NEW TOBACCO WAREHOUSE

Mr. A. R. Robertson Will Open Up Modern Loose Leaf House In This City.

Mr. A. R. Robertson has contracted with Mrs. J. W. Barnes for a period of three years for the use of her large tobacco warehouse, near the stock yards in this city. Mrs. Barnes will build a large addition to the house so that when completed it will have a floor capacity of 100,000 pounds. The house will be made modern in every particular and Messrs. T. B. Robertson and William Henderson will have active management of the house which insures its customers courteous treatment and the prompt handling of their crops.

Mr. A. R. Robertson, who has been connected with the Louisville Tobacco Co., for a number of years will continue to buy tobacco on the loose leaf market and also in the country for them. Mt. Sterling will this year have three loose leaf markets besides the market of the Burley Tobacco Co., located just outside the city limits.

MAKES ROUND UP

Some weeks ago in a crap game just outside the city limits on the coal road, where negroes congregate almost every Sunday and engage in the favorite game of that race, a white man was shot by a negro who made his escape. This was the first information Sheriff Howell had of the game and last Sunday he determined to make an effort to break it up. With the aid of five assistants he quietly surrounded the place and gradually closed in on the party, with the result that thirteen were caught in his drag net. Monday morning all of them were tried before County Judge Chenault and given a fine of $20 and cost each, with one lone exception, who proved by every one present that he was merely a spectator and had not engaged in the game. The dozen convicted are at work on a good sized rock pile.

BUILDING HOME

Mr. C. P. Pierce, the contractor, began the erection of a house for Mrs. Mary Rice Tuesday morning on Samuels avenue. The house will be modern in every particular.

MRS. HALLEY DIES

Mrs. Addie Johnson Halley, the beloved wife of Mr. Claude R. Halley, died at the Good Samaritan Hospital in Lexington last Tuesday night, July 28, 1914, of lock jaw, following an operation for tumor. Mrs. Halley had only been ill a short time and her death is the cause of much sorrow in this community. Following the operation she was thought to be getting along splendidly when the fatal malady set in.

Deceased was forty-five years of age and had long been a devoted member of the Christian church. She was a school teacher by profession and was never happier than when engaged in the execution of her noble work. In the death of Mrs. Halley Mt. Sterling and Montgomery county have lost a worthy and beloved Christian lady, one whose place will ever remain vacant and one whose most beautiful life will shine out to many as a guiding star in years to come. Beautiful in spirit, noble in deeds, she has entered that Beautiful Land beyond the stars. But the world is better by her having lived and though there are many to join her heart broken husband and beloved relatives and friends in the death of this beloved lady in extending deepest sympathy in their time of grief they may be comforted in the thought of her exemplary life.

She was a twin sister of Mrs. J. D. Gay, of the county, and is survived, besides her husband and Mrs. Gay, by the following brothers and sisters: J. Gano Johnson and Dr. J. Keller Johnson, of this county, and J. Wells Johnson, of this city; Mrs. Lida Herriott, of Oklahoma City; Mrs. L. B. Greene, Mrs. Dun'ap Gay, Mrs. G. W. Kemper and Miss Fanny Johnson, all of this county.

The remains were brought to this city Wednesday morning and taken to the Halley residence on Clay street. The burial took place Thursday afternoon at 2:30 in beautiful Machpelah cemetery, with brief services at the grave, conducted by Rev. Clyde Darsie.

OFF TO RACES

BECKHAM IS THE WINNER

Defeats Congressman A. O. Stanley in Senatorial Race Saturday.

Hon. J. C. W. Beckham defeated his opponent, Hon. A. O. Stanley for the Democratic nomination for United States Senate Saturday by a margin of between 7,000 and 10,000, it will require the official count however to get his official majority but his election is conceded, Gov. McCreary running a poor third, carrying only four counties. Mr. Beckham made a most wonderful fight, winning his nomination in the face of great opposition. He cast his fight on a high plane and won his nomination fairly and squarely and every Democrat who took part in the primary should feel honor bound to support him in November.

Former Governor A. E. Willson surprised the wise ones in the Republican ranks by beating that smooth politician R. P. Ernst for the Republican nomination. His selection will be very helpful to Mr. Beckham as it is understood Mr. Willson is very unpopular with a large number of Republicans. Mr. Burton Vance was chosen as the Progressive nominee and being a bright, hustling young man will draw quite a number of Republicans to him in November. Possibly the most wonderful race of the primary was that run by Hon. Johnson N. Camden, for the short term in the Senate, who won by between 30,000 and 40,000. Mr. Camden now looms up as a possible entrant in the gubernatorial race and his friends everywhere are urging him to enter the race. He is a gentleman of the highest class, competent and courageous, with the confidence of the people and should he decide to run would make it very interesting for any other aspirants.

Miss Graham Lawson and Mr. Rolla Kendall, of Flemingsburg, were married Monday morning at the residence of the officiating minister, Rev. J. T. Sharrard, in Paris. They were accompanied to Paris by Miss Lollo Lee and Mr. H. C. Carpenter, and the trip was made in an automobile. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Kendall went to Lexington for a short bridal trip. Mrs. Kendall is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Lawson, and Mr. Kendall is the son of Mr. and Mrs. N. O. Kendall, of Flemingsburg. They were a very handsome couple and are quite popular in Flemingsburg society. Both of the contracting parties are known in Mt. Sterling, the bride having frequently visited here where she is quite a favorite.

CALLED HERE

Rev. D. Yeamans, formerly of Danville, but for the past three or four years of Illinois, has been called to the pastorate of the Presbyterian church in this city, and has accepted the call. He will assume the duties of pastor within a few days. Dr. Yeamans is considered one of the ablest and best ministers in the Presbyterian church and the congregation here is fortunate in securing his services.

BLUE GRASS FAIR

The great Blue Grass Fair opened at Lexington Monday with a large crowd in attendance. The show rings are well filled, the racing is spirited and the other attractions are the best ever seen in this section. Large crowds from here are attending daily.

derstood Mr. Willson is very unpopular with a large number of Republicans. Mr. Burton Vance was chosen as the Progressive nominee and being a bright, hustling young man will draw quite a number of Republicans to him in November. Possibly the most wonderful race of the primary was that run by Hon. Johnson N. Camden, for the short term in the Senate, who won by between 30,000 and 40,000. Mr. Camden now looms up as a possible entrant in the gubernatorial race and his friends everywhere are urging him to enter the race. He is a gentleman of the highest class, competent and courageous, with the confidence of the people and should he decide to run would make it very interesting for any other aspirants.

Hon. W. J. Fields was again nominated by between 6,000 and 8,000. He carried every county in his district. His friends are jubilant over his splendid victory.

Mr. Glen Ireland was nominated by the Republicans.

The official tabulation of Montgomery county will be found below.

The vote cast in the State was very light, only about 80 per cent. in the cities and 50 per cent. in the country.

BUYS INTEREST IN COAL BUSINESS

Mr. C. C. McDonald has bought a one-half interest in the coal and feed business of McDonald Bros., acquiring the interest owned by Mrs. B. J. McDonald. The new firm contemplates building a large warehouse and otherwise increasing the capacity of the business. Mr. Alvin Ratliff, of Sharpsburg, has accepted a position with them and Mr. M. T. Botts will also be retained. The addition of Mr. C. C. McDonald to this firm will add much to its popularity as he is one of this city's most progressive business men and has a host of friends in Montgomery and adjoining counties.

SCHOOLS BEGIN

Quite a number of rural schools in this county began Monday with a good attendance. The date for the opening of the rural schools is a little later than usual, but was forced on the superintendent in being unable to obtain text-books sooner.

TWO ELECTIONS FOR PARIS

The petition filed two weeks ago by the temperance people asking for a local option election in Bourbon county, came up in the Bourbon county court Monday before Judge C. A. McMillan. There was an opposition to the petition and the County Judge called the election September 28, as requested in the petition.

The petition filed by the wets asking for a separate election in Paris for September 26 was contested. The drys, through their attorney, Robt. C. Talbot, filed a paper setting out objections to the calling of the election, which were overruled by Judge McMillan, and the election was called for the City of Paris on September 26, as requested in the petition of the wets.
