FOR SAFE KEEPING

Prisoners Brought Here From Bath County.

Other Arrests Likely to Follow Before Trial, October 21st.

Sheriff Seth Botts and Deputy Cole Barnes, accompanied by several guards, brought to this city and lodged in jail last Friday eight prisoners from Owingsville, Bath county. The men are charged with shooting at from ambush and banding together to injure persons and private property. The men arrested and brought here are Sam Trayler, John Goodpaster, Roe Purvis, Tom Purvis, Len Collins, Tom Collins, Tom White and Owen Withrow, all striking union miners from the Rose Run Iron Works and their arrest was due to disturbances which have been occurring in Bath county for months.

There is considerable feeling at the mines over the affair. The arrested men were sent here for safe keeping by Judge Young. The men are held under $2,000 bond.

The cases will be called for trial October 21st, to which time court adjourned to give the officers an opportunity to arrest a number of others indicted for the same crime.

COMMITTS SUICIDE

"Pete" Hall Drank Wood Alcohol and Died Monday Night

Poor Health is Thought to be the Cause for the Rash Act.

"Pete" Hall, a well-known machinist, of this city, committed suicide at an early hour Monday evening by drinking a quantity of wood alcohol. He was found in a dying condition at 8 o'clock and only lived a few minutes. Passers-by heard his moans and broke in the door. Ill health is thought to have been the cause for him taking his life. He was employed at the Sterling Bottling Works Co., and was a machinist of considerable ability. The body was taken in charge and prepared for burial by Coronor G. C. Eastin.

ROOSEVELT WOUNDED

Attempt Made to Kill Him at Milwaukee Monday.

Shot by Crank Who is Caught and Lodged in Jail.

While on his way to the Auditorium to make a political speech Monday Col. Roosevelt, the Bull Moose candidate for President, was shot by John Shrank, thought to be of New York. The wound was only very slight, however, and the Colonel continued on his way to the Auditorium and made his speech. The man who did the shooting was caught and rushed to jail, and from his talk and notes found in his pockets there is no doubt that he is insane.

Henry S. Cochem seized the man and held him until policemen came up. A mob surged around the prisoner, who is apparently mentally upset on the subject of Roosevelt running for another term as President. The man, who is small of stature, admitted firing the shot and said that "any man looking for a third term ought to be shot."

In notes found in the man's pocket at the police station, were statements that the man had been visited in a dream by the spirit of William McKinley, who had said, indicating Colonel Roosevelt, "this is my murderer, avenge my death." A written proclamation found in the clothing of the man who did the shooting reads:

"September 15, 1912.
"September 15, 1901, at 3 a. m., in a dream, I saw President McKinley sit up in a monk's attire in whom I recognized Theodore Roosevelt. The President said: 'This is my murderer, avenge my death.'

"September 12, 1912, 3 a. m.—While writing a poem some one tapped me on the shoulder and said: 'Let not a murderer take the Presidential chair. Avenge my death.'

"Could plainly see Mr. McKinley's features.
"Before Almighty God I swear this above writing is nothing but the truth."

Another note found in the man's pocket reads:

"So long as Japan could rise to the greatest power in the world, despite her surviving a tradition more than 2,000 years old, as Gen. Nogi so nobly demonstrated, it is the duty of the United States of America to uphold the third term tradition. Let every third-termer be regarded as a traitor to the American cause. Let it be the right and duty of every citizen to forcibly remove a third-termer. Never let a third term party emblem appear on the official ballot.
"I am willing to die for my country. God has called me to be his instrument, so help me God.
"INNOCENT GUILTY."
(Written in German.)
"A strong power is our God."

The Colonel asked to have the man brought to him and when the would-be assassin was asked why he fired the shot no reply was offered.

Col. Roosevelt left on his special train for Chicago after his speech at Milwaukee, and said he expected to fulfill the rest of his speaking dates.

Eye Removed.

Mr. James Wall, of Morehead, met with a serious accident here which caused him the loss of his right eye. Mr. Wall was working around some machinery when a piece of steel flew off, striking him in the pupil of the eye, and causing intense pain. The wound was hastily dressed and Mr. Wall hurried to this city, where he was examined by Dr. J. F. Reynolds, who found the eye destroyed. It was in such a condition that to leave it in its place would endanger the sight of the other eye, and the injured one was removed. Mr. Wall suffered intense pain but is now getting along all right and it is not believed that the other eye will be affected. Mr. Wall is a prominent business man of Morehead, and has many friends who deeply regret the unfortunate accident.

CHAS. G. GLOVER

Commits Suicide by Taking Carbolic Acid in Oklahoma City.

Was Formerly a Well Known Man of Mt. Sterling.

News reached this city Tuesday morning to the effect that Charles G. Glover, a prominent business man of Oklahoma City, Okla., and formerly of this city, had committed suicide by taking carbolic acid. Mr. Glover is survived by his wife and several daughters, all of whom are well known here, and have many friends who will join us in extending deepest sympathy. The cause of Mr. Glover's rash act is unknown here and is deeply regretted by his many old friends, who thought he was prospering in his new home. The arrangements for the funeral had not been made at the time of going to press.

New York Wins Seventh Game.

New York defeated Boston Tuesday in the seventh game of the world's series by a score of 11 to 4. This makes the two teams tied in the series, each team having won three games, there being one tie. Both teams have played brilliant ball. The heavy hitting of the Giants being a feature. Wood pitched two wonderful games for Boston, but was knocked out of the box in the first inning Tuesday. Marquard's pitching has won two games for New York. Tesreau pitched Tuesday's game. The deciding game will be played at Boston today and on paper the Giants seem to have the better of the argument.
