induce the farmers of Taylor county to bring the stock they have for sale, cattle and mules especially, to the county courts. Buyers will be there, and after you have one day of this kind, the work has been accomplished.

Not America for Americans; but Americans for America. See The Battle Cry of Peace. Willock Opera House, Campbellsville, Tuesday Mch., 28.

Clean-up Notice.

Notice is hereby given to the citizens of the town of Columbia that Tuesday, the 28th day of March, 1916, is set for a general cleaning up of the back yards, lots and premises of every residence and business house in the town and to put the cans, garbage and trash in boxes or barrels and set them on the edge of the street or alley on that day and they will be hauled off. This is to prevent disease and sickness, and unless obeyed the Board will take further action of those failing.

Dr. S. P. Miller,
Health Officer.

Dissolution of Partnership.

The firm of Gill & Waggener has been dissolved, Mr. Gill going out. All parties owing the late firm are urged to call and make payment, as the outstanding business must be settled.

Gill & Waggener.

Died at Jericho.

Mr. Littleton Beard, who was a well-known citizen of Adair county, died at the home of his son, Mr. W. J. Beard, at Jericho, last Friday morning at 3 o'clock. If he had lived until the 4th of next July he would have been 79 years old. He served in the Third Kentucky Infantry, Bramlett's regiment, during the war of the rebellion.

A great many relatives and friends attended the funeral and burial.

Mr. Jo M. Reed and family have removed from Columbia to a farm on Green river, near Edith. Mr. Reed, who has had some experience, will devote his time to stock raising and to cultivating the soil. The place to which he has removed is the farm from which Mr. J. S. Breeding removed when he became a resident of Columbia.
