AT THE PARSONAGE.

Mr. T. C. Taylor, a Prominent Merchant of Campbellsville, and Mrs. Ermine Wilson Married at the Parsonage.

ONLY A FEW CLOSE FRIENDS PRESENT.

Last Thursday afternoon Mr. T. C. Taylor, who is a prominent merchant of Campbellsville, and Mrs. Ermine Wilson, one of the best known ladies of the Russell Springs section of Russell county, were married at 2 o'clock, in this city, by Rev. W. R. Wagoner, at the home of the minister.

Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for the groom's home, in Campbellsville.

The groom is a prominent merchant in his home town and has a large acquaintance throughout the State.

The bride is a very popular lady, and has spent eight or ten years of her life in the mercantile business, at her former home town, Russell Springs. Her manner of doing business won friends all over Russell county, all of whom will be glad to learn that she has been happily married.

The groom lived a widower several years, and the bride lost her first husband something like fifteen years ago. The News extends its best wishes.

Death of a Good Woman.

Mrs. Delle Bryant, who was the beloved wife of T. J. Bryant, who is a merchant, doing business near Ozark, died last Wednesday morning at 2 o'clock. She was sixty-five years old, and had been an invalid for eleven years, being a victim of pulmonary trouble. She was tenderly cared for during her long affliction by her devoted husband and loving children. Neighbors were also constantly at her bedside, and the best medical attention was employed.

The deceased was a very religious woman, having been a devout member of the Christian Church for many years.

The funeral services were conducted by Revs. Nathan Murrell and P. M. Bryant, a large circle of relatives and friends being present to pay their last respects to the departed, who will be greatly missed, not only by the surviving husband and children, but by the entire neighborhood.

May the blessings of God rest upon those who have been so sorely bereft, and give them fortitude to sustain their great loss, a devoted wife and a loving mother.

She cannot come back, but they can go to her if they walk in the straight and narrow path that leads to eternal life. To meet wife and mother at the celestial gate is worth correct living to accomplish.

Loose Leaf House at Burkesville.

The starting of a loose leaf house at Burkesville is a certainty. The stock holders met last Saturday, and finding that not enough money had been raised, subscribed an additional five thousand dollars, elected a Board of Directors, and let the contract for putting up the buildings. It will be a great enterprise, and very convenient to Cumberland and adjacent county tobacco growers.

In April issue of the American Magazine are interviews with James R. Mann, Republican floor leader of the House of Representatives, and Oscar W. Underwood, author of the present tariff law. Both make interesting and conflicting forecasts of our tariff needs after the war.

Besides the marriage licenses, heretofore reported, the following have been recently issued: Clell Burton to Lula E. Burton; Ben Conover to Pearly W. Grider; Lawrence C. Lawless to Annie L. Hadley; Wm. Burton to Carrie Harmon.

Ground was in fine condition for plowing this week, and the farmers were busy from the rising of the sun to the setting thereof.

All the bills passed by the last Legislature are published in to-day's News.

Died at Moberly Missouri.

Last Sunday week Mr. W. F. Jeffries, who was known in this county as Flood Jeffries, died at his late home Moberly, Mo., aged about 59 years.

The deceased was a son of T. P. Jeffries, who died in Adair county many years ago. He was born in Russell county, removing to this county, with his parents, when only a small boy. He grew up and married here, removing to Missouri twenty or more years ago. He was a good business man, and for a long time traveled for a wholesale house.

Several years ago he met with a stroke of paralysis, followed by a fall, breaking one of his hips. From this accident he never recovered.

He was buried in his home town, the funeral services being largely attended.

Besides his wife he leaves a number of children, and to them, friends and relatives of Adair county extend their deepest sympathy.

Among his relatives here we name Horace, T. E. C. G. and Miss Mollie Jeffries, nephews and niece. His wife was Miss Ellen Reynolds, who was a daughter of Jas. H. Reynolds, deceased, and by that name there are a number of surviving relatives.

Tacky Party.

Last Thursday night a most enjoyable time was spent by the young folks at the home of Mrs. Priscilla Dohoney, it being a surprise tacky party. About 7:30 o'clock the crowd gathered at the home of Miss Virginia Coffey and from there they marched to Mrs. Dohoney's home in a group, taking her by surprise. She was assisted by her daughter, Miss Tossie, in entertaining the young people until about 10:30. Refreshments were served and a very enjoyable time was spent. Master Fred Harris and Miss Amelia Damron won the prize for being the tackiest couple and Miss Virginia Coffey won the prize on games. Every one regretted when the parting hour came. About 15 couples were present, besides several grown-ups who went to look on.

Tuesday night two season tickets will be given away at the Parlor Circle, for "The Broken Coin."

Mrs. Fannie Sexton, who has been living in Campbellsville for some time, has removed to Gadberry, this county, home.

"THE MAN WHO CAME BACK."

Modern Woodmen Motion Pictures.

This picture will be given at the Parlor Circle Wednesday night, April 5th.

Under directions of Head Consul, A. R. Talbot, of Lincoln, Neb., the Modern Woodmen of America, is now booking a reel of 1,040 feet of motion pictures, entitled "The Man Who Came Back," featuring Robert Wilson, of Missouri, in a true and realistic film story of his part in the present war—not of bloodshed—but in the fight against and conquest of that menacing monster of the human flesh—tuberculosis. Wilson is one of the million members of the Modern Woodmen of America. Discovering that he is afflicted with this disease, he takes advantage of the comforts, care, and cure of the Sanatorium owned, maintained, and operated by that Society, free of charge to its members.

For several years that fraternal institution has thus actively and effectively co-operated in the world-wide movement advocated by the Red Cross and medical authorities, to stamp out the dread "white plague" and Wilson is the beneficiary of this Woodmen life-saving station. It is an intensely interesting and heart-gripping story of the leave-taking of wife and children.

Weak in body and hopeless in mind he journeys to the beautiful Rocky Mountain region near Colorado Springs, Colo., where, in the rarified climate and constant sunshine, at an altitude of 7,000 feet, he is destined to spend nine months at the foot of Mount Cedar, in the care of the most modern Sanatorium in the world.

His experiences in "chasing the cure," his absolute rest from all cares and labor, his gradual return to health and strength, his "hikes" among the fragrant pines and over the rocky trails of the U. S. forest reserve, leased by and adjoining the Sanatorium, result in his final return to family and friends victorious over his foe.

"The Man Who Came Back" is a thrilling and dramatic story—and absolutely true as well; indeed, his experiences has been duplicated by nearly 2,000 of his fellow Neighbors, who have already enjoyed the benefits of this justly celebrated institution. This film is pronounced by competent authorities to be one of the very best in this highly developed age of motion pictures, and is in such great demand that it can be booked for only one day and night in each town or city. It is a rare opportunity one can not afford to miss.

State Deputy, for the Modern Woodmen, J. W. DeHart, of Louisville, will be present and give a lecture while the reel is being run.

Produce Wanted.

I will buy country meat, lard, potatoes, eggs, chickens and corn. 22-2t T. E. Waggener.

Mr. Jas. A. Wilmore, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Wilmore, of Gradyville, is forging to the front as an attorney. He is located at Lexington, and this week he is engaged in a law suit for the plaintiff, brought by J. L. Griffith, administrator of E. S. Griffith, against the Kentucky Traction and Terminal Company for $25,000. E. S. Griffith was accidentally killed by a car of the company.

Married in Lebanon.

Miss Ina B. Dohoney, a popular young woman of Bradfordsville, and Carsie Hammonds, a school teacher of Russell Springs, were united in marriage at the Baptist parsonage in this city Tuesday evening, Rev. T. J. Porter officiating.

The ceremony took place in the presence of only a few close friends, after which the young people left for a trip to Louisville and Bowling Green.

The bride, who is a daughter of James Dohoney, of Adair county, is a sister of Mrs. A. D. Purdy, with whom she has been making her home for several years. She is quite an attractive young woman, and has a large circle of friends. The groom is a son of C. A. Hammonds, of Russell county. —Lebanon Enterprise.

The bride has a great many relatives in Adair county, Mrs. J. C. Browning being a sister.

Blankenship-Vance Wedding Solemnized.

(Times-Union, Jacksonville, Fla., March, 20.)

An interesting event of the past week was the marriage of Miss Nancy Murrell Vance, daughter of Mrs. Mattie Vance, and Mr. Elliot Eugene Blankenship, which was solemnized at the home of the bride on Monroe street Friday evening.

The drawing room, where the ceremony took place, was beautifully decorated, a pink and white color motif being effectively carried out with cut flowers, together with palms ferns and other potted plants.

Mrs. M. K. Jones presided at the piano, rendering an appropriate program of wedding music, and playing the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin as the bridal party entered.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. W. M. Vance, and little Miss Ellineor Mathison acted as ring-bearer, carrying the ring in the heart of a white rose.

The groom had as his best man Mr. Sam Roberts.

The ceremony which was witnessed by relatives and intimate friends of the couple, was performed by Rev. C. W. Mathison and Rev. Dr. F. Pasco.

The bride was charming in her wedding gown of white crepe de chine with lace and ribbon trimmings, and carried an arm bouquet of white carnations and lilies of the valley.

The little flower girl wore a frock of white lingerie with pink satin sash and hair ribbons.

Following the ceremony there was an informal reception, during which the couple received the congratulations of their friends.

During the reception hour a delicious refreshment course was served, Mrs. J. O'Quinn, Mrs. M. J. Holehan and Mrs. W. H. Roberts, Jr., assisting in serving.

The bride came to Jacksonville a couple of years ago from Columbia, Ky., and during her residence here has made many friends.

The groom, formerly of Washington, D. C., also popular with a host of friends, who will extend congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. Blankenship will make their home in Jacksonville.

Mrs. Wilson Entertains.

Last Saturday afternoon Mrs. W. M. Wilson entertained complimentary to Miss Alva Knight of Jamestown, and Miss Leonora Lowe, of Kentucky College for Women, Danville, Ky., who is spending a few days at home.

Progressive Rook was the feature of the afternoon's entertainment, Miss Mary Lucy Lowe making the highest score.

A clover drawing contest, in which Miss Katherine Gill was the successful winner of the "Four Leaf Clover," was very much enjoyed.

Delightful music was rendered by Mrs. Wilson and Miss Alice Walker. A salad course was served.

Those receiving invitations were: Misses Alva Knight, Leonora Lowe, Mary Lucy Lowe, Madge Rosenfield, May Stults, Alice Walker, Ella Walker, Mollie Caldwell, Katherine Gill, Sue F. King, Mabel Russell Ewen, Evelyne Clark, Edna Akers, Mary Triplett, Mary Breeding, Mary Miller, Ella Todd, Mrs. Arvest Hill.

Don't fail to see Mary Pickford, the highest salaried actress in the world, Thursday night.

Index Finger Cut Off

Last Monday morning Mr. Oliver Pelley, son of Mr. J. H. Pelley, this place, met with a serious accident. He was hooking up a pair of mules and was using a piece of wire. The mules started too soon, and Mr. Pelley's left hand got caught by the wire and his index finger was cut off. He came to town and the stump of his finger was dressed by Dr. W. J. Flowers.

A series of meetings will commence at the Methodist church, this city, next Sunday. A cordial invitation is extended to all denominations to attend.

Quarterly Meeting at the Methodist church this (Wednesday) forenoon. There will also be services in the evening.
